COVERING UTAH STATE

TO THE MEDIA

The 2018 Utah State football guide has been prepared to assist you in covering the Aggies this season. Additional information is available by contacting the Athletic Media Relations Office at (435) 797-3714 or through USU's website at www.UtahStateAggies.com.

WEEKLY PRESS RELEASE

Each Monday a complete release previewing the upcoming game and reviewing the season will be available on the Utah State athletic website at www.UtahStateAggies.com. This release will also be e-mailed to media requesting this service on Monday.

PRESS CONFERENCES

Head coach Matt Wells will hold a press conference each Monday during the season at 11:30 a.m. (contact the USU Athletic Media Relations Office for locations). Selected players will also be available at the press conference. Quotes and video from the press conference will be available on USU's website (www.UtahStateAggies.com) each Monday afternoon and will also be e-mailed per request.

VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS

Utah State provides broadcast-quality video of Monday press conferences. Game highlights are also available upon request. Contact the Utah State Athletic Media Relations Office for more information.

LIVE STREAMING

Live streaming of all of Utah State's weekly press conferences and home post-game press conferences can be found on USU's Aggie Digital Network at www.UtahStateAggies.com/videos.

INTERVIEWS

All requests for interviews with Utah State players and coaches should be made directly through the Athletic Media Relations Office at (435) 797-3714 and should be made at least one day in advance. The best time for player interviews is after practice, while head coach Matt Wells should be available in the mornings, as well as before or after practice. Player interviews will be conducted through Wednesday each game week.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

PARKING

Credentialed media will be allowed access to the C parking lot, located on the north side of the stadium. A parking pass is required for admittance to that area and should be requested at least one week in advance of the game.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Access to the press level (fifth floor) of the West Stadium Center is located on the northwest side of Maverik Stadium and is limited to those with working credentials. A pregame meal will be served approximately one hour prior to kickoff.

Game programs, game notes, flip cards, statistics and play-by-play information will be provided before and during the game. At the conclusion of the game, a complete statistical book, typed quotes and postgame notes will be available.

Final game statistics, notes and quotes will be e-mailed to media requesting the service.

Wireless internet will be available to media at the game. A limited number of telephones will also be available in the press box on a first-come, first-serve basis. Requests for personal phones should be made through USU Telephone Services at (435) 797-3201 at least one week prior to the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS' ACCESS

Photographers are allowed to shoot on the sidelines outside the team bench area (team bench areas are between the 25-yard lines). Photographers must remain behind the second set of dashed lines. Team rosters are provided in the press box.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Utah State locker room is closed to the media on game days. Postgame interviews will take place after a brief cooling off period in the Spetman Auditorium, located on the second floor of the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex. The Spetman Auditorium has wireless internet, so media and photographers can file from there or return to the press box.

ELECTRONIC SERVICES

ON THE AIR

Utah State football games are broadcast on the Aggie Radio Network, which includes the following stations: KZNS (1280 AM/97.5 FM) in Salt Lake City, KBLU-LP (92.3 FM) in Logan, KACH (1340 AM/105.5 FM) in Cache Valley, Utah/Idaho, KRPX (95.3 FM) in Price, KRPX (102.7 FM) in Green River, KRPX (100.3 FM) in Moab and KRPX (95.9 FM) in Orangeville, as well as on the internet at www.UtahStateAggies.com.

MATT WELLS ON THE AIR

The Matt Wells radio show, hosted by Scott Garrard will be broadcast on Tuesdays on the Aggie Radio Network from 7-8 p.m.

ON THE INTERNET

Select Mountain West games are available to view live via the internet on USU's Aggie Digital Network at www.UtahStateAggies.com/videos.

GAMETRACKER

Aggie fans will be able to follow Utah State home games through the USU website at www.UtahStateAggies.com, via GameTracker, a program that documents each play and updates statistics.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Aggie fans can stay up-to-date with the latest USU Athletics information via its various social media platforms:

DIRECTIONS TO LOGAN

Logan, Utah, is home to Utah State University and is located approximately 80 miles north of Salt Lake City, Utah. From Salt Lake International Airport: Take I-80 East out of the airport to I-215 North, which will run into I-15 North. Follow I-15 North to exit 362 (Highway 89-91) at Brigham City. Follow Highway 89 into Logan, where it becomes Main Street. Stay on Main Street until you reach 1000 North and turn right. Turn left at 800 East and the football stadium will be on your right. The parking lot is located on the west side of the stadium just off 800 East.

CREDENTIAL POLICY

Credentials for media members are issued at the discretion of the Utah State Athletic Media Relations Office, based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Daily newspapers regularly covering Utah State University, the current opponent or another Mountain West school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
2. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
3. Officially recognized Utah State University student publications or student electronic media outlets.
4. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.
5. Non-originating radio and television.

OTHER CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

- ▶ Utah State University and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information.
- ▶ Credentials will be issued to websites that are affiliated with national or regional television and news media organizations, e.g. USA Today Online, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBSsportsline.com, etc., non-conference opponents and for the Mountain West.
- ▶ Websites that sponsor "message boards" or "chat rooms" where people are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are ineligible for credentials or access to media functions.
- ▶ Utah State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with a recognized news-gathering organization.
- ▶ All credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.

MERLIN OLSEN FIELD

To honor one of its greatest alumnus and the most decorated football player in school history, Utah State University named the playing field inside Maverik Stadium "Merlin Olsen Field," making the announcement at halftime of a men's basketball game in December, 2009. Olsen was in attendance for the ceremony. He passed away at City of Hope Hospital near Los Angeles on March 11, 2010, after a courageous battle with cancer.

An official dedication ceremony took place on Oct. 23, 2010, as part of Homecoming festivities in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of Utah State's 1960 Sun Bowl Team, led by Olsen. During the official dedication of Merlin Olsen Field at Maverik Stadium, a larger-than-life-size bronze statue of Olsen, which was sculpted by nationally renowned artist Blair Buswell, was unveiled in the southeast corner of the stadium.

Utah State and Maverik, Inc., owners of convenience stores throughout the Intermountain West, jointly announced a long-term naming rights partnership to its football stadium, which was previously known as Romney Stadium, beginning in the 2015 season.

This new partnership with Maverik was the catalyst for a major renovation to the stadium, which focused on greatly improving the overall fan experience. On the west side, the West Stadium Center, a new four-story premium seating and press box structure was completed prior to the 2016 season, which included a state-of-the-art media and game operations area, 24 luxury suites, 20 loge boxes, over 700 covered club seats and a premium club area that is also used to host a student-athlete training table. Major concourse work included significantly increased restrooms, upgraded concessions and an enlarged concourse for better pedestrian traffic flow.

Renovations also included new video boards on both the north and south ends of the stadium, along with a new public address system.

Maverik Stadium's original seating capacity through 1980 was 20,000. Thanks to a massive volunteer effort in 1980, approximately 10,000 seats were added to the southern bowl. Prior to the 1997 season, approximately 4,000 chair-back seats replaced wooded bleachers on the west side of the stadium. The modifications made to accommodate this seating upgrade placed stadium capacity at 25,513 prior to the 2015 season. Following the renovations made to the stadium with the addition of the West Stadium Center prior to the 2016 season, the seating capacity is now 25,100.

Ahead of the 1999 season, new scoreboards were added at each end of the stadium and additional bleacher seats were installed, as well. New aluminum bleachers replaced wooden bleachers on the lower sections of the east side of the stadium in 2001. In 2003, that project expanded to the upper sections.

Prior to the 2005 season, a new south end entrance, improved concession stands and restroom facilities, as well as a widened concourse on the east side of the stadium were completed.

Immediately after the 2006 season, the old north end zone complex was torn down and replaced with the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex. The Laub Complex is a three-story, 69,000 square-foot facility that serves to meet the academic and athletic needs of all 16 Utah State University intercollegiate sports. The state-of-the-art facility houses the Dale Mildenerberger Sports Medicine Complex and the Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine

Research Center, the Steve Mothersell Hall of Honor, J. Ken "Kenny" Seamons Equipment Room, locker rooms, coaches offices, meeting rooms, luxury suites, a student-athlete academic center and the Dr. Randall and Julianne Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor.

In December of 2009, USU Athletics renamed the playing field inside Maverik Stadium "Merlin Olsen Field."

In the summer of 2012, the synthetic SprinTurf was replaced with a state-of-the-art AstroTurf. The SprinTurf was installed in 2004, replacing the existing bent bluegrass field. In 2013, new south end zone seating was installed, and in 2014 chairback seats were added to the south end zone.

The stadium was designed specifically for football with all seats, until the 1980 expansion, located between the 15-yard lines and all directed toward the 50-yard line. The first row of seats on the east, west and south sides are elevated eight-feet above the playing field and within 30 feet of the sidelines. Like most stadiums, the field runs north and south.

The stadium was financed by a student body which believed in athletics to the extent of underwriting a special bonding assessment for both Maverik Stadium and the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum, which serves as home to USU's basketball and gymnastics teams.

The continuing growth of Utah State's campus prompted University planners to relocate the original Romney Stadium, which was built in 1927 on the grounds where the Health, Physical Education and Recreation building now stands. That facility was dedicated on Oct. 8, 1927, in recognition of legendary football and basketball coach, and athletics director, E. Lowell "Dick" Romney, who spent 29 seasons as the Aggies' athletics director and head football coach from 1919-48. Romney, who guided the Aggies to four conference championships (1921, 1935, 1936, 1946), compiled a 128-91-16 record (.579 winning percentage) in 29 seasons (1919-48).

That structure served as Utah State's home for 41 seasons (1927-67). USU played its final game in the old complex on Nov. 11, 1967, as the Aggies defeated Montana, 20-14.

Maverik Stadium was originally built in 1968 and officially dedicated on Sept. 27, 1969. The first game in Maverik Stadium history was Sept. 14, 1968, when Utah State defeated New Mexico State, 28-12. In 50 seasons, USU has posted a 141-105 (.573) record inside Maverik Stadium.

Utah State's largest crowd to witness a game in Maverik Stadium was 33,119 in a 45-17 loss to Brigham Young on Oct. 4, 1996.

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

Utah State's student section, known simply as The HURD, supports the Aggies' football team every home game. The HURD is Utah State's spirit club for all athletics. It is currently the largest club of Aggie students at Utah State. Coaches Shows, sports nights, tailgate parties, pre-, post- and away-game parties, pep-rallies, and even road trips are just some of the activities that The HURD provides at least once a week for all of its members.

Show 'Em Your "A"

In 1909, the first senior class gift was an "A" placed on the west side of Old Main tower. The "A," now on all four sides of the tower, can be seen throughout the valley, especially at night when lit in white. For special occasions and athletic wins, the "A" shines blue.

Utah State will be taking the field for the 121st season of football in 127 years in 2018. USU took the field for the first time on Nov. 25, 1892, and defeated in-state rival Utah, 12-0.

GAME DAY

Utah State teams were nicknamed "Big Blue" by the Logan Journal as early as 1916, an apparent reference to the Blue Ox of Paul Bunyon stories. USU adopted the official school colors of Blue and White in a special meeting of USU faculty on Nov. 7, 1901.

The Utah State Spirit Squad, consisting of the Aggiettes Dance Team, the Cheer Squad and the Big Blue mascot, encourages enthusiastic student participation at Aggie athletic events, promoting USU pride through new ideas, traditions and activities. The USU Pep Band leads the Spirit Squad and the crowd with the "Hail The Utah Aggies," "The Scotsman" and other musical selections.

When USU athletics began, Utah State was known as the Utah Agricultural College. The first USU athletics teams were nicknamed the "Farmers." Aggies, a contraction of Agriculturalists, first appeared in the late 1890's.

HAIL THE UTAH AGGIES

Hail the Utah Aggies, we'll play the game with all our might.
 See the colors flying, the Aggie blue and fighting white.
 How they stir us onward; we'll win the victory all right.
 Hail the Utah Aggies; we're out to win, so fight, fight, fight!
 Utah State, Hey!
 Aggies all the way!
 Go Aggies! Go Aggies!
 Hey! Hey! Hey!

UTAH STATE STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING MISSION STATEMENT:

"The mission of the Utah State Strength and Conditioning Program is to utilize the latest methods in the field of strength training, energy system training and nutrition in order to enhance the athletic development of each student-athlete. The strength and conditioning department will strive to support the academic and athletic success in every way possible, while following the rules and guidelines set forth by the NCAA. "

– Dave Scholz, Strength & Conditioning Head Coach

SR. S GAJE FERGUSON

"Our weight room, along with our strength and conditioning services, are great. The staff does a great job of keeping us motivated and mixing things up with different workouts. They inspire us to compete against ourselves to improve and get bigger, faster and stronger."

"We lift together as position groups, working together for one common goal, to get better each and every day. The strength and conditioning staff cover all aspects of improvement, from lifting to conditioning to eating right, doing everything they can to help us get better."

Completed in June of 2013, Utah State's $6.5 million, 26,329 square-foot ICON Sports Performance Center features areas for weight training, cardiovascular workouts and speed and agility training, as well as offices for staff. Built on existing university property at the northwest corner of Maverik Stadium, the state-of-the-art multi-level facility alleviated overcrowding in the previous 5,800 square-foot strength and conditioning center and accommodates almost 400 student-athletes from 16 sports programs.

The ICON Sports Performance Center is the largest such facility in the Mountain West and rivals any strength and conditioning complex in the country. Of the schools Utah State competes against in the MW, Fresno State currently has the second-largest strength and conditioning center(s) at 12,500 square feet, followed by Air Force (12,000 sq. ft.), Boise State (12,000 sq. ft.), Wyoming (11,100 sq. ft.), Hawai'i (10,000 sq. ft.), New Mexico (10,000 sq. ft.), Colorado State (10,000 sq. ft.), San José State (10,000 sq. ft.), UNLV (8,200 sq. ft.) and Nevada (8,000 sq. ft.).

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

The three-story, 69,000 square-foot, Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex is a state-of-the-art multi-purpose facility that meets all of the athletic and academic needs of Utah State's 16 sports and 400-plus student-athletes. Within the facility, which was completed in the summer of 2008, is the 11,000 square-foot Dale Mildenerger Sports Medicine Complex and Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center, the Steve Mothersell Athletics Hall of Honor and the 7,000 square-foot J. Ken "Kenny" Seamons Equipment Room. Also located on the first floor are locker rooms for football. The second floor houses coaches' offices and meeting rooms for football, including a 120-seat auditorium, and the student-athlete academics center is located on the third floor, which includes numerous study hall and tutor areas, a computer lab and the Dr. Randall and Julianne Stockham Student-Athlete Academics Hall of Honor.

LAUB ATHLETICS-ACADEMICS COMPLEX

The Dale Mildeberger Sports Medicine Complex and the Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center is one of the finest in the nation with over 11,000 square-feet to provide maximum service to Utah State's 16 intercollegiate sports and 400-plus student-athletes. Among the many amenities are 24 treatment tables, a 2,000 square-foot physical therapy and rehabilitation center, and three hydrotherapy pools for non-weight or partial weight-bearing rehabilitation to enhance recovery. The Sports Medicine Complex also houses office space for five full-time staff members and numerous graduate assistants, a team physician examination room and physical therapy office.

With the addition of the new facilities and the continued cooperation between Utah State Athletics, Intermountain HealthCare and HPER/ Exercise Science, Utah State University is becoming one of the foremost sports medicine research institutions in the intermountain west.

SR. S JONTRELL ROCQUEMORE

"Our athletic training staff is fantastic. Throughout the recovery from my injury, they worked with me a lot with physical therapy and treatments. They stay on top of student-athletes and are as dedicated to taking care of us as the coaches are. They'll call us and remind us about our appointments and treatments. They're very on top of things."

"They helped me a lot during my recovery from my injury and got me back on my feet running and working out and were there for me with anything and everything I needed."

"The athletic training facilities are among the best around. They have everything that athletes need to recover and get back to playing faster. The water pool is fantastic. It's fun and you get a rehab workout in at the same time. They're always updating things and staying up with the different treatments. They're top notch."

LOCKER ROOM

Utah State University's football team revealed its full line of Nike uniforms, along with the school's new logos on Saturday, April 28, 2012, as part of the athletic department's new brand and identity program. In all, Utah State will have nine different jersey and pant combinations manufactured by Nike, to go along with two different helmet options for a total of 18 different uniform combinations. Along with its traditional Blue and White uniforms, a new 'Pewter' uniform was also unveiled. Two helmet options were displayed, as well, including a new diamond pattern blue and black helmet with a black face mask, along with its traditional white helmet with a blue face mask. Utah State's helmets, which feature the new 'U-State' logo, are manufactured by Schutt and Riddell.

Home uniform options feature a traditional combination of blue jersey with blue or white pants, as well as an option of blue jersey and pewter pants. Road uniform combinations can be built around the newly-designed pewter jersey or the traditional white jersey. The road pewter jerseys can be combined with pewter, blue or white pants, while white jerseys can be worn with white, blue or pewter pants.

Both helmet options will also be utilized with the various uniform combinations for both home and away games.

The new "UTAH STATE" wordmark is featured in Pewter letters on the home jersey, while blue letters are displayed on the white and pewter jerseys. All jerseys feature the distinctive Nike "Swoosh" on the left front shoulder. All pants feature the Nike "Swoosh" at the top of the right leg, while Utah State's new secondary bull mark is displayed at the top of the left leg.

Student-Athlete Services is designed to assist student-athletes with academic, vocational and social development. Dr. Brian Evans and his staff provide services including study sessions, tutoring, registration, academic advising and career counseling.

The Dr. Randall and Julianne Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor opened in September of 2010. Inside the Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor are four permanent displays to feature CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Scholar-Athlete Award winners, current academic all-Mountain West honorees and current Aggie Athletics Endowed Scholarships donors and recipients.

Three-Time Academic All-Mountain West
(2015, 2016, 2017)

"The Student-Athlete Services offices provides student-athletes with all the help that we need to have success in the classroom. They provide us with tutors and help for every class. They do a great job of keeping up with everything and making sure that we take care of our business in the classroom. The staff is tremendous and they give us a ton of support and make sure that we succeed academically. It's something that we as Utah State student-athletes and Utah State football players are very privileged to have."

During the 2017-18 academic year, Utah State ranked second in the Mountain West in number of academic all-league honorees as the Aggies had 274 student-athletes recognized for academic excellence as 159 student-athletes received academic all-Mountain West honors, while 115 were named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes. Utah State's student-athletes traditionally rank among the best in the Mountain West with an 91 percent graduation success rate, which is the highest in the MW, and a cumulative 3.25 grade-point average. Additionally, Utah State's athletics department recognized 218 student-athletes for achieving a 3.2 grade point average at the 24th annual Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Scholar-Athlete Luncheon. To be eligible for the honor, student-athletes must have a cumulative 3.2 grade point average or have posted a 3.2 GPA during the last two semesters. In all, approximately 58 percent of USU's student-athletes earned a 3.2 GPA to qualify for the awards.

The third floor of the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex houses the academic center for student-athletes. This center consists of a 24-unit computer center, a spacious study center, and several individual one-on-one tutor rooms. Additionally, there are three smaller classrooms that can be used for group study sessions, group tutoring, tutor meetings, and general meeting and study needs. Two of the classrooms can be opened to create one larger classroom. All classrooms have television monitors installed and have data connectivity for PowerPoint, internet and other useful presentations. The study center is completely wireless for student-athletes to connect to the internet anywhere in the facility, but also has sub-floor electrical and data connections throughout. The student-athlete services staff offices are also housed within the academic center.

Homecoming Securing Our FUTURE

The Campaign for Utah State University

Utah State University honored one of its greatest alumnus and the most decorated football player in school history with the unveiling of a larger-than-life-size bronze statue of Merlin Olsen on Oct. 23, 2010, with a special ceremony on the South Plaza of Maverik Stadium prior to USU's Homecoming football game against Hawai'i. A large crowd attended the ceremony, featuring Olsen's family, friends, former teammates and former USU players among the dignitaries in attendance. Guest speakers for the ceremony included former USU President Dr. Stan Albrecht, former USU Vice President and Director of Athletics Scott Barnes, Steven Perry from the National Football Foundation, the statue's sculptor Blair Buswell, Douglas Mayberry, who was one of Olsen's USU teammates, along with Olsen's widow, Susan. Perry noted that the Super Bowl Pro Football Hall of Fame Luncheon, held the Friday prior to the Super Bowl, will be named after Olsen, one of only two Hall of Fame events named after former players. Buswell singled out his time spent with Olsen while working on the statue, noting that Olsen wanted the sculpture to show his pride in Utah State and Logan. Mayberry told a story about Olsen's hospitality before nearly knocking off your chin strap, noting the only time he saw Olsen relax was when he scored a rushing touchdown. Susan Olsen thanked Olsen's former teammates, friends and the University for their support of the family. She also read a eulogy written by Merlin Olsen prior to his death that wasn't found until after his passing, which talked about Merlin's appreciation of the love and concern from his supporters, former teammates and family throughout his time growing up in Logan, at Utah State, in the NFL and his broadcasting and acting career.

Merlin Olsen's statue was created by nationally renowned Utah artist Blair Buswell and is 25 percent larger than Olsen's 6-foot-4 frame. When mounted on its base the statue is over 11 feet high. The statue depicts Olsen during his college playing days at Utah State, in full uniform and pads, with his helmet under his arm. The base of the statue is adorned with two plaques. One lists many of Olsen's accomplishments as a college and pro football player, as an actor and member of the media, and as a philanthropist and humanitarian. The other plaque lists Olsen's personal mission statement, an inspiring list of Olsen's personal priorities. Additionally, a list of all donors to the Merlin Olsen Field Campaign whose gifts were received prior to August 1, 2010, are mounted adjacent to the statue base. The statue, when set on its base, has at least one unique element. According to Google maps, Olsen's gaze directly faces toward the Olsen family home in Logan where he grew up, roughly two miles in a direct line from where the statue rests. In preparation for the statue to be installed a small courtyard was created with seating areas for contemplation. The block cement was used to convey Olsen's personal strength, and the vertical columns represent his personal mission to celebrate others.

NFL Hall of Famer Merlin Olsen, the greatest athlete in Utah State University history, passed away at City of Hope Hospital near Los Angeles on March 11, 2010, after a courageous battle with cancer. Olsen was a three-year letterman on the offensive and defensive lines for Utah State's football team from 1959-61, earning All-American honors during both his junior and senior seasons. During his senior season in 1961, he won the Outland Trophy as the nation's outstanding interior defensive lineman. Olsen also was a three-time academic All-American at Utah State and graduated Summa Cum Laude and Phi Kappa Phi in 1962 with a degree in finance.

Utah State University's Athletics Department unveiled the Steve Mothersell Aggie Athletics Hall of Honor on Sept. 26, 2009. In all, approximately 150 Aggie alumni and friends donated to the 1,800 square-foot Hall of Honor, including 115 former student-athletes. The Hall of Honor is housed on the first floor of the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex, which is located in the north end zone of Maverik Stadium. Inside Utah State's Aggie Athletics Hall of Honor, fans will find various displays and trophy cases celebrating over 100 years of Aggie sports history. Among the items displayed within the venue are trophies from the 1978 national championship volleyball team, and the 1980 and 1981 national championship softball teams. Other items on display include the 2014 Gildan New Mexico Bowl championship trophy, the 2013 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl championship trophy, the 2012 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl championship trophy, the 2012 Western Athletic Conference championship trophy, the 1993 Las Vegas Bowl II championship trophy, the 1961 Outland trophy presented to Merlin Olsen as the nation's top defensive lineman and a discus donated by L. Jay Silvester from the 1968 Summer Olympics held in Mexico City. As fans tour the Hall of Honor, they will see exhibits displaying Utah State's 16 current sports, a display honoring its past sports and a display highlighting some "Great Moments" in Aggie Athletics. Fans will also see a display paying tribute to those select few former Aggie Greats who are now members of USU's Hall of Fame, the most prestigious honor afforded an Aggie athlete. Another key feature within the venue are two interactive video displays that will give fans an opportunity to watch video highlights of "Great Moments" in Aggie Athletics, as well as highlights of members of USU's Hall of Fame.

Utah State's annual Pro Timing Day regularly draws a number of NFL scouts, monitoring and evaluating the Aggies' pro prospects.

In the last 15 years, Utah State has had 15 players selected in the NFL Draft, while over four dozen more have signed free agent contracts. In 2017, RB Devante Mays was selected in the seventh round (238) by the Green Bay Packers. In 2016, LB Nick Vigil was selected in the third round (87) by the Cincinnati Bengals and LB Kyler Fackrell was chosen in the third round (88) by the Green Bay Packers. In 2014, S Maurice Alexander was selected in the fourth round (110) by the St. Louis Rams and CB Nevin Lawson was chosen in the fourth round (133) by the Detroit Lions. In 2013, CB Will Davis was selected in the third round (93) by the Miami Dolphins, while RB Kerwynn Williams was taken in the seventh round (230) by the Indianapolis Colts. In 2012, Utah State had three players selected in the NFL Draft as LB Bobby Wagner was chosen in the second round (47) by the Seattle Seahawks, RB Robert Turbin was selected in the fourth round (106) by the Seattle Seahawks and RB Michael Smith was taken in the seventh round (212) by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In 2011, CB Curtis Marsh was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles in the third round (90). Two Aggies were selected in the 2008 NFL Draft, in Shawn Murphy and Kevin Robinson. Murphy, an offensive guard, was picked by Miami in the fourth round (110), while Robinson, a wide receiver and kick returner, was selected by Kansas City in the sixth round (182). TE Chris Cooley was the 81st overall pick by Washington in 2004. In 2003, WR Kevin Curtis was the 74th overall pick, going to St. Louis in the third round.

MEDIA COVERAGE

Plain and simple, people who have been to Utah State University love it. No other place provides the complete package quite like USU: top-notch academics, nationally recognized research, Division I athletics, and more than 200 student clubs and organizations, all on the oldest residential campus in the state. And the mountains. USU, located in Logan, Utah, is just 15 minutes from two mountain ranges and within a half day's drive of six national parks, including Yellowstone. It has big-school opportunities with a small-school feel, and it's all for a great value. In fact, USU is the No. 2 public university in the West (and top three in the nation) for lowest tuition on Forbes' list of America's Top Colleges (2013).

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

The Cache Valley, a fertile green valley with lakes and streams, is surrounded by the Wellsville Mountains on the west and the Bear River Range on the east. Just east of Logan is the Wasatch-Cache National Forest, accessed by Logan Canyon Scenic Byway (Hwy. 89). Logan Canyon is filled with geological wonders, including vertical rock formations, caves and wind tunnels. Thirty minutes from Logan, Beaver Mountain Ski Resort is a popular winter getaway. Fifteen minutes beyond Beaver Mountain, the summit of Logan Canyon is a breathtaking view of turquoise-colored Bear Lake.

FALL PREVIEW

After playing in its sixth bowl game in the past seven seasons last fall, Utah State enters the 2018 campaign with plenty of momentum and belief that it can compete for a Mountain West title this season.

That belief, in large part, stems from a roster that returns 18 starters (nine on offense and nine on defense) and 49 letterwinners (20 on offense, 27 on defense, and two specialists) from last season's team that set single-season school records by scoring 50-plus points in three different games and recording 500-plus yards of total offense in four separate outings.

Under the direction of sixth-year head coach Matt Wells, the 2013 Mountain West Coach of the Year, all the pieces are in place for this edition of Aggie football to finally achieve its goal of winning a conference championship in the Mountain West.

Highlighting Utah State's returners in 2018 is one of the best placekickers in the nation in junior Dominik Eberle. Eberle was named a third-team All-American by Phil Steele's Magazine and an honorable mention All-American by SB Nation, along with garnering first-team all-Mountain West honors last fall after being a finalist for the Lou Groza Award, which is given annually to the top placekicker in college football.

Furthermore, Utah State returns three offensive players who garnered honorable mention all-Mountain West honors last season in senior offensive linemen Roman Andrus and Quin Ficklin, along with junior tight end Dax Raymond.

As for its specialists, Utah State returns one other letterwinner in senior P Aaron Dalton.

Following perhaps the best spring practice period in Wells' six years at the helm, USU football is poised and determined to compete for a Mountain West Championship in 2018 and qualify for its 13th bowl game in school history.

QUARTERBACKS

For the seventh year in a row, Utah State returns its starting quarterback from the previous season, this time in sophomore Jordan Love, who played in 12 games in 2017, starting each of the last six contests, including the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

As a redshirt freshman, Love finished the year completing 129-of-235 (.549) passes for 1,631 yards with eight touchdowns and six interceptions, and set the single-season school record for passing yards by a freshman. He added 165 rushing yards on 46 carries (3.6 ypc) and two touchdowns, which tied for the third-most on the team. In his first career start at UNLV, he was named the Mountain West Offensive Player of the Week, as he was 19-of-27 (.704) passing for a season-best 316 yards and a season-best two touchdowns from 70 and 75 yards. In fact, those 316 passing yards are the third-most by an Aggie freshman in school history.

Utah State returns one other quarterback with experience in the program in redshirt freshman Henry Colombi, while freshman Andrew Peasley joined the team this past winter and went through spring practice. Another newcomer here is Will Dana, who joined the program this summer.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Utah State returns a stable of wide receivers who combined to catch 99 passes for 1,292 yards with 10 touchdowns a year ago in seniors Ron'quavion Tarver and Aaren Vaughns, junior Chad Artist, and sophomores Jordan Nathan and Savon Scarver.

In all, these five wide receivers have combined to play in 76 games with 32 starts during their careers, which includes 54 games and 26 starts in 2017.

Tarver highlights this group of returners as he earned third-team all-Mountain West honors from Phil Steele's Magazine last season as he led the team in every receiving category, catching 48 passes for 569 yards (11.9 ypr) and seven touchdowns.

In all, Tarver has played in 25 games with 19 starts during his USU career and has caught 94 passes for 1,171 yards (12.5 ypr) and 10 touchdowns. In fact, Tarver is just 39 receptions and six touchdown catches shy of entering the top-10 all-time in school history in each category.

Nathan started 12 of the 13 games he played in last season and caught 25 passes for 324 yards (13.0 ypr) and two touchdowns. Vaughns caught 14 passes for 155 yards (11.1 ypr), as he played in 12 games with one start. Scarver finished the season with 11 receptions for 240 yards (21.8 ypr) and one touchdown in 13 games played, and Artist has caught two passes in 13 games during his first two years.

One newcomer here with plenty of experience in the program is senior DJ Nelson, who moved over from the quarterback position last spring. Nelson has played in 38 games in his Aggie career and began seeing action at wide receiver late last year as he caught two passes for 29 yards.

Other Aggies who will have an opportunity for playing time at wide receiver in 2018 include junior Dylan Spradling, who did not play last season, sophomore Taylor Compton, who appeared in two games last season, and freshman Preston Curtis, who redshirted a year ago.

In addition to the nine returning players here, Utah State has added several newcomers who could make immediate contributions this fall in senior transfer Jalen Greene and junior transfer Devin Heckstall, along with incoming freshmen Sam Lockett, Tim Patrick Jr., Jackson Prince and Devin Thompkins.

TIGHT ENDS

Utah State returns its top two tight ends from last season in junior Dax Raymond and sophomore Carson Terrell, as the duo combined to catch 51 passes for 563 yards and one touchdown.

As a redshirt sophomore, Raymond earned honorable mention all-Mountain West honors as he started 12 games and ranked second among all tight ends in the league in both receptions and receiving yards, as he caught 41 passes for 456 yards, which also ranked second on the team in both categories.

Terrell finished his freshman season catching 10 passes for 107 yards as he played in 12 games.

Utah State returns two more players with experience in the program in senior Emerson Woods and sophomore Travis Boman. Woods played in two games for the Aggies last season, while Boman missed the year due to injury.

One newcomer joined this group this summer in freshman Bryce Mortenson, who is returning from an LDS Church Mission.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Utah State returns all five of its starters along the offensive line from last season, including two players who earned honorable mention all-Mountain West honors in seniors Roman Andrus and Quin Ficklin, to go along with fellow seniors Rob Castaneda and Sean Taylor, and junior Moroni Iniguez. In fact, these five combined to start in 63 games last season, as each played their first career games for USU last season.

Utah State returns two more letterwinners from last season in sophomores Demytrick Ali'ifua and Ty Shaw. Ali'ifua played in all 13 games with two starts and Shaw played in six games.

Other returning offensive linemen with in-game experience include senior KJ Uluave, who has played in 15 career games with four starts, and senior Jake Templeton, who has appeared in four games, including one along the offensive line.

In all, the Aggies' offensive line returns nine players who have played in a combined 98 games with 69 starts.

Utah State also returns four more players with experience in the program in sophomore Connor Meyers, and redshirt freshmen Chandler Dolphin, Alfred Edwards and Wyatt O'Banion.

Seven newcomers join this group as sophomore transfer Kyler Hack and freshmen Heneli Avendano and Wade Meacham all enrolled in school last winter, while freshmen Wyatt Bowles, Andy Koch, Karter Shaw and Jacob South joined the team this summer.

RUNNING BACKS

For the first time in four seasons, Utah State must replace its leading rusher. Fortunately for the Aggies, they have five players returning with experience in the program, to go along with an incoming junior college transfer, to help fill that void.

Statistically, senior Eltoro Allen is the leading returner for Utah State as he rushed for 284 yards on 68 carries (4.2 ypc) and one touchdown last season, while junior Gerold Bright carried the ball 29 times for 249 yards (8.6 ypc) and two touchdowns in a limited role after playing the first 10 games of the season at wide receiver. Senior Justen Hervey rushed for 110 yards on 25 carries (4.4 ypc) and one touchdown last season, while sophomore Tre Miller gained 116 yards on 30 carries (3.9 ypc).

Two other players who will figure into the mix here include sophomore Morian Walker Jr., who missed the 2017 season due to injury, and junior college transfer Darwin Thompson, who joined the team last winter and participated in spring practice. Thompson comes to USU after earning National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) second-team All-America honors at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M.

One more player returns here in redshirt freshman Sione Fehoko.

/// OFFENSIVE NOTABLES ///

- Utah State returns four offensive players from the 2017 season that earned various all-Mountain West honors. Senior OC Quin Ficklin, senior WR Ron'quavion Tarver and junior TE Dax Raymond all earned third-team all-Mountain West accolades from Phil Steele's Magazine, while senior OL Roman Andrus joined Ficklin and Raymond on the Mountain West's honorable mention team.

- Utah State returns nine starters and 19 lettermen on offense from last year's team, its most since the 2016 team also returned nine starters.

- Utah State has two offensive players making position changes this fall as senior DJ Nelson will move from quarterback to wide receiver and junior Gerold Bright will move from wide receiver to running back.

- Utah State returns 53.5 percent (2,765 of 5,166) of its total offense from last season, including 72.9 percent (2,142 of 2,938) of its receiving yards, 56.5 percent (1,660 of 2,938) of its passing yards and 49.6 percent (1,105 of 2,228) of its rushing yards. USU also returns 52.1 percent (25 of 48) of its total touchdowns from last season, including 76.5 percent (13 of 17) of its receiving touchdowns, 52.9 percent (9 of 17) of its passing touchdowns and 33.3 percent (8 of 24) of its rushing touchdowns.

- Utah State produced 500 yards of total offense four times during the 2017 season, which tied the 2013 team for the most in a single-season in school history. In fact, prior to the 2013 and 2017 seasons, USU had never produced 500 yards of total offense in more than two games. Under head coach Matt Wells, USU has had a school-record 11 games with at least 500 yards of offense.

- Utah State's 2,228 rushing yards in 2017 marked the ninth-straight season it had rushed for at least 2,000 yards. Prior to its current streak, USU went 33 years without rushing for 2,000 yards.

- Utah State is one of just 18 Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) programs to return all five of its starters on the offensive line from the 2017 season in seniors Andrus, Rob Castaneda, Ficklin and Sean Taylor, and junior Moroni Iniguez. That group combined to start in 63 of a possible 65 games last season. The last time USU returned all five of its offensive linemen from the previous season was 2013, as that team finished the season with a 10-4 record, including a 6-2 mark in Mountain West play, culminating with a win in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

- Tarver finished last season leading the team in every receiving category as he caught 48 passes for 569 yards (11.9 ypr) and seven touchdowns, while Raymond finished second on the team and second in the Mountain West among tight ends with 41 receptions for 456 yards (11.1 ypr) and one touchdown.

- Sophomore QB Jordan Love was named the Mountain West Offensive Player of the Week once last season following his performance in USU's 52-28 Mountain West road win at UNLV. Making his first career start, Love completed 19-of-27 (.704) passes for 316 yards and two touchdowns.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Utah State is loaded along the defensive line heading into the 2018 campaign as it returns all three of its starters and nine letterwinners here from a year ago, including senior DE Adewale Adeoye, junior DE Devon Anderson and junior NG Christopher 'Unga. The trio combined to play in 34 games with 19 starts last season as Adeoye had 43 tackles, including 4.5 tackles for loss, Anderson had 32 tackles, including 3.5 tackles for loss, and 'Unga had 32 tackles, which included 4.5 tackles for loss.

Schuster is the most experienced player in this group as he has played in 33 career games with five starts, while Wildman has appeared in 24 games with four starts and Uasike has played in 22 games with three starts.

Wildman led all of USU's defensive linemen last season with 45 tackles, while 'Unga has a group-best 52 career stops, which includes 5.0 tackles for loss, followed by Wildman and Schuster with 47 career tackles each.

Furthermore, Utah State welcomes back four more defensive linemen who were part of the program last season in redshirt junior DE Fua Leilua, sophomore NG Caden Andersen, sophomore DE Jake Pitcher and sophomore DE Keith Tambe.

One newcomer who could see playing time here this fall is freshman Hale Motu'apuaka.

LINEBACKERS

Traditionally, Utah State's linebacker corps has been among the most talented positions on the field and this year's group should continue that legacy as the Aggies return all three of their starters to go along with nine letterwinners.

In fact, USU returns 83.5 percent (915/1,096) of its tackles, 85.6 percent (56.5/66.0) of its tackles for loss and 79.2 percent (19 of 24) of its sacks from a season ago.

Highlighting this year's group is senior Suli Tamaivena, who earned third-team all-Mountain West honors from Phil Steele's Magazine last year after leading the team and ranking tied for 35th in the nation with 111 tackles (8.5 pg) as he started all 13 games in his first year in the program. Tamaivena also led the team with 6.5 tackles for loss last season, while tying for first overall with two forced fumbles and ranking tied for second with his 3.0 sacks.

Two other starters returning here include senior Chase Christiansen and junior Justus Te'i.

SULI TAMAIVENA

Christiansen started 12 games last season and has played in 25 games in his career with 14 starts. Last season, Christiansen finished fourth on the team with 71 tackles, and ranked tied for third overall with his 4.0 tackles for loss, while leading the team with three forced fumbles. Te'i played in 12 games last season with five starts and finished the year with 37 stops, to go along with two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. During his first two years in the program, Te'i has played in 24 games with nine starts, and has recorded 52 tackles.

For their careers, Christiansen has recorded 110 tackles, which includes 8.0 tackles for loss, while Te'i has 52 career stops.

Joining the three returning starters mentioned above are six more letterwinners in seniors Derek Larsen and Ofa Latu, junior Mason Tobeck, and sophomores Maika Magalei, Kevin Meitzenheimer and David Woodward.

Larsen has the most returning game experience for Utah State at the linebacker position as he has played in 32 contests with 11 starts, and has posted 60 tackles in his career. Tobeck has appeared in 21 career games and made three starts, and has 29 career tackles. Magalei played in all 13 games last season with three starts, while Latu, Meitzenheimer and Woodward each played in 10 games last season, with Woodward starting one game.

Woodward posted 29 tackles last season, which included 1.0 sacks and 3.0 tackles for loss, while adding an interception and a fumble return for a touchdown. Tobeck finished the 2017 season with 28 stops, which included 1.0 sacks and a forced fumble, while Latu had 23 tackles, which included 1.0 sacks and 2.5 tackles for loss, to go along with one interception. Meitzenheimer recorded 19 tackles last season and Magalei had 16 stops, which included 2.5 sacks, while adding a fumble return for a touchdown.

Furthermore, Utah State welcomes back two more linebackers who redshirted last season in junior Tipa Galeai and freshman Daniel Langi, while junior Braden Harris is also back after appearing in three games last season.

In all, this group has combined to play in 161 games with 54 starts during their careers.

Newcomers who will get opportunities during fall camp for immediate playing time include three incoming freshmen in Simian Ma'tai, Mitch Medina and Elijah Shelton.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Utah State returns a plethora of talent and depth in the back end of its defense for the 2018 season.

In all, Utah State welcomes back nine returning letterwinners in the secondary from last season who have combined to play in 166 games with 45 starts during their careers.

Among those nine returning letterwinners here are three starters in senior S Gaje Ferguson, junior CB Cameron Haney and sophomore S Ja'Marcus Ingram. Ferguson, who finished the 2017 season third on the team with 90 tackles, is the most experienced player in the secondary returning for USU as he has started 16 games in his two years in the program and played in 21. During his career, Ferguson has 124 career tackles, which ranks first overall on the team. Haney has played in 24 career games and made nine starts, and Ingram started 10 of the 13 games he played in last season as a redshirt freshman. Ingram had 42 tackles and five pass breakups last season, while Haney recorded 31 tackles and had six pass breakups. For his career, Haney has 47 tackles and nine pass breakups.

In addition to the three returning starters mentioned above, six more letterwinners return here in senior CB Deante Fortenberry, senior S Jontrell Rocquemore, senior S Aaron Wade, junior S Chance Parker, sophomore S Baron Gajkowski and sophomore S Braxton Gunther.

Rocquemore and Wade have the most game experience for Utah State in the secondary as both players have played in 30 games, with Rocquemore starting six contests and Wade two. Furthermore, Rocquemore has 79 career tackles, while adding two interceptions, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and two career touchdowns.

Gajkowski posted 50 tackles last year as a redshirt freshman, playing in all 13 games with two starts. And, Fortenberry had 20 tackles last season, which included 3.0 sacks and 4.0 tackles for loss, as he played in 12 games

The Aggies also return five redshirts here in sophomore S Jordan Hayes, freshman CB Andre Grayson, freshman CB Jarrod Green, freshman CB Zahodri Jackson, and freshman S Chase Nelson. Additionally, USU returns sophomore S Zach Swenson, who missed the 2017 season due to injury.

Furthermore, Utah State added four players to the secondary this offseason in junior transfer DJ Williams, sophomore transfer Shaquez Bond, and incoming freshmen Michael Anyanwu and Christian Nash.

Williams highlights this group of newcomers after earning National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) first-team All-America honors last season at Independence (Kan.) Community College.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Utah State returns four of the top specialist in the Mountain West from a year ago in senior P

DOMINIK EBERLE

Eberle had one of the best seasons in school history for a placekicker as he earned third-team All-America honors from Phil Steele's Magazine and honorable mention All-America honors from SB Nation, and was named a finalist for the Lou Groza Award, which is given annually to the top placekicker in college football. He also garnered first-team all-Mountain West honors after finishing the 2017 season scoring a team-best 101 points as he was a perfect 47-of-47 on extra points and 18-of-24 (.750) on field goals. He also set a single-game school record for points scored by a kicker with 19 at San José State as he was 4-for-4 (23, 52, 20, 27) on field goals and 7-for-7 on extra points. Those 19 points scored are the second-most by a kicker in Mountain West history and the most by a non-senior.

Dalton is the most experienced player in this group, as he has punted in all 38 games he has appeared in during the past three seasons and has career numbers of 210 punts for an average of 40.5 yards, including 72 punts downed inside the 20-yard line, with a career long of 69 yards.

Dalton finished his junior season averaging 42.0 yards per punt as he punted 76 times for 3,193 yards. Overall, he had 10 punts of at least 50 yards with 26 of his punts being downed inside the 20-yard line, while 34 of his punts were fair caught and only nine of his punts resulted in a touchback.

Nathan earned third-team all-Mountain West honors from Phil Steele's Magazine as a punt returner in 2017 as he returned 23 punts for 196 yards (8.5 ypr). Overall, he ranked third in the Mountain West and 24th in the nation with his average of 8.5 yards per return.

Scarver returned 26 kickoffs for 625 yards (24.0 ypr) and one touchdown last season, as those 625 kickoff return yards are the most by an Aggie since 2011. Furthermore, he scored his first career kickoff return for a touchdown against New Mexico State in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl on a 96-yard return, which is tied for the sixth-longest kickoff return in school history and the first-ever in a bowl game

Additionally, USU welcomes back two other specialists who were members of the team last season in sophomore PK Connor Coles and sophomore LS Brandon Pada.

Utah State added three newcomers here in junior LS Chance Nelson, sophomore PK Taylor Hintze, who participated in spring drills, and freshman LS Noah Howell.

DEFENSIVE NOTABLES

- Utah State returns one defender that has garnered all-Mountain West honors in senior LB Suli Tamaivena, who earned third-team accolades from Phil Steele's Magazine in 2017.

- Utah State returns nine starters and 27 lettermen on defense from last year's team, its most since the 2010 team also returned nine defensive starters.

- Utah State allowed 182.5 passing yards per game in 2017 to rank fourth in the Mountain West and 19th in the nation. USU also ranked second in the conference and 24th in the nation in passing efficiency defense (116.6), and fifth in the MW and 67th in the nation in scoring defense (26.9 ppg).

- Utah State returns 83.5 percent (915/1,096) of its tackles, 85.6 percent (56.5/66.0) of its tackles for loss and 79.2 percent (19 of 24) of its sacks from a season ago. Overall, USU returns eight of its top nine tacklers from last season, including Tamaivena, who led the team with 111 stops.

- Utah State forced 29 turnovers (16 fumbles, 13 interceptions) in 2017, which ranked second in the Mountain West and tied for sixth in the nation. USU also tied for second in the nation with its 16 fumble recoveries, and was fourth in the Mountain West and 45th in the nation with its 13 interceptions on the season. In 2016, USU forced just 10 turnovers the entire season.

- Utah State's defense scored five touchdowns in 2017 to rank fourth in the nation and has scored 16 defensive touchdowns in its last 59 games.

2018 PRESEASON HONORS: Athlon Sports Third-Team All-Mountain West.

HONORS: Honorable Mention All-Mountain West (2017); Academic All-Mountain West (2017).

UTAH STATE: A big, strong and smart offensive lineman who is a very good leader... Very athletic for his size.

2017 (JR): Earned honorable mention all-Mountain West honors after starting all 13 games at left tackle... Had an overall performance grade of 91 percent, which ranked second on the team... Played in 880 snaps, which also ranked second on the team among offensive linemen... Graded out at 94 percent in effort, 92 percent in assignment and 84 percent in technique... Recorded 33 knockdowns during the year, including a season-high seven against Wyoming (10/14)... Added one tackle... Earned academic all-Mountain West honors.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Played in 10 games on the defensive line for Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, during the 2016 season and recorded 18 tackles, which included 1.5 sacks... Helped the Badgers to an 8-2 record.

PREVIOUS SCHOOL: Spent two seasons at BYU as he redshirted in 2012 and appeared in one game on the defensive line against Wagner in 2015, but did not record any stats.

HIGH SCHOOL: Prepped at Oakridge High School in El Dorado Hills, Calif., where he played just one year of football as a senior in 2011 and recorded 54 tackles (32-solo, 22-assist), which included 4.5 sacks and 5.0 tackles for loss, to go along with two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and four passes defended... Had a season-high 10 stops, which included 2.0 tackles for loss, against Sheldon HS... Added seven tackles, including a season-best 3.0 tackles for loss, against Cordova HS... Also had four tackles, including a forced fumble and fumble recovery against Vista del Lago HS... Played basketball as both a junior and senior in high school... Also competed in track & field and was the MVP of his track team his senior season as he competed in the discus and shot put.

PERSONAL: Son of Alan and Kahna Andrus... Has three brothers and three sisters... His dad played basketball at both Utah Valley and Hawai'i... Served a two-year LDS Church Mission in Monterrey, Mexico... Majoring in Spanish with a minor in chemistry... MOUNTAIN WEST

Entering his sixth season as Utah State's head coach, Matt Wells has guided Aggie football through one of its best stretches in school history, and with 18 starters and 50 letterwinners returning from last season's bowl team, expectations for the 2018 campaign are sky high.

Wells, who is the fourth-longest tenured coach in 121 seasons of Aggie football, holds a 34-32 record in his first five seasons at USU, including a 23-17 Mountain West record. Those 34 wins are the fourth-most in school history, while his 51.5 winning percentage ranks seventh all-time.

Utah State has also recorded three wins against top-25 opponents during Wells' five years as head coach, one more than the program won in its previous 116 seasons.

Furthermore, Wells has been a player (1993) or coach (2012, 2013, 2014) in all four of Utah State's bowl wins, and he is the first head coach in program history to lead the Aggies to four bowl games and the only head coach with multiple bowl wins. In fact, the 2017 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl was his seventh bowl game as an Aggie, as he played in one and has coached in six, which included a school-record five-straight bowl appearances from 2011-15.

In 2017, Wells led Utah State to six wins and its sixth bowl game in the past seven seasons as the Aggies had six players earn various all-Mountain West honors. Additionally, senior cornerback Jalen Davis became just the ninth first-team All-American in school history and was named an All-American by four different publications, including the Walter Camp Football Foundation, who voted him to their first team. Furthermore, sophomore placekicker Dominik Eberle was named a third-team All-American by Phil Steele's Magazine and was a finalist for the Lou Groza Award, which honors the top placekicker in college football. USU also had two players sign NFL free agent contracts following the season in Davis and Dallin Leavitt, while Braelon Roberts was invited to a rookie mini-camp.

During the 2016 season, Utah State had six players earn various all-Mountain West honors as it lost five conference games by a combined 29 points (5.8 ppg). USU also had two players invited to postseason All-Star games, while one player was selected in the 2017 NFL Draft in Devante Mays. Furthermore, USU had eight other Aggies who signed free agent contracts.

In 2015, Wells led Utah State to six wins and its fifth-straight bowl game as the Aggies had 12 players earn various all-Mountain West honors, which were the third-most in the conference. Furthermore, senior linebacker Kyler Fackrell was named a fourth-team All-American by Phil Steele's Magazine.

Utah State also had five players invited to postseason All-Star games/camps, while three Aggies participated in the NFL Combine in Fackrell, Hunter Sharp and Nick Vigil. Furthermore, USU had two players selected in the 2016 NFL Draft in Vigil and Fackrell, both in the third round, while six other Aggies signed free agent contracts and two more were invited to rookie mini-camps.

During the 2014 season, Wells led Utah State to 10 wins to rank as the second-most in school history behind the 2012 team that finished with an 11-2 record. USU also played in its fourth-straight bowl game in 2014 and won its third-straight bowl.

In his second year as Utah State's head coach, Wells mentored 15 players who earned 16 all-Mountain West honors, which were the most in the league and tied for the third-most in school history. Wells also mentored two All-Americans in 2014 in Zach Vigil and Davis. Vigil was named an All-American by four different publications, including being named a USA Today Sports second-team All-American, while Davis was named a true freshman All-American by 247Sports. Vigil was named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year.

In his first season as head coach, Wells led Utah State to the inaugural Mountain West Championship game after winning the Mountain Division of the conference with a 7-1 record in 2013. Wells also led Utah State to just its third-ever bowl victory as it posted a 21-14 win against No. 24 Northern Illinois in the 2013 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

For his efforts, Wells was named the 2013 Mountain West Coach of the Year as he set the school record for wins by a first-year head coach. USU finished the season with a 9-5 record, tying the 1960 and 1961 teams for the second-most wins in school history at the time.

Overall, Wells is the fifth USU coach in school history to garner conference coach of the year honors, along with Bruce Snyder (1978), Chuck Shelton (1991), John L. Smith (1997) and Gary Andersen (2012). Wells is also the fourth individual to earn MW Coach of the Year honors in his first season.

During his first year as Utah State's head coach, Wells mentored 14 Aggies who earned various all-Mountain West honors, including three All-Americans as Tyler Larsen was named a second-team All-American by USA Today Sports, Nevin Lawson was named a third-team All-American by College Sports Madness, and Fackrell was named an honorable mention Sophomore All-American by College Football News.

Wells also coached a school-record four players who were invited and participated in the 2014 NFL Combine in Larsen, Lawson, Maurice Alexander and D.J. Tialavea, while a total of 16 players from the 2013 and 2014 rosters were invited to NFL/CFL camps, including Alexander (St. Louis Rams) and Lawson (Detroit Lions), who were both selected in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

Wells, who is one of 22 coaches to lead his alma mater, is just the second Utah State graduate to be appointed its head football coach, joining Chris Pella, who graduated from USU in 1965 and coached the Aggies from 1983-85.

Prior to being named the head coach at his alma mater, Wells spent the previous two seasons as an assistant coach at Utah State, including serving as the team's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2012, and quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator in 2011.

As offensive coordinator in 2012, Utah State concluded its most successful season in school history as it went 11-2 and set school records for wins (11) and home wins (6), while being nationally ranked in The Associated Press poll for three-straight weeks for the first time in school history. USU also won its first outright conference championship since 1936 and just its third in school history joining the 1921 and 1936 teams that both won Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference titles. All-time, Utah State has won or shared 11 league championships.

As offensive coordinator in 2012, Wells directed an Aggie offense that set single-season school records for total points (454), total offense (6,108 yards), completions (285) and total yards per game (469.8), while ranking second in points per game (34.9) and total passing yards (3,445).

Nationally, Utah State's 2012 offense ranked second in the Western Athletic Conference and 23rd in the country in total offense (469.8 ypg), second in the WAC and 18th in the nation in passing efficiency (153.21), second in the WAC and 25th in the nation in rushing offense (204.8 ypg), third in the WAC and 31st in the nation in sacks allowed (1.38 pg), third in the WAC and 33rd in the nation in scoring offense (34.9 ppg), and third in the WAC and 39th in the nation in passing offense (265.0 ypg).

Under Wells, Utah State finished the 2012 season scoring 38 or more points in its final seven games, which is a school record.

In 2012, Wells coached former Aggie Chuckie Keeton, who earned first-team all-WAC honors after setting single-season school records for touchdown passes (27), passing yards (3,373), completion percentage (.676), completions (275) and total offense (3,992 yards). Keeton also earned WAC Offensive Player of the Week honors four times in 2012, which is a single-season school record.

Under Wells' tutelage, Keeton ranks first all-time in school history in career touchdown passes (62), first in career total offense (8,808 yards), second in career completions (672), second in career passing yardage (8,695), second in career passing attempts (1,068), tied for second in career completion percentage (.629) and 14th in career rushing yards (1,415).

As the quarterbacks coach in 2011, Wells helped Utah State's offense establish then-school records for total offense (5,945 yards), rushing yards (3,675), total points (437) and total touchdowns (60).

Wells, a former Aggie quarterback and three-year letterwinner from 1994-96, was a member of two conference championship teams as a student-athlete as he was a redshirt freshman in 1993 when Utah State tied for first in the Big West Conference and defeated Ball State, 42-33, in the Las Vegas Bowl II for its first-ever bowl win. As a senior in 1996, Wells helped USU to another share of the Big West Conference title.

Wells, who has been a part of 10 bowl teams and two conference championships during his coaching career, came to Utah State after two coaching stints at New Mexico, serving as the Lobos' wide receivers and kickoff return unit coach in 2010 and wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 2007 to 2008. In 2009, Wells served as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator at Louisville.

Prior to his first stint at New Mexico, Wells spent five years (2002-06) as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Tulsa and five years at the U.S. Naval Academy (1997-2001) as its quarterbacks coach, fullbacks coach and wide receivers coach, while also serving as the junior varsity head coach and offensive coordinator for three years.

Wells, a native of Sallisaw, Okla., earned his bachelor's degree in business marketing from Utah State in 1996, graduating cum laude. He and his wife Jen have two daughters, Jady (15) and Ella (12), and one son, Wyatt (9). His brother, Luke, is USU's tight ends and inside receivers coach.

Frank Maile, a 2007 Utah State graduate, is in his third season as the Aggies' co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach. Overall, Maile is in his eighth year on the Aggies' staff, as he was a defensive graduate assistant from 2009-10, and the defensive line coach from 2011-13.

As Utah State's co-defensive coordinator/defensive line coach in 2017, USU allowed just 182.5 passing yards per game, which ranked fourth in the Mountain West and 19th nationally. USU also ranked second in the conference and 24th in the nation in 2017 in passing efficiency defense (116.6).

Utah State also ranked sixth in the nation with 29 forced turnovers last season, which included ranking tied for second nationally with its 16 forced fumbles, and ranked fourth in the nation with five defensive touchdowns.

Utah State played in its sixth bowl game in its last seven seasons during the 2017 campaign, including its fourth with Maile on staff, as the Aggies participated in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

During the 2016 season, Utah State allowed just 176.5 passing yards per game, which ranked third in the Mountain West and 10th nationally. USU also ranked fourth in the conference and 47th in the nation in total defense (379.8 ypg). In 2016, Maile coached a pair of Aggies to all-conference honors in Travis Seefeldt (second team) and Ricky Ali'ifuu (honorable mention), who signed a free agent contract with the Kansas City Chiefs.

Prior to his return to Utah State, Maile spent two seasons as the defensive line coach at Vanderbilt. In 2015, the Commodores' defense ranked among the top-35 nationally in nine categories, including 28th in total defense (350.5 ypg), 22nd in scoring defense (21.0 ppg) and 33rd in rushing defense (143.2 ypg).

As Utah State's defensive line coach from 2011-13, Maile coached five Aggies to all-conference honors in Levi Koskan (second team), Al Lapuaho (first team), B.J. Larsen (second team), Jordan Nielsen (second team) and AJ Pataiali'i (second team).

During his three years as defensive line coach, USU posted a 28-13 record and played in three-straight bowl games, winning the 2012 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl and the 2013 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, and a 2012 Western Athletic Conference title.

During the 2013 season, Maile helped the Aggie defense rank first in the Mountain West and seventh in the nation in scoring, allowing 17.1 points per game, the second-fewest allowed by the Aggies since 1971. USU also ranked first in the MW and eighth in the nation in rushing defense (106.7 ypg), its fewest allowed since 1968, and first in the MW and 12th in the nation in total defense (330.9 ypg).

Utah State's 2013 defense also ranked sixth in the nation in the red zone, allowing opponents to score 68.9 percent of the time, including just 19 touchdowns, to rank second nationally. Furthermore, USU's defense ranked seventh in the nation in forcing three-and-outs with 5.6 per game, while its 7.6 tackles per loss per game ranked 10th nationally. USU's defense also ranked 11th nationally in third-down conversions at 32.6 percent.

Utah State's defense finished the 2013 season holding five of its final seven opponents to 14 or fewer points. USU capped its season with a 21-14 win against No. 24 Northern Illinois in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl as the Aggies held NIU's high-powered offense in check and limited Heisman Trophy candidate Jordan Lynch to just 39 rushing yards.

Utah State was also the only team in the nation not to allow a touchdown run of 10 or more yards in 2013, and allowed just two 100-yard rushers, while limiting its opponents to just 13 points following 16 turnovers.

During the 2012 season, Maile helped Utah State's defense rank among the top-15 in the nation in five categories, including being ranked first in the WAC and seventh in the nation in scoring defense (15.38 ppg), second in the WAC and sixth nationally in sacks (3.23 pg), second in the WAC and 13th in the country in rushing defense (113.77 ypg), first in the WAC and 15th in the nation in total defense (322.08 ypg), and first in the WAC and 32nd in the nation in passing defense (208.31 ypg).

In 2011, Maile helped Utah State lead the WAC in total defense (366.2 ypg), as well as ranking second in the league in both rushing defense (127.7 ypg) and tackles for loss (5.9 pg). The Aggies also were second in the WAC in opponent third-down conversions at 35.4 percent.

Maile was a standout defensive lineman for the Aggies from 2004-07, making 21 starts in 42 career games. He posted 71 total tackles with 19.0 tackles for loss and one fumble recovery. In his senior season of 2007 as team captain, Maile accounted for 8.0 tackles for loss, tying for second on the team.

A native of West Valley City, Utah, Maile was a first-team all-state defensive lineman at Alta High School in Sandy, Utah. He went on an LDS Church Mission to the Dominican Republic from 2001-03.

Maile earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from Utah State in 2007 and earned his master's in education in 2010.

Maile and his wife, Heather, have three sons, Maximus (13), Samson (9) and Titan (7), and a daughter, Cecilia (11).

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

1983-86 .... East Central Okla. (DB)

Keith Patterson, who has 15 years of collegiate coaching experience, including 11 seasons as a defensive coordinator, is in his first season as Utah State's defensive coordinator/safeties coach. During his collegiate career, Patterson has coached in 11 bowl games.

Overall, it is Patterson's second stint with USU head coach Matt Wells, as the two were on staff together at Tulsa from 2003-06.

Prior to his appointment at Utah State, Patterson spent the past four seasons at Arizona State serving as the Sun Devils' defensive coordinator for three of those years, and working with the linebackers all four seasons.

With his focus on the inside linebackers at Arizona State in 2017, Patterson oversaw the evolution of D.J. Calhoun and Christian Sam, as both earned all-Pac-12 honors. Sam finished the season ranked seventh nationally and first in the conference, averaging 10.6 tackles per game, while Calhoun ranked seventh in the conference with an average of 7.6 tackles per game. Furthermore, ASU ranked 22nd in the nation with an average of 2.77 sacks per game.

In 2016, Patterson's guidance was instrumental in the standout performances turned in by linebackers Koron Crump and Calhoun. Crump led the Sun Devils with nine sacks, while recording three forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and an interception. Calhoun was the team leader with 77 tackles, was tied for the team lead in tackles for loss with 11.5 and was second to Crump in sacks with 4.5.

Patterson also had a big hand in the Sun Devils' special teams success in 2016, as Arizona State finished fifth in the nation and second in the Pac-12 in net punting (42.0).

The 2015 season saw Patterson put together one of the elite linebacking groups in the Pac-12 with his starting trio of Salamo Fiso, Sam and Laiu Moeakiola finishing first, second and sixth on the team in total tackles. Fiso would go on to earn all-Pac-12 accolades.

Patterson's defense helped the Sun Devils post 111 tackles for loss in 2015, with an average of 8.5 tackles per loss per game to rank third nationally and first in the Pac-12. ASU averaged 3.54 sacks per game in 2015 to lead the nation.

Under the direction of Patterson, the 2014 Sun Devil defense finished sixth in the nation in turnover margin at plus-14 and led the Pac-12 with 14 interceptions. Patterson mentored linebackers Calhoun, Fiso and Moeakiola to third-team all-Pac-12 honors, and Calhoun was named a freshman All-American.

Prior to his arrival in Tempe, Patterson spent two seasons at West Virginia, where he served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2013, and as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2012.

At West Virginia, Patterson mentored linebacker Isaiah Bruce, who was named to three freshman All-America teams and two all-Big 12 teams in 2012 after ranking second on the team in tackles with 94, fourth in tackles for loss with 6.5 and first on the team in fumbles recovered with two. He also tied for the team lead in interceptions with two.

In 2011, Patterson served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Pittsburgh, helping the Panthers' defense rank third nationally in quarterback sacks (3.31 pg), tied for 12th in tackles for loss (98), 14th in defensive third-down efficiency (32.98), 21st in rushing defense (116.9 ypg), 35th in total defense (350.62 ypg) and 38th in scoring defense (22.4 ppg). That defense placed five players on the all-Big East team and featured one All-American.

In 2011, Patterson served as the interim head coach for Pittsburgh at the BBVA Compass Bowl against SMU.

Patterson also coached at Tulsa from 2003 until 2010, where he tutored some of the most productive and accomplished defenders in the school's football history. Patterson began by coaching linebackers in 2003 and then added the title of defensive coordinator from 2006 through 2010. In 2010, he helped mold a defense that led the country in interceptions (24) and ranked third in turnovers gained (36). Facing the nation's top passing offense in Hawai'i in the 2010 Hawaii Bowl, Tulsa's defense forced five interceptions and six total turnovers en route to a victory over the No. 24 Rainbow Warriors.

The win was the Golden Hurricane's 36th over a four-year span and marked the program's third consecutive bowl triumph. His star pupils included first-team all-Conference USA performers Nick Bunting, Chris Chamberlain and Nelson Coleman. Bunting finished his career as one of the most decorated linebackers ever at Tulsa as he was named the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year in 2006 and the Western Athletic Conference Newcomer of the Year in 2003. Chamberlain was drafted by the St. Louis Rams in 2008.

Prior to his college coaching experience, Patterson spent 16 years coaching high school football in Oklahoma and Texas. He spent two years (2000 and 2002) as the linebackers, defensive backs and special teams coach at Allen (Texas) High School. He also coached at Allen HS from 1995-96. Before that, he was the head football coach at Ardmore (Okla.) HS for three seasons (1997-99). At Ardmore, Patterson led his team to the District 5A-1 Championship in 1999, while earning district coach of the year honors. In 1994, Patterson was the head coach at Edmond Santa Fe (Okla.) HS. Prior to that, he served as defensive secondary coach at Edmond Memorial HS for two seasons (1992-93). He began his high school coaching career in 1988 at Altus (Okla.) HS, where he coached the outside linebackers and defensive backs for four years.

Patterson earned his bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation from East Central (Okla.) University in 1986. He was a four-year letterman at defensive back for ECU and later served his alma mater as a graduate assistant coach. He earned his master's degree in kinesiology and sport studies in 2003 from Texas A&M University-Commerce.

Patterson and his wife Melissa have three daughters and one son.

David Yost, who has 24 years of coaching experience, including five seasons as an offensive coordinator, is in his second season as Utah State's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

During his first season as Utah State's offensive coordinator, Yost mentored three Aggies who earned all-Mountain West honors in junior offensive linemen Roman Andrus (honorable mention) and Quin Ficklin (honorable mention), and redshirt sophomore tight end Dax Raymond (honorable mention).

In 2017, Utah State's offense set single-season school records by scoring 50-plus points in three games and producing 500-plus yards of total offense in four games. USU also rushed for 2,228 yards, marking the ninth-straight season it has rushed for at least 2,000 yards.

Utah State also played in its sixth bowl game in the past seven seasons during the 2017 campaign.

Prior to his appointment at Utah State, Yost spent the 2016 season as the quarterback coach and passing game coordinator at Oregon. In his one season at UO, the Ducks ranked 16th nationally in total offense at 491.7 yards per game, 27th in the nation in both scoring offense (35.4 ppg) and rushing offense (226.4 ypg), 32nd nationally in passing offense (265.3 ypg), and 10th nationally with just six thrown interceptions.

Prior to his stint at Oregon, Yost spent three seasons as the inside wide receiver coach at Washington State under Mike Leach. In his three seasons at WSU, the Cougars set the top-three marks for most passes caught in Pac-12 single-season history, and twice led the nation in passing offense in 2014 (477.7 ypg) and 2015 (389.2 ypg).

In 2014, the Cougars' inside receivers accounted for 185 of the team's 510 receptions and 15 of the 45 touchdown catches. In his first year at WSU, the Cougars finished fourth nationally in passing offense, averaging 368.0 yards per game. Freshman receiver River Cracraft claimed all-Pac-12 honorable mention honors in 2013.

Much of Yost's offensive influence resulted from a 17-year association with Gary Pinkel, who molded the 48-year-old Ohio native from a graduate assistant at Toledo in 1996 to the completion of a 12-year tenure at Missouri as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator in 2012.

Yost began his stay in Columbia, Mo., in 2001 as the quarterback coach and recruiting coordinator, and added the duties of offensive coordinator in 2009. He was also elevated to assistant head coach for his final two seasons at Missouri.

During his tenure that began in the Big 12 Conference and concluded in the SEC, Yost earned the reputation as one of the nation's brightest young tutors of quarterbacks. His run included a trio of signal callers (Brad Smith, Chase Daniel and Blaine Gabbert) who accumulated 12 different all-conference accolades beginning with Smith, who became the first Division I player to pass for 2,000 yards and run for 1,000 in the same season, a feat he accomplished in both 2003 and 2005. Smith completed his Missouri tenure in 2005 as the first-ever collegiate player to pass for 8,000 yards and run for another 4,000 before embarking on a nine-year NFL career.

Daniel emerged on the national stage in 2007 when he was a Heisman Trophy finalist. He enjoyed an amazing three-year run as a starter before finishing in 2008 as he left holding virtually every major passing and total offense record in Missouri history.

Gabbert followed Daniel and became an eventual first-round NFL Draft pick.

In 2011, Yost guided the Missouri offensive to a Big 12 rushing title and finished the season ranked ninth nationally after averaging 244.0 yards per game. Missouri was one of only two schools in the country to average at least 230 yards rushing and passing on the year.

Yost assumed the added role of offensive coordinator prior to the 2009 season and oversaw a Missouri offense that ranked No. 14 in the nation in passing at 285.4 yards per game. The Tigers followed that season with a 10-win campaign in 2010, finishing 35th nationally in yards per game (409.62).

Yost was instrumental in the development of Missouri's renowned spread attack. The Tigers broke numerous offensive school records in 2008, putting together only the third 10-win season in school history. The Tigers also established school records for points (591), points per game (42.2) and passing yards (4,625) that season.

During the 2007 and 2008 seasons, Missouri won 22 games to rank third nationally, behind only Oklahoma and USC. Furthermore, Missouri won three Big 12 North Division Championships in a four-year span (2007, 2008, 2010) with Yost on staff.

From 1997 to 2000, Yost held the same responsibilities for Pinkel at Toledo. He spent four seasons coaching two of the most productive quarterbacks in Rockets history in Tavares Bolden and Chris Wallace. Yost came to Toledo from Tiffin University, where he coordinated the offense, along with coaching quarterbacks and receivers in 1995. During the 1994 season, he coached wide receivers.

After graduating from Kent State with a bachelor's degree in early childhood education in 1992, Yost spent time coaching his former high school football team, Carrollton High School, in Carrollton, Ohio.

Yost and his wife, Carrie, have one daughter, Kennedy, and two sons, Keaton and Kamden.

2000-03 ..... Boise State (CB)

Julius Brown is entering his third season at Utah State and second as the defensive backs coach after coaching the cornerbacks in his first season with the program. Overall, Brown has been part of five conference championships and 10 bowl games as an assistant coach.

In 2017, Brown coached a pair of all-Mountain West performers in cornerback Jalen Davis (first team) and safety Dallin Leavitt (honorable mention). Davis also became just the ninth first-team All-American in school history, as garnered by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, and was named a second-team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America, The Associated Press and Phil Steele's Magazine, along with being a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award. Davis finished his senior season ranked tied for fifth nationally with his 20 passes defended and tied for 11th in the nation with his five interceptions, while Leavitt ranked tied for 29th in the nation with his four interceptions. For his career, Davis set the school record with 37 pass breakups and 48 passes defended, while his 11 career interceptions are tied for fourth all-time in school history.

Utah State also played in its sixth bowl game in the past seven seasons during the 2017 campaign.

Following the 2017 season, Davis and Leavitt signed NFL free agent contracts with the Miami Dolphins and Oakland Raiders, respectively.

As the secondary coach in 2017, Brown was part of a Utah State defense that allowed just 182.5 passing yards per game, which ranked fourth in the Mountain West and 19th nationally. USU also ranked second in the conference and 24th in the nation in passing efficiency defense (116.6), and sixth in the nation with 29 forced turnovers, which included ranking tied for second nationally with its 16 forced fumbles. USU also ranked fourth in the nation with five defensive touchdowns in 2017.

During his first season at Utah State, Brown was a part of an Aggie defense that allowed just 176.5 passing yards per game to rank third in the Mountain West and 10th nationally. USU's defense also ranked third in the conference in passing efficiency (130.9), and fourth in the MW and 47th in the nation in total yards allowed (379.8 ypg), along with ranking sixth in the conference in scoring defense (29.3 ppg).

One player on the Aggie defense that Brown mentored during the 2016 season was cornerback Daniel Gray, who signed an NFL free agent contract with the Arizona Cardinals.

Prior to Utah State, Brown spent two seasons (2014-15) as the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Boise State.

During his two years at Boise State, Brown helped the Broncos to a 21-6 record, including a 12-4 mark in the Mountain West and a pair of bowl wins, as it defeated No. 10 Arizona, 38-30, in the 2014 VIZIO Fiesta Bowl and Northern Illinois, 55-7, in the 2015 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. The Broncos also won the 2014 Mountain West title, defeating Fresno State, 28-14, in the championship game.

During the 2015 season, Boise State's secondary intercepted 22 passes to rank first in the Mountain West and fourth nationally and was led by safety Darian Thompson, who had five picks to rank third in the conference and 20th in the nation. Fellow defensive back Donte Deayon added four interceptions during the season to rank fourth in the MW and 23rd nationally. Thompson was selected by the New York Giants in the third round of the 2016 NFL Draft, while Deayon signed a free agent contract with the New York Giants in 2016.

Thompson concluded his Boise State career earning All-American honors as both a junior and senior, along with being named a two-time first-team all-Mountain West selection, while Deayon also earned all-Mountain West honors twice.

In 2015, Boise State's secondary helped the Broncos rank fifth nationally in rushing defense (108.2 ypg), 10th in the nation in opponent's third-down conversion rate (30.9 percent), 12th nationally in total defense (318.3 ypg), 14th nationally in pass defense efficiency (109.9) and 18th in the nation in scoring defense (20.2 ppg).

Boise State also led the Mountain West and ranked fifth nationally in 2014 with 22 interceptions as Thompson led the conference and ranked tied for third in the country with seven interceptions, including returning one for a touchdown. Deayon intercepted six passes during the year and returned two for touchdowns.

The secondary's coverage skills played a key role in the Boise State defense leading the conference with the lowest opponents' third-down conversion rate (34.8 percent), a mark that also ranked 18th nationally, and its second-lowest opponents' fourth-down conversion rate (42.9 percent). Additionally, opposing quarterbacks posted a passing efficiency of just 116.6 in 2014.

Brown, who also coached cornerbacks and was the recruiting coordinator at Arkansas State in 2013, and coached cornerbacks at Troy (Ala.) in 2012, was a three-year starter and four-year letterwinner for Boise State from 2000-03, earning honorable mention All-Western Athletic Conference honors after leading the league in passes defended as a senior.

Brown was a member of the 2002 and 2003 WAC Championship teams, and helped lead the Broncos to victories in the 2002 Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl and the 2003 Plains Capital Fort Worth Bowl. He then worked as an offensive graduate assistant at Boise State from 2006-08, and as the Broncos' Director of Player Personnel from 2009-11. He began his coaching career at Capital High School in Boise during the 2005 season.

Brown, a native of Stockton, Calif., is a 2006 graduate of Boise State with a degree in business administration. Brown and his wife, Cassidy, have one daughter, Lyric (1).

Stacy Collins is in his third season at Utah State and in his second year coaching the inside linebackers after serving as special teams coordinator in 2016.

Overall, Collins has 20 years of coaching experience, including 14 years as a coordinator and four years as a head coach at the collegiate level.

During the 2017 season, Collins helped coach a Utah State defense that allowed just 182.5 passing yards per game, which ranked fourth in the Mountain West and 19th nationally. USU also ranked second in the conference and 24th in the nation in 2017 in passing efficiency defense (116.6).

Furthermore, Utah State ranked sixth in the nation with 29 forced turnovers last season, which included ranking tied for second nationally with its 16 forced fumbles, and ranked fourth in the nation with five defensive touchdowns.

In 2017, Collins mentored linebacker Suli Tamaivena, who earned third-team all-Mountain West honors from Phil Steele's Magazine, as he led the team in total tackles (111), which ranked eighth in the conference, and tackles for loss (6.5), while ranking tied for second on the team in sacks (3.0). He also ranked tied for first on the team and tied for 26th nationally with his two fumble recoveries.

Utah State also played in its sixth bowl game in the past seven seasons during the 2017 campaign.

In 2016, Collins coached a pair of kickers who performed at a high level in senior PK Brock Warren and sophomore P Aaron Dalton. Warren was 9-of-12 on field goal attempts and that .750 percentage ranks tied for 10th all-time in school history. Dalton punted 62 times during the year as 19 of his punts were downed inside the 20-yard line and 25 of his punts were fair caught. Overall, Dalton had eight punts of 50-plus yards, including a long of 56. Furthermore, Utah State ranked third in the Mountain West and 38th nationally in kickoff return defense in 2016, allowing just 19.47 yards per return.

Collins came to Utah State after spending four seasons as the head coach and special teams coordinator at Division II South Dakota School of Mines.

As head coach at South Dakota School of Mines from 2012-15, Collins led the Hardrockers to winning seasons in 2013 and 2015, the last being just their third in the past 30 years. During his four years at SDSM, Collins notched 16 victories to become the sixth-winningest coach in program history.

Under Collins' direction in 2014, South Dakota School of Mines set single-season school records with 5,282 total yards, 3,540 passing yards and 286 first downs and led all of college football in red zone efficiency. SDSM also set single-game school records with 674 total yards vs. William Jewell, 481 passing yards vs. Northwestern and 34 first downs vs. Southwest Baptist. Furthermore, SDSM set the single-season school record for points scored with 386 during the 2013 campaign.

As members of the Great Northwest Athletic Conference in 2014 and 2015, South Dakota School of Mines had 14 all-conference honorees under Collins, highlighted by quarterback Trent McKinney, who twice earned first-team honors and was named the conference's Newcomer of the Year in 2014.

Collins also mentored a pair of record-setting kickers at South Dakota School of Mines in Devon Jones and Kolten Jelden.

Along with all the success South Dakota School of Mines had on the field under Collins, the Hardrockers were just as successful in the classroom as seven players earned GNAC All-Academic Honors in 2015.

Prior to his head coaching stint at South Dakota School of Mines, Collins served as the assistant head coach and special teams coordinator at Portland State in 2011, where he coached placekicker Zach Brown, who was named a first-team All-American by The Associated Press, the Walter Camp Foundation, the American Football Coaches Association and the Sports Network.

Along with Brown, Collins also coached punter Thomas Duyndam to honorable mention all-Big Sky Conference honors in 2011.

Prior to Portland State, Collins spent three seasons (2008-10) at Central Washington as the special teams coordinator and linebacker/defensive line coach. At CWU, Collins coached an All-American and two-time first-team all-GNAC kicker in Garrett Rolsma, as well as first-team all-conference kick returners Courtney Smith (2008) and Jerome Williams (2009).

Collins has also had coaching stops at Southern Oregon in 2007 (defensive coordinator), Idaho State from 2005-06 (linebackers coach), Western Washington from 2003-04 (linebackers coach), South Dakota School of Mines in 2002 (defensive/special teams coordinator) and Western Oregon from 1998-2001 (special teams coordinator and linebackers coach).

In addition, he spent time in Europe on the coaching staff of the Vienna Vikings (Austria), a European League football team, as the defensive coordinator and interim head coach from 1999-2001.

While the special teams coordinator at Western Washington from 2003-04, Collins coached punter Mike Koenen, who went on to play for 10 seasons in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Collins played college football at Western Oregon from 1993-97 as a linebacker, graduating with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1998 and then a master's degree in education in 2001.

Collins, a native of Sutherlin, Ore., and his wife, Mandi, have four daughters, Kayla (15), Mackenzie (13), Kylee (7) and Mackenna (5).

Steve Farmer, who has 19 years of coaching experience, including nine seasons as an offensive coordinator, is in his third season as Utah State's offensive line coach.

During the 2017 season, Farmer was part of an Aggie coaching staff that helped USU set single-season school records by scoring 50-plus points in three games and producing 500-plus yards of total offense in four games. USU also rushed for 2,228 yards, marking the ninth-straight season it has rushed for at least 2,000 yards.

As the offensive line coach, Farmer mentored a pair of linemen to honorable mention all-Mountain West honors last season in Roman Andrus and Quin Ficklin.

Utah State also played in its sixth bowl game in the past seven seasons during the 2017 campaign.

In his first season at Utah State in 2016, Farmer helped coach an Aggie offense that recorded its eighth-straight 2,000-yard rushing season. Farmer also coached three offensive linemen to all-Mountain West honors in Austin Albrecht, Jake Simonich and Austin Stephens. Following the completion of their collegiate careers, Simonich signed an NFL free agent contract with the Houston Texans and Stephens signed an NFL free agent contract with the Carolina Panthers.

Prior to his appointment at Utah State, Farmer spent six seasons as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Louisiana-Monroe, coaching the offensive line and tight ends.

During his six years at Louisiana-Monroe, Farmer mentored 17 offensive players who earned various all-Sun Belt Conference honors, including quarterback Kolton Browning, who was named a College Football News Freshman All-American in 2010 and the Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year as a junior in 2012, as he helped the Warhawks to eight wins and an appearance in the Independence Bowl, their first since transitioning to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level in 1995. During the 2012 season, Louisiana-Monroe set or tied 45 school records.

As a freshman, Browning tied the Louisiana-Monroe record for touchdown passes in a game (5) and consecutive games with 200-plus yards passing (8). Browning finished his career ranking first all-time in school history in passing yards (10,263), pass completions (951), pass attempts (1,577) and touchdown passes (81).

Prior to his six years at Louisiana-Monroe, Farmer spent the 2009 season as the offensive coordinator at Illinois State.

From 2004-08, Farmer also coached at Louisiana-Monroe as the offensive line coach for three seasons and as the offensive coordinator during his final two years. In Farmer's first season at the helm of the ULM offense (2007), the Warhawks posted their highest points-per-game average (23.5) since moving to NCAA FBS status in 1994. ULM also posted the sixth-highest yards-per-game average (385.7) in school history. The Warhawks finished the season ranked 16th in the NCAA in rushing (209.0 ypg) and 31st in fewest sacks allowed (1.5 pg).

Farmer led one of the best offensive lines in the history of the Louisiana-Monroe football program in 2007 as they paved the way for Calvin Dawson, a two-time Sun Belt Conference rushing champion and ULM's all-time rushing leader with 3,378 yards, to his best season as a Warhawk as he rushed for 1,414 yards.

In 2006, the Louisiana-Monroe offensive line ranked fifth nationally, and first in the Sun Belt Conference, with only 13 sacks allowed on the year. The 2005 Warhawk offensive line allowed quarterback Steven Jyles the opportunity to earn Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year honors and led ULM to a Sun Belt Conference Championship. ULM allowed just eight sacks on the season, which ranked third nationally, and only one in Sun Belt Conference action.

In 2004, Farmer's first season with the Warhawks, ULM added 41 yards per game to its offense and only allowed seven sacks, the lowest total in the Sun Belt Conference and second-fewest in the nation.

Farmer came to Louisiana-Monroe from Eastern Michigan, where the offensive line helped tailback Anthony Sherrell run for 1,531 yards, setting an EMU single-season rushing record.

Prior to Eastern Michigan, Farmer was the offensive line coach at Eastern Illinois, where in two years his lines allowed just 17 quarterback sacks and helped EIU average over 35 points per game. He tutored eight all-Ohio Valley Conference linemen in those two seasons as the Panthers won the 2001 and 2002 OVC titles and advanced to the NCAA I-AA playoffs both seasons.

Farmer spent four years at Illinois State, two as a player and two more as an assistant coach. He coached the ISU defensive tackles in 1999 and tight ends in 2000. In 1999, ISU reached the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) semifinals.

Farmer played center for Illinois State from 1997-98, and was a member of the Redbirds' 1998 FCS playoff team. He earned first-team all-Missouri Valley Football Conference honors in 1998 and graduated from ISU in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in physical education.

Farmer began his collegiate playing career at one of the most successful junior college programs in the country, Northeastern Oklahoma A&M.

Farmer and his wife, Amy, have a daughter, Rebekah (15), and a son, Luke (13).

DeAndre Smith, who has 19 years of collegiate coaching experience, including two seasons as an offensive coordinator and 17 years as a running backs coach, is in his first season as Utah State's running backs coach.

It will be Smith's second stint with head coach Matt Wells, as the two were on staff together at New Mexico in 2008.

Prior to his appointment at Utah State, Smith spent the 2017 season at North Carolina and served as Purdue's running backs coach in 2016.

Prior to his year in West Lafayette, Ind., Smith spent three seasons as the running backs coach at Syracuse. The Orange gained 1,958 yards and scored 15 rushing touchdowns on 445 attempts in 2015. Syracuse averaged 4.4 yards per carry and 163.2 yards per game on the ground in 2015, with freshman Jordan Fredericks rushing for a team-high 607 yards and four touchdowns on 107 attempts.

Smith has previously coached running backs at New Mexico (2012, 2008), Illinois (2010-11), UNLV (2009), Miami (Ohio) (2005-07) and Northern Illinois (2001-04), which produced four straight all-conference running backs during his tenure. He also served as the assistant head coach with the RedHawks and as a special teams assistant with the Huskies. He began his coaching career as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Indiana State (1999-2000).

In 17 years of coaching, Smith has mentored four All-Americans and has had nine 1,000-yard rushers. Among the notable running backs to play for him are Mikel LeShoure at Illinois, and Michael Turner and Garrett Wolfe at Northern Illinois. In 2010, LeShoure set Fighting Illini records for rushing yards (1,697), scoring (122 points) and touchdowns (20). He was a second team All-America, a first-team all-Big Ten selection and would go on to be a second-round selection by the Detroit Lions. Turner was a two-time second team All-American for the Huskies (2002, 2003) after leading the Mid-American Conference in rushing, while Wolfe earned honorable mention All-America honors in 2004 after ranking fifth nationally in rushing (1,656 yards). Turner was a fifth-round selection by the San Diego Chargers and played eight years in the NFL. Wolfe was a third-round pick by the Chicago Bears.

A four-year letterwinner at quarterback for Southwest Missouri State, Smith was the 1990 Division I-AA Offensive Player of the Year as well as an All-American. He was named the Gateway Conference Player of the Decade from 1985 to 1995.

Smith, who earned his bachelor's degree in organizational communication from SMS in 2002, played professionally for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League (1992) and in France (1993).

A native of St. Louis, Smith and his wife, Lori, have two sons, Ryan and Donovan, and a daughter, Ashley. Ryan played wide receiver at Duke from 2013-16.

Uani 'Unga (Wah-knee Oo-nga) is entering his second season as part of Utah State's staff, and first year as a full-time assistant, after serving as a defensive administrative assistant for the Aggies in 2017. As a full-time assistant, 'Unga will coach the outside linebackers this fall.

During the 2017 season, 'Unga helped Utah State to its sixth bowl game in the past seven seasons, playing in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

As Utah State's defensive administrative assistant in 2017, 'Unga assisted the defensive coaches with daily football operations, primarily working with the linebackers and special teams.

During the 2017 season, 'Unga helped coach a Utah State defense that allowed just 182.5 passing yards per game, which ranked fourth in the Mountain West and 19th nationally. USU also ranked second in the conference and 24th in the nation in 2017 in passing efficiency defense (116.6).

Furthermore, Utah State ranked sixth in the nation with 29 forced turnovers last season, which included ranking tied for second nationally with its 16 forced fumbles, and ranked fourth in the nation with five defensive touchdowns.

'Unga came to Utah State after spending the 2016 football season as a volunteer coach at Orem (Utah) High School, working with the linebackers and special teams.

'Unga began his collegiate career at Oregon State (2009-10) before transferring to BYU, where he red-shirted in 2011 and then played in 2012 and 2013. As a senior, he led the nation with 143 tackles (62-solo, 81-assist). During his two-year BYU career, he recorded 171 tackles (78-solo, 93-assist), which included 1.0 sacks and 10.5 tackles for loss, while adding three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception, to go along with four pass breakups and one quarterback hurry.

Following his collegiate career, 'Unga signed an NFL free agent contract with the New York Giants and spent three seasons with the franchise. He made his first career start in the NFL against the Dallas Cowboys in 2015 and intercepted a Tony Romo pass during the game. Against the Cowboys, he played every defensive snap (72) and led the team in tackles (12).

'Unga has two older brothers who also played college football as Paul was a defensive end at Arizona State and J.J. was an offensive guard at Midwestern State. He also has a twin brother, Feti, who played linebacker at Oregon State, while his younger brother, Metuisela, plays tight end at Hawaii, and his other younger brother, Chris, plays nose guard for Utah State.

'Unga graduated from BYU in 2015 with a degree in American Studies of Humanities. During high school, he spent two years at Etiwanda HS in California and two years at Kahuku HS in Hawaii. Following high school, he served a two-year LDS Church Mission in Guatemala from 2007-09.

'Unga and his wife, Lachelle, have two daughters, Vikatolia and 'Ofa, and three sons, Kingston, Jon and Apaiaata.

LUKE WELLS

INSIDE RECEIVERS / TIGHT ENDS

Oklahoma, 2002 • Sixth Season

Luke Wells is in his sixth season as an assistant coach at Utah State, including his second year working with the inside receivers and tight ends, after serving as the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2016, and the co-offensive coordinator and tight ends coach from 2013-15.

In his first five years at Utah State, the Aggies have played in four bowl games and notched bowl wins against No. 24 Northern Illinois (21-14) in the 2013 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl and against UTEP (21-6) in the 2014 Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

During the 2017 season, Wells was part of an Aggie coaching staff that helped USU set single-season school records by scoring 50-plus points in three games and producing 500-plus yards of total offense in four games. USU also rushed for 2,228 yards, marking the ninth-straight season it has rushed for at least 2,000 yards.

As inside receivers and tight ends coach in 2017, Wells mentored redshirt sophomore tight end Dax Raymond to honorable mention all-Mountain West honors as he ranked second in the conference among all tight ends, and second on the team, in both receptions (41) and receiving yards (456).

As co-offensive coordinator in 2016, Wells mentored one of the best tight ends in school history in Wyatt Houston, who earned honorable mention all-Mountain West honors as a senior and finished his career with 86 receptions for 933 yards and nine touchdowns, all of which rank second all-time in school history for a tight end. Following his collegiate career, Houston signed an NFL free agent contract with the Carolina Panthers.

During the 2015 season, Houston ranked fourth on the team with 25 receptions for 307 yards and three touchdowns.

In 2014, Houston finished the year ranking fifth on the team in both receptions (19) and yards (178), while Jefferson Court ranked tied for second on the team in receiving touchdowns (3).

Following the 2014 season, Court was the 37th player selected in the 2015 Canadian Football League Draft by the Ottawa Redblacks.

During the 2013 season, Wells was part of an Aggie offense that set school records for pass completions (297), total offensive plays (1,073), touchdown passes (30) and first downs (310), while its 445 points scored and 481 pass attempts both rank second all-time. Furthermore, USU's 56 total touchdowns rank third all-time and its 31.7 points per game average ranks fifth all-time in school history.

Utah State's tight ends also set the single-season school record for touchdown receptions in 2013 with nine, bettering the previous record of seven set in 1993.

As tight ends coach, Wells mentored Tialavea, who participated in the 2014 NFL Combine and signed a free agent contract with the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL. Tialavea is currently with the Atlanta Falcons.

Prior to joining Utah State's staff, Wells spent four seasons at Iowa State (2009-12), working with the tight ends and wide receivers. Wells also helped the Cyclones to back-to-back bowl games as they played in the 2011 New Era Pinstripe Bowl against Rutgers and the 2012 Auto Zone Liberty Bowl against Tulsa.

At Iowa State, Wells mentored Cyclone tight end Ernst Brun, who earned honorable mention all-Big 12 honors and was also named ISU's Offensive Player of the Game at the Auto Zone Liberty Bowl. Brun was invited to the Oakland Raiders camp following his senior season.

As wide receivers coach at Iowa State during the 2009 and 2010 seasons, Wells coached Darius Darks and Darius Reynolds, who finished their careers combining for 208 receptions for 2,396 yards and 16 touchdowns. Wells also coached Josh Lenz who had 96 receptions for 1,213 yards and 10 touchdowns during his ISU career. Lenz spent four years in the NFL.

Prior to his stint at Iowa State, Wells spent six years at Louisiana-Monroe serving as an offensive graduate assistant in 2003 before being elevated to a full-time assistant coach from 2004-08. During his last two years at ULM, Wells served as the Warhawks' recruiting coordinator, as well as wide receivers coach, and helped bring in the highest-rated recruiting classes ever.

The Louisiana-Monroe offense posted the highest scoring average in the school's NCAA FBS history in 2008 as Anthony McCall set a school record for freshman touchdown receptions that season.

Wells took over the wide receivers at ULM in 2007 and mentored all-Sun Belt second-team selection La-Gregory Sapp, who led the league in yards per reception with 19.6 on 40 catches for 784 yards.

In 2004 and 2005, Wells worked with the tight ends and all-Sun Belt first-teamer Joey Trappey, who was the top receiving tight end in the conference with 42 receptions for 425 yards.

Prior to ULM, Wells coached wide receivers at Denton High School in Texas, helping his team win the 2002 bi-district title.

Before that, Wells was a student assistant at Oklahoma from 1999-2001 as the Sooners won the 2000 Big 12 Conference crown and national title.

Wells earned his bachelor's degree from Oklahoma in secondary education in 2002 and did graduate work at ULM. He is married to the former Coby Groves and the couple has one son, Walker (11), and one daughter, Kinsley (9). His brother, Matt, is USU's head football coach.

WAQA DAMUNI
ASSISTANT AD / FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
Utah State, 1998 • Sixth Year

Waqa Damuni (Wonga Da-moo-knee) is in his sixth season at Utah State, serving as an Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations. In his current role, Damuni oversees the day-to-day operations of the football program.

His responsibilities include the overall management of the football budget, team travel, bowl game coordination and community outreach. Other duties include game day management, the coordination and planning of team events and special projects related to the football program.

Damuni, a former tight end and three-year letterwinner at Utah State from 1996-98, helped the Aggies win back-to-back Big West Conference championships, including a trip to the inaugural Humanitarian Bowl in 1997.

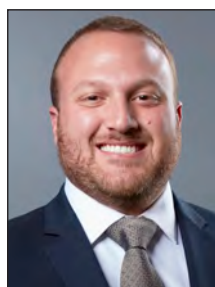

Damuni returned to Utah State after spending five years as the Director of Academic Support for Razorback student-athletes at Arkansas.

In all, Damuni spent 10 years in athletic academics at the Division I level at Arkansas, Colorado and Memphis, tracking NCAA initial and continuing eligibility, coordinating the academic affairs for student-athletes and assisting the coaching staff with on-campus recruiting and day-to-day operations.

Damuni was a counselor for the State of Utah Juvenile Justice Services in Logan from 1998-2001, serving in different capacities including detention, family crisis intervention and community outreach services. He also served as a liaison between the Juvenile Justice Services and the Hispanic community in the Cache Valley area. He is fluent in Spanish after serving an LDS Church Mission in Monterrey, Mexico.

Damuni, who began his collegiate career at Dixie State in St. George, Utah, earned both his undergraduate and graduate degrees from Utah State, as he received his bachelor of arts degree in sociology in 1998 with minors in social work and Spanish. He went on to earn a master's degree in business information systems in 2005. He then graduated from the NCAA Ethnic Minority Leadership Institute in 2010.

A native of Hale, Hawaii, Damuni is married to the former Val Tongo of Millbrae, Calif. They have seven children - Emosi, Levani, Junior, Jovesa, Lavinia, Lusiana and Damien.

JOHN CANNOVA
OFFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT
North Central College, 2014 • Second Year

John Cannova (pronounced Ca-nova) is in his second year with Utah State's football program as a graduate assistant coach for the Aggies' offense. In his role, Cannova assists the offensive coaches with daily football operations, primarily working with the offensive line.

During the 2017 season, Cannova helped Utah State to its sixth bowl game in the past seven seasons, playing in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

In his first season at Utah State, Cannova was part of an Aggie coaching staff that helped USU set single-season school records by scoring 50-plus points in three games and producing 500-plus yards of total offense in four games. USU also rushed for 2,228 yards, marking the ninth-straight season it has rushed for at least 2,000 yards.

In 2017, Cannova helped mentored a pair of linemen to honorable mention all-Mountain West honors last season in Roman Andrus and Quin Ficklin.

Prior to his arrival at Utah State, Cannova spent three seasons at St. Ambrose University in Davenport, Iowa. In 2014, he was an offensive graduate assistant working with the offensive line, and in 2015-16 he served as the offensive line coach. During his three years at St. Ambrose, Cannova coached seven all-conference offensive linemen.

During the 2015 season, St. Ambrose finished the season ranked No. 20 in the NAIA Coaches' Poll and led the Mid-State Football Association in scoring.

Cannova also served as the academic coordinator during his three seasons at St. Ambrose, helping the football team record the highest GPA in the NAIA in 2014 and 2015.

Cannova played football at North Central College in Naperville, Ill., from 2011-13, and was a three-year starter at offensive guard and center. He helped the Cardinals to three College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin (CCIW) titles and three NCAA Division III playoff appearances, including a semifinals appearance in 2013. During his sophomore season in 2011, North Central College averaged 6.8 yards per carry.

At North Central College, Cannova was a National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society honoree along with earning academic all-CCIW honors.

Cannova, who is originally from Wheaton, Ill., prepped at Benet Academy in Lisle, Ill., earning all-conference honors as an offensive lineman following his senior season.

CHUCKIE KEETON

OFFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT
Utah State, 2015
First Year

Chuckie Keeton is in his first season with Utah State's football program as an offensive graduate assistant. In his role, Keeton will assist the offensive coaches with daily football operations, primarily working with the inside receivers and tight ends.

Keeton comes to Utah State after spending the past two seasons as an offensive graduate assistant at Oregon State. During the 2016-17 season, Keeton served as the Beavers' offensive quality control coach. The following year, he was an offensive graduate assistant. Keeton worked with OSU's quarterbacks.

Prior to heading to Corvallis, Ore., Keeton enjoyed a record-setting career at Utah State, which spanned a total of five seasons from 2011-15. He finished his illustrious career with more than 10 school records, including ranking first in career total offense (8,808 yards) and career touchdown passes (62).

As a sophomore in 2012, Keeton set single-season school records for touchdown passes (27), passing yards (3,373), total offensive yards (3,992), completions (275) and completion percentage (.676). One year later, he completed 69.4 percent of his passes to break his own completion percentage record.

A season-ending knee injury suffered against BYU cut short Keeton's junior season. Through the first five games, though, he ranked second in the nation with 17 touchdown passes, 22nd in passing efficiency (161.6), 11th in completion percentage (71.0), 18th in total offense (317.2 yards per game) and 25th in passing yards per game (272.4).

Keeton earned first-team all-Western Athletic Conference honors in 2012 after helping lead the Aggies to their first outright league title since 1936. Utah State capped its season with a 41-15 win over Toledo in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. USU was ranked 16th in the final Associated Press poll, 17th in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll and 22nd in the final BCS standings.

After graduating from Utah State in the fall of 2015 with a business administration degree, Keeton, who was a member of the 2014 AFCA All-State Good Works Team, attended rookie minicamp with the Houston Texans in 2016 before joining the staff at Oregon State.

Keeton is working on a master's degree in exercise and sport education with an emphasis in psychology at Utah State.

CONOR DUBIN

DEFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT
Arizona State, 2016
First Year

Conor Dubin is in his first season with Utah State's football program as a defensive graduate assistant. In his role, Dubin will assist the defensive coaches with daily football operations, primarily working with the defensive backs.

Dubin comes to Utah State after spending the past three seasons at Arizona State. During his first two seasons with the Sun Devils, he was a defensive student-assistant before being elevated to defensive quality control coach in 2017.

In 2017, ASU linebacker Sam Christian led the Pac-12 with 127 tackles, averaging 10.6 stops per game, while teammate and fellow linebacker DJ Calhoun ranked ninth in the league with 99 tackles.

During the 2016 campaign, linebacker Antonio Longino tied for first in the nation with 1.7 tackles for loss per game, while Koron Crump, another linebacker for the Sun Devils, ranked fifth in the Pac-12 with 0.75 sacks per game.

In Dubin's first season at Arizona State, linebacker Fiso Salamo ranked first in the Pac-12 in tackles for loss at 20.0, while Longino was second at 19.5. Cornerback Kareem Orr led the league in interceptions with six, returning one for a touchdown. As a team, the Sun Devils were third in the Pac-12 and 21st in the nation in rushing defense, allowing just 126.2 yards per game.

Prior to his three seasons with the Sun Devils in Tempe, Dubin was the inside linebackers coach/varsity defensive coordinator at Flintridge Preparatory School in La Canada, Calif., as well as serving as an athletics department assistant.

The native of Los Angeles, Calif., played linebacker at Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pa., from 2010-12, before having to medically retire due to a season-ending injury in 2012. Dubin graduated from Arizona State in December of 2016 with a degree in sociology. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in physical and sport education from Utah State.

AL LAPUAHO

DEFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT
Utah State, 2013
First Year

Al Lapuaho (pronounced Lah-poo-ah-ho) is in his first season with Utah State's football program as a defensive graduate assistant. In his role, Lapuaho will assist the defensive coaches with daily football operations, primarily working with the defensive linemen.

Lapuaho comes to Utah State after spending the 2016 and 2017 seasons as a defensive graduate assistant at Oregon State, where he worked specifically with the defensive line.

The native of West Valley City, Utah, earned first-team all-conference honors at Snow College before making his way to Utah State, where he spent his junior and senior seasons in 2011 and 2012.

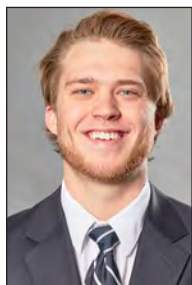

Lapuaho started all 26 games during his career with the Aggies, finishing with 66 total tackles, which included 4.0 sacks and 7.0 tackles for loss. He earned first-team all-Western Athletic Conference honors as a senior as he led all USU defensive linemen with 35 tackles, which included 3.0 sacks and 4.5 tackles for loss, while adding four quarterback hurries, one forced fumble and one pass breakup.

After graduating from Utah State with an interdisciplinary studies degree emphasizing in psychology and physical education, Lapuaho signed an NFL free agent contract with the St. Louis Rams. During the 2013 NFL campaign, he spent time on the practice squad for both the Rams and Miami Dolphins.

Lapuaho joined the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2014, but was cut after the preseason. He also played one season for the Colorado Crush of the Indoor Football League.

Prior to joining the staff at Oregon State, Lapuaho worked as an account/capacity manager for England Logistics. He married Tillsa Vakalahi in November of 2015.

WORTH GREGORY

SPECIAL TEAMS ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT
East Carolina, 2016
First Year

Worth Gregory is in his first season with Utah State's football program as a special teams administrative assistant coach. In his role, Gregory will assist in game prep for opponents, analysis of games and practices, and academic/practice schedules for special teams players, among other duties.

This is Gregory's first coaching position. The former all-conference punter at East Carolina comes to Utah State after a brief stint with the Jacksonville Jaguars last season.

Gregory was tabbed a 2017 recipient of the University Scholar-Athlete Award by the National Football Foundation (NFF) and College Hall of Fame. The native of Fort Mill, S.C., also earned membership into the 2017 NFF Hampshire Honor Society.

The three-time Ray Guy Award Watch List selection averaged 43.0 yards per punt during his 37-game ECU career, which ranks as the fourth-highest total in school history. He established a single-season standard as a junior by planting 32 punts inside the 20-yard line and was named the Pirates' special teams MVP during his final two years of action.

Additionally, Gregory stood among the American Athletic Conference's top punters by earning second-team all-league honors as a senior after ranking third with a 42.3 average. As a junior in 2015, Gregory owned the AAC's longest boot with a 73-yarder against USF, and during his sophomore campaign, turned in an average of 43.6 to finish second among all conference punters.

Before transferring to ECU, Gregory started his collegiate career at Alabama and was a member of the 2012 Crimson Tide team that defeated Notre Dame, 42-14, in the BCS National Championship Game at Sun Life Stadium in Miami Gardens, Fla.

The three-time letterman in football at Fort Mill High School, Gregory was tabbed a five-star performer (Kohls/NCS) who was rated as the No. 1 punter in South Carolina and No. 7 nationally by Chris Sailer Kicking.

An honor roll and dean's list performer in the classroom with a cumulative grade point average of 3.218, Gregory graduated from ECU in May of 2016 with a degree in business administration.

JASON SHUMAKER

SPECIAL TEAMS SENIOR ANALYST
Kansas, 2003
First Year

Jason Shumaker is in his first season with Utah State's football program as the Aggies' special teams analyst.

Shumaker comes to Utah State after spending the previous five seasons at Idaho, where he served as the Vandals' running backs coach, special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

In 2015, running back Elijah Penny, who is entering his second season in the NFL with the Arizona Cardinals, became the first Vandal since 2007 to rush for 1,000 yards.

Idaho's special teams also excelled under Shumaker's watch as the Vandals had a unit in the top-five of the Football Bowl Sub-division (FBS) during the 2014, 2015 and 2016 campaigns. All-American punter Austin Rehkow led the effort, as he became Idaho's first four-time first-team all-conference choice.

Shumaker also coached Cade Coffey at Idaho. Coffey was tabbed a USA Today Freshman All-American after finishing ninth in the country in punting in 2017.

Blocking punts became a trademark of Shumaker's special teams as the Vandals were third in the FBS in that category in 2014 and were second in 2016.

Shumaker joined the staff at Idaho after serving one year as Arkansas' Director of High School Relations. Prior to joining the Razorbacks' staff, he spent seven years at small colleges ranging from Eastern New Mexico to Midland University.

Shumaker was hired as the head coach of Dana College in December of 2009 and served in that role until the school closed in June of 2010.

Prior to his time at Dana, he was at the University of Saint Mary at Leavenworth, Kan., for three seasons and was tabbed the 2008 KCAC Assistant Coach of the Year.

Shumaker went to USM from Eastern New Mexico, where he coached three All-Lone Star Conference players. Prior to his time at ENMU, he was a teacher and a coach at Rowlett, Texas.

Shumaker was born in Salina, Kan., and went to high school in Grand Prairie, Texas. From there, he attended Kansas, where he played fullback for the Jayhawks. He was a five-time Jayhawk Scholar and was on the Big XII Commissioner's Honor Roll five times. Shumaker graduated from Kansas in 2003 with a degree in education and earned a master's degree in sports administration from Eastern New Mexico University in 2007.

He is married to the former Kate Klepper. They have two children – a son, Davis (6), and a daughter, Elliette (5).

JUSTIN UDY

DEFENSIVE ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT
Eastern Oregon, 2011
First Year

Justin Udy is in his first season with Utah State's football program as a defensive administrative assistant. In his role, Udy will assist the defensive coaches with daily football operations.

Udy comes to Utah State after spending the past three seasons at South Dakota School of Mines in Rapid City, S.D., where he served the last two years as the Hardrockers' offensive coordinator, recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach.

In 2017, South Dakota School of Mines averaged 31.1 points per game and 448.7 yards of total offense – 248.4 passing, 200.3 rushing – each time out. Running back Brandon LaBrie was tabbed the 2017 Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year and was a second-team all-conference pick. LaBrie was one of four all-conference performers for the Hardrockers in 2017.

During the 2016 campaign, South Dakota School of Mines set the school record for total offense in both a game (681 yards vs. Black Hills State) and season (5,486 yards). The Hardrockers also set single-season school bests in rushing yards (2,674) and points (415) that same year.

While at South Dakota School of Mines, Udy coached receivers Marcus Sanchez and Rashad Ridley, who were both all-RMAC performers in 2016. Sanchez is the current record holder for career receiving touchdowns at SDSM.

In his time as a coordinator with the Hardrockers, South Dakota School of Mines set a total of seven offensive school records.

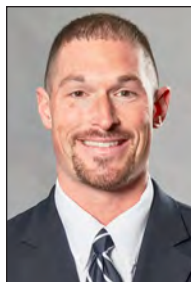

Prior to his time at South Dakota School of Mines, Udy worked at his alma mater, Eastern Oregon University in La Grande, Ore. While coaching at EOU from 2011-2015, Udy worked in several different positions, including assistant head coach, special team coordinator and wide receivers coach.

During the 2014 season, Udy helped coach the Mountaineers to an 8-3 record, which tied for the best season in school history at the time. Udy coached Jace Billingsley, who is currently the record holder for receptions in both a season and career, as well as points in a season and career. Billingsley is currently with the Detroit Lions.

Udy graduated from Eastern Oregon with a bachelor's degree in marketing and management in 2011. He later earned his master's degree in business administration in 2013.

The native of Genesee, Idaho, was a quarterback and wide receiver from 2007-11 at Eastern Oregon. He is married to the former Shannon Callow.

DAVE SCHOLZ

Strength & Conditioning Head Coach

UW-Milwaukee, 2004 Sixth Year

Dave Scholz is in his sixth season as Utah State's Strength and Conditioning head coach and in his ninth year overall with the athletics department.

Scholz came to Utah State after spending the 2012 season in the National Football League as a strength, nutrition and conditioning assistant with the San Francisco 49ers. In that position, Scholz was responsible for the programming for quarterbacks and kickers, as well as all the nutritional aspects of the team, including meal planning. Scholz spent the 2011 season as the 49ers strength and conditioning intern.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Scholz served as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Utah State for three years (2008-10), where he assisted in all matters of football and served as the head of sports nutrition. He also was the lead strength and conditioning coach for softball and volleyball.

From 2006-08, Scholz was a graduate assistant at Utah State, where he worked alongside current Minnesota Vikings and former 49ers and USU head strength and conditioning coach Mark Uyeyama. During the summer of 2006, Scholz was a strength and conditioning intern at Arizona State.

Scholz has earned his CSCS Certification from the NSCA, Precision Nutrition Certification, ISSA Sports Nutrition Certification, BioSignature Modulation, PICP Levels I & II Certification, Metabolic Analytics Certification, Kinetic Chain Enhancement Upper and Lower Body Certification, and Functional Range Conditioning Mobility Specialist Certification (FRCms).

Scholz, who played football at Wisconsin-Eau Claire from 2002-03, was also a national level powerlifter at the 275-pound class. He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise fitness from Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 2004, and went on to earn his master's degree from Utah State in health, physical education and recreation in 2008.

Scholz is married to the former Kara Krupski.

MIKE BAIR

Assistant AD/
Director of Equipment Operations

Utah State, 1995
22nd Year

Mike Bair is in his 22nd year as the Director of Equipment Operations for the Utah State athletics department and was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director in 2016.

In his role, Bair services all 16 sports with athletics equipment, uniforms and clothing, while also supervising two full-time staff members as well as student managers for many of the sports. He has served on the Schutt Sports Athletic Council as well as Advisory Councils for Adams and McDavid.

In January, 2010, Bair was named the District 8 Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA) Equipment Manager of the Year.

A certified member of the AEMA, Bair also serves as the CEU rep for equipment managers in District 8, covering Washington, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Wyoming and Utah.

A Lewiston, Utah native, Bair graduated from Sky View High School in Smithfield, Utah and Utah State with a business management degree from the Huntsman School of Business in 1995.

Prior to coming to Utah State, Bair worked in the sporting goods industry doing retail and team sales for 10 years.

He and his wife, the former Michelle Parker, have three children, Makayla, Nick and Adelynn and a grandson, Jackson.

BILL GARREN

Assistant AD/
Director of Video Operations

Idaho State, 2002
13th Year

Bill Garren is in his 13th year as the Director of Video Operations for the Utah State athletics department and was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director in 2016.

Garren is responsible for managing all aspects of athletic video and editing within the athletics department, which includes training and supervising a staff of student assistants to shoot all the football practices and games along with men's and women's basketball games. His responsibilities also include the day-to-day operations of the video room, overseeing all of the digital TV needs, overseeing creative services, overseeing Mountain West Conference live streaming, and assisting with the video needs of USU's 16 intercollegiate sports. Garren also provides technical support and training for coaches and support staff.

Garren has been voted the Video Coordinator of the Year a total of six times in the Mountain West (2013, 2017) and Western Athletic Conference (2009-12) by his peers and the Collegiate Sports Video Association (CSVA).

Prior to his current role at Utah State, Garren served as the video coordinator at Idaho State in 2000 and 2001, before moving to San José State for the 2002 season. He was then an assistant football and track coach at his high school in Montrose, Colo., in 2003 before spending the 2004 and 2005 seasons as video coordinator at Idaho State.

Garren earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Idaho State in 2005.

Garren, who was born April 3, 1976 in Grand Junction, Colo., was an all-conference football player at Montrose High School. He played two seasons at Ricks College (currently BYU-Idaho) and then one season at Idaho State before beginning his video career. He and his wife Melinda have three children: Maia (19), Milly (14) and Tyler (10). Maia is a junior thrower on USU's track & field team.

MIKE WILLIAMS

Associate AD/
Head Athletics
Trainer

Utah State, 1996
20th Year

Entering his 20th year at Utah State and sixth as Associate Athletics Director/Head Athletics Trainer is Mike Williams, who was promoted from Assistant Athletics Trainer in April, 2013. In his role, Williams is responsible for the health of all of USU's student-athletes as well as teaching and supervising the graduate athletic training program.

As an athletics trainer at Utah State, Williams works primarily with the football program, while providing support for USU's other 15 NCAA Division I programs.

Williams, who was named the 2012-13 Athletic Trainer of the Year in the state of Utah, was also presented the Heartsaver Hero Award by the American Heart Association in 2013 as he began cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and used an automated external defibrillator (AED) on men's basketball player Danny Berger after he collapsed unexpectedly during a USU practice on Dec. 4, 2012.

Williams was also honored at the 2013 USU Robins Awards as he received the Gerald R. Sherratt Award, which is given to a member of the university who has displayed superior leadership skills and abilities as well as unsurpassed dedication and service to others.

Prior to working at Utah State, Williams worked for Intermountain Health Care in Logan as an athletic trainer and served as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Idaho Stampede of the Continental Basketball Association (CBA).

Williams began his athletic training career at Utah State where he received his bachelor's degree in exercise science in 1996. He then attended Idaho and graduated with a master's of science degree in sports administration in 1997.

Senior QB Kent Myers (2) was 25-of-41 passing for 219 yards and three interceptions in Utah State's season-opening 59-10 loss at No. 9 Wisconsin. Myers also rushed for eight yards on five carries.

MADISON, Wis. - Utah State scored the first 10 points of the game against Wisconsin, but the ninth-ranked Badgers overcame the early deficit and beat the Aggies 59-10 in the season opener for both teams on Friday, Sept. 1, 2017, in front of 75,324 fans at Camp Randall Stadium.

Senior RB LaJuan Hunt rushed for 27 yards on seven carries and scored on a 12-yard touchdown run with 3:47 remaining in the first quarter to give Utah State (0-1, 0-0 Mountain West) its 10-0 lead.

The eighth rushing touchdown of Hunt's career came after a fumble by Wisconsin QB Alex Hornibrook. Utah State junior LB Suli Tamaivena recovered it and returned it 13 yards down to the Badgers' 16-yard line. Just two plays later, Hunt was in the end zone.

Utah State finished with 304 yards of total offense. Senior QB Kent Myers was 25-of-41 for 219 yards, to go along with three interceptions. Hunt led the Aggies with four receptions for 14 yards, while redshirt freshman WR Jordan Nathan and sophomore WR Gerold Bright each had three catches for 23 yards apiece. Senior RB Tonny Lindsey Jr. led Utah State with 119 all-purpose yards as he rushed for 28 yards on six carries, to go along with two receptions for 16 yards, and four kickoff returns for 75 yards. Overall, 12 different Aggies caught at least one pass in the game.

Defensively, Tamaivena and senior BS Dallin Leavitt led the Aggies as both tallied seven tackles. Leavitt also added two pass breakups to go along with 0.5 tackles for loss. Senior CB Jalen Davis, junior LB Louy Compton and freshman LB Maika Magalei each notched a sack as part of Utah State's five tackles for loss. Compton also had a fumble recovery that was forced by sophomore NG Mohelika Uasike in the third quarter. Sophomore LB Mason Tobeck and junior BS Gaje Ferguson both added six stops in the game, as Tobeck also had a tackle for loss. Redshirt freshman LB David Woodward recorded the other tackle for loss for the Aggies.

Hornibrook was 15-of-23 for 244 yards and three touchdowns as the Badgers (1-0, 0-0 Big Ten) finished with 478 yards of total offense.

Sophomore PK Dominik Eberle gave the Aggies their first points of the season when he connected on a 25-yard field goal with 4:56 remaining in the opening quarter. The chip shot for Eberle capped an eight-play, 54-yard drive by Utah State.

Wisconsin finally cracked the scoreboard on a Bradrick Shaw three-yard touchdown run with just 1:12 remaining in the opening half. The score capped a 15-play, 79-yard drive by the Badgers that ate up 8:29 off the clock.

Utah State still appeared in good shape to go into halftime with the lead, but the Badgers turned Myers' first interception of the night into a 29-yard field goal by Rafael Gaglianone as time expired.

Wisconsin scored 59 unanswered points, including 28 in the third quarter alone.

Junior P Aaron Dalton had a solid game for Utah State as he punted five times for an average of 43.6 yards with a long of 55, while two of his punts were downed inside the 20-yard line.

In all, Utah State had 12 players make their first career start, while 24 Aggies saw action in their first-ever game for USU. In fact, all five of USU's starting offensive linemen were playing in their first career games for the Aggies, a first in school history.

Junior LB Suli Tamaivena (42) had seven tackles and a fumble recovery that set up USU's only touchdown against the Badgers.

Senior QB Kent Myers (2) was 24-of-26 passing for 323 yards with two touchdowns in Utah State's home-opening 51-13 win against Idaho State. Myers also rushed for 85 yards on eight carries with two more touchdowns on runs of 23 and 36 yards.

LOGAN, Utah - Utah State senior QB Kent Myers and the Utah State Aggies bounced back in a big way on Thursday, Sept. 7, 2017, in their home opener.

Myers completed 24-of-26 passes for 323 yards and two touchdowns, to go along with 85 yards rushing and two more scores on just eight carries, leading the Aggies to a dominating 51-13 victory over Idaho State on Merlin Olsen Field at Maverik Stadium.

Utah State (1-1, 0-0 Mountain West) racked up 596 yards of total offense against the Bengals (1-1, 0-0 Big Sky).

Thirteen different Aggies caught a pass in the game as Utah State finished with 341 yards through the air. Junior WR Ron'quavion Tarver led the way with seven receptions for 75 yards and a three-yard, first-quarter touchdown that gave the hosts a 17-0 lead.

Redshirt freshman WR Jordan Nathan added six receptions for 63 yards and his first career touchdown, a 19-yarder in the third quarter that put Utah State up 45-6.

Redshirt sophomore TE Dax Raymond added a career-high three receptions for a career-best 56 yards in his first career start.

Junior RB Eltoro Allen led the Aggies' ground game with 103 yards rushing and his first career touchdown on 19 carries. Utah State rushed the ball 49 times for 255 yards and three scores, including the two by Myers. Senior RB LaJuan Hunt added 51 yards on 10 carries.

Senior CB Jalen Davis highlighted the Aggies' defensive effort as he intercepted two passes, returning one of them 25 yards for a touchdown to give Utah State a 31-6 lead with 8:12 left in the second quarter. Davis also had two tackles to go along with one pass breakup in the game.

Davis became the first Aggie since 2014 to record more than one interception in a game. The last person to do it? None other than Davis. Against these same Bengals. As a true freshman in 2014, Davis snared two picks against Idaho State and returned one of them 44 yards for a score in the Aggies' 40-20 home victory.

Sophomore PK Dominik Eberle was a perfect 2-for-2 on field goal attempts as he was good from 40 and 22 yards, respectively. Eberle also made all six of his extra point attempts to finish the game with a career high 12 points scored. Fellow sophomore PK Michael Smith added a 42-yard field goal in the fourth quarter for his first career points as an Aggie.

Junior LB Chase Christiansen led Utah State with eight tackles, while senior LB Alex

Huerta and junior LB Sulii Tamaivena added six stops apiece. Redshirt freshman CB Cameron Haney added five stops, while junior DE Adewale Adeoye recorded a career high four stops, which included his first career sack, in his first-ever start. Junior LB Ofa Latu also had four tackles.

Idaho State quarterback Tanner Gueller was 17-of-30 for 190 yards and one touchdown. Running back Ty Flanagan led all rushers in the game with 106 yards and a touchdown on 25 carries. Defensively, Joe Martin led the Bengals with a game-high 20 tackles.

A week after having 12 first-time starters and 24 players appear in their first-ever USU game, Utah State had four more players get their first career start against Idaho State, while 10 others saw their first career action.

Senior CB Jalen Davis (13) tied his career high with two interceptions, returning one 25 yards for his second career touchdown. Davis also had two tackles in the game to go along with one pass breakup.

Redshirt freshman QB Jordan Love (10) was 6-of-13 passing for 171 yards and one touchdown, all of which are career highs, in Utah State's 46-10 loss at Wake Forest. Love's first career touchdown pass was a 77-yard completion, which is tied for the 26th longest pass play in school history.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Redshirt freshman QB Jordan Love passed for a career-high 171 yards and one touchdown in Utah State's 46-10 loss at Wake Forest on Saturday, Sept. 16, 2017, at BB&T Field.

Love, who entered the game in the third quarter, completed 6-of-13 passes and threw his first career touchdown, a 77-yarder to sophomore WR Gerold Bright with 10:37 remaining in the quarter – tied for the 26th longest pass play in school history.

That was Bright's lone catch of the day. Senior WR Ron'quavion Tarver led the Aggies (1-2, 0-0 Mountain West) with five receptions for 35 yards, while junior WR Zach Van Leeuwen added two catches for a career-best 77 yards, including a career-long reception of 64 yards.

Dominik Eberle accounted for Utah State's only other points on a 30-yard field goal with 53 seconds left in the third. The sophomore placekicker is now a perfect 4-for-4 on the season in field goal attempts.

Wake Forest QB John Wolford was 12-of-22 for 242 yards and two touchdowns as the Demon Deacons (3-0, 1-0 ACC) scored the first 36 points of the game. Arkeem Byrd led the ground attack for the hosts, amassing 120 yards and one touchdown on just 19 carries.

As a team, Wake Forest produced 588 yards of total offense – 297 through the air and 291 on the ground.

For the second consecutive week, the Aggies blocked a punt. This time, junior QB DJ Nelson was credited with the block in the fourth quarter. It proved to be the 12th blocked kick under fifth-year head coach Matt Wells.

Aaron Dalton also had a nice day on special teams for the Aggies. The junior punter tied his career high with four punts downed inside the 20-yard line. He punted nine times on the day and had a long of 54 yards. Furthermore, sophomore DE Jacoby Wildman rushed for 11 yards on a second quarter fake punt, picking up the first down for Utah State. Wildman also recorded a career-high four tackles on defense.

Senior Kent Myers started the game at quarterback and completed 9-of-23 passes for 54 yards and one interception. As a team, the Aggies recorded 267 yards of total offense, including just 42 yards on the ground as junior RB Eltoro Allen had a season-best 13 carries for 20 yards.

Defensively, junior BS Gaje Ferguson led the Aggies with a season-high 10 tackles, his third career double-digit tackle game. Senior CB Jalen Davis tied his career high with three pass breakups, including one in the end zone that prevented a touchdown.

Senior BS Dallin Leavitt had a season-high nine tackles, junior LB Suli Tamaivena had a season-high eight tackles and junior NG Gasetoto Schuster added a career-high six tackles and his first career forced fumble. Junior DE Adewale Adeoye added a career-best five stops as six different Aggie defenders posted a career-high in tackles on the day.

As a team, Utah State recorded seven tackles for loss, including a season-high 1.5 by junior LB Ofa Latu. He also tallied six tackles on the afternoon.

Senior CB Jalen Davis (13) tied his career high with three pass breakups and added one tackle against the Demon Deacons.

Senior QB Kent Myers (2) accounted for 265 yards of total offense and a career-high-tying four touchdowns in Utah State's 61-10 road win at San José State. Myers was 18-of-24 passing for 181 yards and two touchdowns, and rushed for 84 yards on 15 carries and two more scores.

SAN JOSE, Calif. - Senior QB Kent Myers accounted for 265 yards of total offense and a career-high-tying four touchdowns as Utah State opened Mountain West play with a dominating 61-10 win over San José State on Saturday, Sept. 23, 2017, at CEFCU Stadium.

With the victory, the Aggies (2-2, 1-0 Mountain West) extended their winning streak to seven over the Spartans (1-4, 0-1 MW), including four in a row on the road.

Myers completed 18-of-24 passes for 181 yards and two touchdowns, to go along with 84 rushing yards and two more scores. He scored on a career-long 68-yard run in the third quarter to give the Aggies their largest lead of the game, 55-0.

Thirteen different Aggies caught a pass in the game, led by junior WR Ron'quavion Tarver, who had five receptions for 42 yards and a touchdown. Redshirt freshman WR Jordan Nathan also caught five passes for 34 yards. Senior WR Braelon Roberts and sophomore WR Gerold Bright were on the receiving end of Myers' touchdown passes. Roberts hauled in a 19-yarder, while Bright went for 43 yards on a fourth-and-3 play.

Junior RB Eltoro Allen led Utah State's ground game with 89 yards and 18 carries. As a team, the Aggies finished with 318 yards on 57 carries, averaging 5.6 yards per rush. Senior RB LaJuan Hunt added 63 yards on 10 carries, including a 29-yard touchdown run to open the game's scoring with 9:26 to go in the first quarter.

Utah State racked up 589 yards of total offense, including 307 in the first half alone, on an eye-popping 98 plays. The Aggies led 38-0 at intermission.

Even the defense got into the scoring act as senior CB Jalen Davis sacked Josh Love, causing the Spartans' quarterback to fumble. Freshman LB Maika Magalei scooped up the ball and returned it 38 yards, making it 28-0 for the Aggies with 10:26 left in the second.

On the ensuing kickoff, SJSU fumbled a pooch kick by Utah State sophomore PK Dominik Eberle and Tarver recovered it at the Spartans' 28-yard line. Eight plays later, the Aggies were in the end zone again as redshirt freshman QB Jordan Love threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to Tarver, giving the visitors a 35-0 lead.

Another special teams play set up Utah State's final score of the half as junior LB Louy Compton blocked a punt, which junior QB DJ Nelson recovered. A week ago at Wake Forest, Nelson blocked a punt of his own.

The Aggies cashed in on the block as Eberle connected on a 23-yard field goal. Later in the third quarter, Eberle drilled a career-long 52-yarder that gave USU a 48-0 lead.

Eberle was a perfect 4-for-4 on field goals as he made good on a 20- and 27-yarder in the fourth quarter. His 19 points set a school record for points in a game by a kicker.

Defensively, the Aggies limited the Spartans to just 162 yards of total offense on 59 plays. All 10 of San José State's points came courtesy of two Aggie turnovers, including a 68-yard interception return for a touchdown by Jermaine Kelly in the third quarter.

Junior LB Chase Christiansen led Utah State with eight tackles, to go along with a forced fumble. Redshirt freshman S Baron Gajkowski had three tackles, including 1.0 sacks, to go along with one forced fumble, a fumble recovery and an interception.

Sophomore DE Jacoby Wildman finished with five tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss and 1.0 sacks, and a fumble recovery. The Aggies forced five turnovers in the game, the most since the eight they had against Boise State during the 2015 season.

Redshirt freshman S Baron Gajkowski (15) had an interception, forced and recovered a fumble, and a sack as part of his three tackles against the Spartans.

Senior CB Jalen Davis (13) had a career-high three interceptions and returned two of them for touchdowns from 30 and 50 yards, respectively, in Utah State's 40-24 home win against BYU. Davis added five tackles and one pass breakup against the Cougars.

LOGAN, Utah - Utah State senior CB Jalen Davis intercepted a career-high three passes and returned two of them for touchdowns as USU closed out the non-conference portion of its schedule with a 40-24 home win over BYU on Friday, Sept. 29, 2017, at Maverik Stadium.

Davis, who set a school record with his two pick-sixes, now has five interceptions on the season and 11 in his career, which is tied with three other players for the fourth-most in school history. Furthermore, the three picks tied a Mountain West record.

Senior QB Kent Myers was 16-of-27 passing for 176 yards and two touchdowns, to go along with 33 yards rushing, including a 19-yard touchdown run that gave the Aggies (3-2, 1-0 Mountain West) a 33-21 lead with 14:52 to go in the fourth quarter.

Utah State, which rallied from 14 points down, regained possession of the Old Wagon Wheel, the traveling trophy between the two schools. That 14-point deficit overcome is USU's largest since rallying from 20 points down (27-7) against Nevada in 2015.

Davis' three interceptions were a part of seven takeaways by the Aggies, including fumble recoveries by junior linebackers Derek Larsen and Suli Tamaivena, and redshirt freshman CB Ja'Marcus Ingram. Additionally, senior BS Dallin Leavitt, who began his collegiate career at BYU, had an interception, seven tackles and a pass breakup.

Freshman RB Ula Tolutao led BYU (1-4) with 102 yards rushing on 21 carries, while quarterbacks Koy Detmer Jr. and Beau Hoge combined to go 12-of-29 for 186 yards and two touchdowns, to go along with four interceptions.

Junior WR Ron'quavion Tarver led all receivers in the game with six receptions for 76 yards, including a 36-yard touchdown pass from Myers that tied the game at 21-all with 1:11 remaining in the first half.

Senior RB LaJuan Hunt led Utah State's ground game with 65 yards on 18 carries.

Tamaivena recorded a career- and game-high 13 tackles for the Aggies, while fellow junior LB Chase Christiansen added a career-best 10 stops, including 1.0 tackles for loss, and a forced fumble.

Utah State took the opening kickoff and drove 75 yards in nine plays, scoring on a 32-yard touchdown pass from Myers to redshirt sophomore TE Dax Raymond and the Aggies led 7-0 with 11:40 left in the first quarter.

However, the tide turned in favor of the Cougars after Micah Hannemann intercepted a pass by Myers and returned it 46 yards for a touchdown. BYU ended up reeling off 21 unanswered points to open a 21-7 lead with 13:30 left in the second quarter.

But, just as soon as the Cougars grabbed the momentum, the Aggies got it back - courtesy of their own pick-six. Davis intercepted a pass by Hoge and returned it 30 yards for a touchdown, bringing USU to within 21-14 with 11:02 left in the second.

After Leavitt intercepted a pass by Detmer, the Aggies turned the pick into three more points. Sophomore PK Dominik Eberle connected from 32 yards out to send Utah State into the locker room with a 24-21 lead.

BYU turned it over again on its very first drive of the second half. USU senior DE Ian Togliai forced the fumble and Ingram recovered it. The Aggies then scored on a 40-yard field goal by Eberle to make it 27-21 with 12:56 to go in the third.

After BYU pulled within 33-24 following a 37-yard field goal with 12:28 to go, Davis sealed it for the Aggies with 50-yard interception return for a touchdown with 3:00 to go.

Senior QB Kent Myers (2) was 16-of-27 passing for 176 yards with two touchdowns, and rushed for 33 yards on 13 carries with another score against BYU.

Senior RB LaJuan Hunt (21) had his first receiving touchdown of the season on a 22-yard catch in Utah State's 27-14 home loss to Colorado State. Hunt tied his career high with four receptions in the game for 30 yards, while carrying the ball eight times for 19 yards.

LOGAN, Utah - Utah State LB Suli Tamaivena and BS Gaje Ferguson combined for 27 tackles, and backup QB DJ Nelson scored the first touchdown of his career on a blocked punt, but it still wasn't enough in the Aggies' 27-14 Mountain West loss to Colorado State on Saturday, Oct. 7, 2017, on Merlin Olsen Field at Maverik Stadium.

Tamaivena, a junior, recorded a career-best 14 tackles, while Ferguson, also a junior, added a career-high 13 stops for Utah State (3-3, 1-1 MW), which had its two-game winning streak snapped. Tamaivena also had two quarterback hurries and 0.5 tackles for loss in the game. Sophomore DE Jacoby Wildman and sophomore LB Dalton Baker both added a career-high seven tackles, while senior CB Jalen Davis had a season-high six stops to go along with one pass breakup.

In all, Utah State finished the game with six tackles for loss as sophomore NG Christopher 'Unga had a career-high 1.5 TFL's, while senior DE Ian Togiai, junior NG Gasetoto Schuster, junior LB Chase Christiansen and sophomore CB Cameron Haney each added 1.0 TFL. Schuster also added a forced fumble in the contest.

Colorado State limited the Aggies to just 212 yards of total offense. Senior QB Kent Myers was 17-of-29 passing for 152 yards, including a 22-yard touchdown pass to senior RB LaJuan Hunt that pulled the home team to within 27-14 with 1:37 to go in the game. Myers finished the game with a career-high-tying 16 carries, but netted just six yards, as he was sacked seven times on the day.

Hunt led Utah State in rushing with 19 yards on eight carries. He matched his career high in catches with four for 30 yards. Redshirt sophomore TE Dax Raymond was the Aggies' top receiver on the day with a career-best six catches for 45 yards, while junior RB Elforo Allen had five receptions for 45 yards, both career highs.

Following Hunt's first touchdown reception since the second game of the 2015 campaign, Utah State successfully converted the ensuing on-side kick. Sophomore PK Dominik Eberle got the perfect bounce on his kick and Hunt recovered it.

However, Colorado State did not allow the Aggies to move the ball and Utah State turned it over on downs with 1:09 remaining.

Rams QB Nick Stevens completed 22-of-31 passes for 293 yards and two touchdowns to help Colorado State (4-2, 2-0 Mountain West) remain perfect in the Mountain Division of the conference.

Colorado State scored the first 24 points of the game and it was a special teams play that finally got Utah State on the board. Nelson took matters into his own hands as he blocked a punt by the Rams' Ryan Stonehouse, scooped it up and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown, pulling the Aggies to within 24-7 with 6:08 left until halftime.

Neither team committed a turnover in the game as Utah State had forced 12 takeaways in its previous two outings. For USU, it was the first time in 10 games it had not committed a turnover on offense.

Junior P Aaron Dalton also had a solid day on special teams for Utah State as he punted 10 times for an average of 42.9, including a long of 54 yards and three of his punts were downed inside the 20-yard line.

Junior LB Suli Tamaivena (42) had a career-high 14 tackles, including 0.5 tackles for loss, and two quarterback hurries against the Rams.

Senior WR Braelon Roberts (88) had a career-high-tying four receptions for a career-best 50 yards and caught a career-long 29-yard pass for his third-career touchdown in Utah State's 28-23 home loss to Wyoming.

LOGAN, Utah - Utah State junior QB DJ Nelson scored his second special teams touchdown in as many weeks, giving the Aggies a 23-16 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Wyoming scored the final 12 points to stun the hosts on Homecoming, 28-23, in front of 22,234 fans on Saturday, Oct. 14, 2017, on Merlin Olsen Field at Maverik Stadium.

Wyoming (4-2, 2-0 Mountain West) pulled within 23-19 with 8:51 left on a 29-yard field goal by Cooper Rothe, then took the lead for good five minutes later on a 28-yard touchdown pass from Josh Allen to C.J. Johnson.

Down 26-23 with 3:38 to go, Utah State (3-4, 1-2 MW) took over on its own 34-yard line following a 34-yard kickoff return by freshman WR Savon Scarver. In two plays, the Aggies had crossed midfield courtesy of 10- and 7-yard runs, respectively, by senior RB Lajuan Hunt. However, Hunt fumbled the third play of the series and Wyoming's Cassh Maluia recovered it. The fumble was one of five turnovers the Aggies had on the day.

Utah State's defense forced Wyoming to go three-and-out, but Cowboys punter Tim Zaleski pinned the Aggies on their own 7-yard line with 49 seconds left. Two plays later, Utah State senior QB Kent Myers was tackled in the end zone for a safety, giving Wyoming its final margin of victory.

Myers and redshirt freshman QB Jordan Love split time under center, going a combined 19-of-38 for 203 yards and three interceptions.

Redshirt sophomore TE Dax Raymond led the Aggies with five catches for a career-best 72 yards, while senior WR Braelon Roberts tied his career high with four catches for a career-best 50 yards and a touchdown.

Hunt led all rushers in the game with 73 yards on 18 carries. He also caught a career-high-tying four passes for 19 yards.

For the third consecutive week, junior LB Suli Tamaivena recorded double-digit tackles with a career-high-tying 14 stops. In the last three games alone, he has racked up 41 tackles.

Nelson's touchdown came on a fake field goal. As the team's holder, he kept the snap from senior LS Emmett Odegard and ran four yards for the score, giving the hosts a 23-16 lead with 12:40 to go.

A week ago against Colorado State, Nelson returned his own blocked punt 43 yards for his first career touchdown.

Following a 1-yard touchdown run by Allen on fourth-and-goal that gave Wyoming a 9-6 lead, Utah State went back in front on the very next possession as junior WR Aaren Vaughns threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Roberts on a reverse. The score gave Utah State a 13-9 lead with 6:41 remaining in the first half.

Vaughns had a second quarter to remember as he also had a 29-yard reception and 14-yard run. He finished the game with two catches for 46 yards.

Junior PK Dominik Eberle was a perfect 3-for-3 on field goals in the first half. He made good from 45 and 31 yards, respectively, in the first quarter, and added a 49-yarder just before the half to give the Aggies a 16-9 lead at the break.

Eberle's first field goal of the day was set up courtesy of an interception by senior BS Dallin Leavitt.

Junior LB Suli Tamaivena (42) had a career-high-tying 14 tackles, including a career-best 2.0 sacks, and one pass breakup against the Cowboys.

Redshirt freshman QB Jordan Love (10) was 19-of-27 passing for 316 yards and two touchdowns in his first career start as Utah State posted a 52-28 Mountain West road win at UNLV. Love also rushed for 42 yards on eight carries and another score.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - Redshirt freshman QB Jordan Love made his first career start and passed for 316 yards and two touchdowns to lead Utah State to a come-from-behind 52-28 victory over UNLV on Saturday, Oct. 21, 2017, in front of 18,157 fans at Sam Boyd Stadium.

Love finished the game by completing 19-of-27 passes. He also had 42 yards rushing on eight carries, including a 5-yard touchdown run with 6:38 left in the third quarter to give the Aggies the lead for good, 35-28.

Senior RB LaJuan Hunt rushed for 101 yards and three touchdowns as Utah State (4-4, 2-2 Mountain West) rallied back from three separate 14-point deficits in the first half. The Aggies racked up 588 yards of total offense – the third-most this season and 17th-most in school history.

Utah State, which scored 38 unanswered points, gained 323 yards through the air and churned out 265 more on the ground, both of which are the second most in a game this season. Redshirt sophomore TE Dax Raymond led USU with five receptions for 41 yards.

Love threw touchdown passes of 70 and 75 yards, respectively, to become the first Aggie signal caller to throw three touchdown passes of 70 or more yards in a season since 2014. His other 70-plus-yarder this year was at Wake Forest. Furthermore, the last time the Aggies had two 70-yard scoring plays in the same game was in 2012 against New Mexico State.

Freshman WR Savon Scarver, a native of Las Vegas, finished with 185 all-purpose yards, including a 70-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter. He also returned three kickoffs for 108 yards, including a long of 68.

Redshirt freshman WR Jordan Nathan tallied 184 all-purpose yards – 92 receiving and 92 on a pair of punt returns, including a 70-yarder.

Defensively, junior LB Suli Tamaivena led the Aggies with 10 tackles, including 1.0 sacks. It was his fourth consecutive double-digit tackle outing. Senior BS Dallin Leavitt added eight stops and an interception, while junior CB Deante Fortenberry had five tackles and a fumble recovery. Sophomore CB Cameron Haney had a career-high three pass breakups, to go along with three tackles, and junior LB Ofa Latu added an interception.

UNLV (2-5, 1-3), losers of three in a row, finished with 460 yards of total offense. Running back Lexington Thomas had 161 yards rushing and two touchdowns on 19 carries, helping the Rebels amass 375 yards on the ground.

Trailing 14-0 late in the first quarter, Scarver caught his first career touchdown on a 70-yard pass from Love to cut the deficit in half. Hunt scored on a 13-yard run with 12:51 left in the second, pulling the Aggies to within 21-14 with 12:51 remaining in the quarter.

UNLV went up by 14 again on a 7-yard touchdown run by quarterback Armani Rogers, but USU scored a pair of touchdowns less than four minutes apart to pull even. Nathan hauled in a 75-yard touchdown pass from Love to make it 28-21, while Hunt added his second touchdown on a 1-yard run as the Aggies pulled even at 28 with 2:28 left in the quarter.

After Love's go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter, Hunt scored on a 30-yard run early in the fourth for his third and final score, while sophomore PK Dominik Eberle booted a 24-yard field goal to make it 45-28. The Aggies put the exclamation point on the victory with a 7-yard touchdown run by junior RB Justen Hervey with less than a minute to go.

Junior LB Suli Tamaivena (42) had 10 tackles, which included 1.0 sacks, against the Rebels.

Redshirt freshman QB Jordan Love (10) was 17-of-32 passing for 168 yards and one touchdown in Utah State's 41-14 Mountain West home loss to Boise State. Love also rushed for 14 yards on four carries in the game.

LOGAN, Utah - Utah State allowed touchdowns on Boise State's first two drives of the game and could not dig out of the early hole as the Aggies lost 41-14 on Saturday, Oct. 28, 2017, on Merlin Olsen Field at Maverik Stadium.

Redshirt freshman QB Jordan Love completed 17-of-32 passes for 168 yards and one touchdown, while senior RB LaJuan Hunt rushed for 31 yards and another score for Utah State (4-5, 2-3 Mountain West).

Boise State (6-2, 4-0) held the Aggies to just 279 yards of total offense – 186 through the air and 93 on the ground.

Redshirt sophomore TE Dax Raymond led Utah State with five receptions for 30 yards. Junior WR Ron'quavion Tarver added three catches for 77 yards, including a 2-yard touchdown pass from Love that pulled the Aggies to within 14-7 with less than a minute left in the first quarter. Redshirt freshman WR Jordan Nathan added two receptions for 45 yards, while six other Aggies caught at least one pass.

Boise State QB Brett Rypien completed 19-of-27 passes for 260 yards and three touchdowns. His backup, Montell Cozart, was 5-of-7 for 110 yards and two more scores for the Broncos, who finished with 533 total yards.

Redshirt freshman S Baron Gajkowski recorded a game- and career-high 11 tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss, which was also a career high. Junior LB Suli Tamaivena finished in double-digit tackles for the fifth straight game as he had 10 stops, including 0.5 tackles for loss. Tamaivena also had one of the Aggies' three quarterback hurries.

Junior CB Deante Fortenberry has his best game as an Aggie as he recorded a season-high seven tackles, which included a season-best 2.0 sacks and 3.0 tackles for loss. Sophomore DE Jacoby Wildman also had his best game as an Aggie with a career-high nine stops, while junior LB Ofa Latu tied his season-high with six tackles, which included his first career sack.

Junior DE Adewale Adeoye had four tackles, which included 0.5 tackles for loss, and redshirt freshman DE Logan Lee also had four tackles and 0.5 tackles for loss in his first career start. Junior S Gaje Ferguson also had 0.5 tackles for loss as part of his seven stops as Utah State's defense finished the game with 3.0 sacks and 8.0 tackles for loss.

The Broncos led 28-7 at halftime and scored a touchdown on their first series of the third quarter to open up a 28-point cushion.

Utah State answered back, though, as Hunt scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to make it 35-14 with 6:29 remaining in the third.

After the defense forced Boise State to go three-and-out on the ensuing possession, Love drove the Aggies to the Broncos' 14-yard line. However, that's as close as Utah State would get to the end zone as BSU forced the Aggies to turn the ball over on downs.

Freshman RB Tre Miller led Utah State with 40 yards rushing on seven carries, while his Boise State counterpart, Alex Mattison, carried the ball 19 times for 110 yards.

Offensively, Utah State did not allow a sack for the first time this season as Boise State entered the game averaging 3.0 sacks per game to lead the Mountain West and rank 18th nationally.

Redshirt freshman S Baron Gajkowski (15) had a season-high 11 tackles, which included a season-best 1.5 tackles for loss, against the Broncos.

Senior RB Lajuan Hunt (21) rushed for 117 yards on 14 carries and scored two touchdowns, including one on a career-long 65-yard run, in Utah State's 24-10 Mountain West road win at New Mexico. Hunt also had two receptions in the game for two yards.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Senior RB LaJuan Hunt rushed for 117 yards and two touchdowns, and Utah State's defense forced four turnovers, as the Aggies captured another double-digit Mountain West victory on the road, 24-10, against New Mexico on Saturday, Nov. 4, 2017, in front of 19,293 fans at Dreamstyle Stadium.

The Aggies (5-5, 3-3 MW) have won three consecutive games on the road by an average of 29.7 points per game. It is the first time since the 2012 season that Utah State has won three straight road games by double digits.

Hunt eclipsed the 100-yard plateau for the third time in his career and second time this season, doing so on just 14 carries against the Lobos (3-6, 1-5 MW). He averaged 8.4 yards per rush.

For the second consecutive game, Utah State did not allow a sack.

The Aggies held the ball for just 20:53, gaining 243 yards of total offense. Conversely, New Mexico had 340 yards of offense and crossed midfield on 10 of their 13 possessions, including four trips into the red zone, but did not score any points inside the 20-yard line.

Defensively, junior BS Gaje Ferguson led the way with a game-high eight tackles, including his first career sack. Redshirt freshman LB Kevin Meitzenheimer added a career-best seven stops.

Utah State's defense forced four fumbles in the first half - two each by sophomore DE Devon Anderson and sophomore LB Justus Te'i. The Aggies recovered three of them, including one by Anderson and Te'i, and the other by sophomore CB Cameron Haney.

Anderson finished with a career-best seven tackles, while Te'i's two forced fumbles were both inside the 10-yard line.

The Aggies led 14-3 at halftime courtesy of Hunt's two touchdowns.

The native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., gave Utah State a 7-0 advantage when he scored on a 1-yard run with 10 seconds left in the first quarter. Following a 42-yard field goal by New Mexico's Jason Sanders, Hunt hit paydirt again from 65 yards out - a career-long run - making it 14-3 with 1:44 remaining in the opening half.

Sophomore PK Dominik Eberle gave Utah State a 17-3 third-quarter lead after nailing a 28-yard field goal. The nation's leader in field goal percentage is now 15-of-16 on the year (93.8 percent).

Utah State's defense put the exclamation point on the victory when redshirt freshman LB David Woodward recovered a fumble and returned it 70 yards for a touchdown to give the visitors a 24-3 lead with 8:56 to go in the game. It was the fifth defensive score of the season for Utah State and its sixth non-offensive touchdown. Woodward ended his day with a career-high five tackles.

Redshirt freshman QB Jordan Love was 13-of-24 passing for 114 yards, while junior WR Ron'quavion Tarver had two receptions for a team-best 40 yards. Junior WR Aaren Vaughns, redshirt sophomore TE Dax Raymond, redshirt freshman WR Jordan Nathan, freshman WR Savon Scarver and Hunt also had two receptions each.

On special teams, junior P Aaron Dalton averaged 46.5 yards on six punts, including a season-long of 63 yards.

Sophomore DE Devon Anderson (91) had seven tackles, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery, all career highs, against the Lobos.

Senior RB Lajuan Hunt (21) rushed for 111 yards on 13 carries and scored on a 48-yard run in Utah State's 38-0 Mountain West home win against Hawai'i. Hunt also had one reception in the game for 26 yards.

LOGAN, Utah - With bowl eligibility on the line, Utah State played its best game of the season and recorded its first shutout in four years with a 38-0 drubbing of Hawai'i on Senior Day on Saturday, Nov. 18, 2017, on Merlin Olsen Field at Maverik Stadium.

With the win, Utah State improves to 6-5 on the season and 4-3 in Mountain West play and is bowl eligible for the sixth time in the last seven seasons. Hawai'i, losers of four straight and eight of its last nine, falls to 3-8 overall and 1-7 in league play.

Utah State was dominant on both sides of the ball as it recorded 475 yards of total offense, including 311 rushing yards, its second-most in a game this season. USU was also 5-of-11 on third down and scored 30-plus points for the fifth time this season, despite possessing the ball for just 21:35, its second-lowest possession time this season.

Defensively, Utah State limited Hawai'i to just 318 yards, 104.8 yards under its season average, as it had 172 rushing yards and 146 passing yards. USU also held UH scoreless on three trips inside its red zone as the Rainbow Warriors missed a 41-yard field goal, turned it over on downs and fumbled on USU's 1-yard line. Hawai'i was also just 5-of-19 on third down and 1-of-5 on fourth down in the game.

Senior RB Lajuan Hunt led Utah State as he gained 111 yards on just 13 carries and one touchdown for his second-straight 100-yard rushing game. Sophomore WR Gerold Bright added 93 rushing yards on just eight carries and a touchdown, while senior WR Braelon Roberts had a career-best 55 receiving yards on two receptions and a touchdown.

After missing a 46-yard field goal on its opening series, Utah State scored touchdowns on its next three drives to take a 21-0 lead into halftime. Bright started the scoring on a career-long 60-yard run as the Aggies took just three plays and 0:38 to cover 66 yards.

Redshirt freshman QB Jordan Love connected with junior WR Ron'quavion Tarver for USU's second touchdown on a 10-yard pass in a drive that went 67 yards in eight plays and took 2:17 off the clock. Love finished the game 10-of-16 passing for 110 yards with one touchdown and one interception, while Tarver had two catches for 14 yards.

Leading 14-0 after the first quarter, senior QB Kent Myers orchestrated a 4-play, 75-yard drive that took just 0:54 and culminated in a 49-yard touchdown pass to Roberts.

Utah State committed its only turnover of the game late in the first half on a Love interception, but quickly got the ball back as junior BS Gaje Ferguson stripped Diocemy Saint Juste at the 1-yard line and the fumble was recovered by sophomore LB Justus Te'i.

After forcing Hawai'i to a three-and-out on its first series of the second half, Utah State scored on its first offensive play of the half as Hunt darted into the end zone from 48 yards out to push its lead to 28-0.

Love added another touchdown late in the third quarter on a 15-yard run to cap a 3-play, 53-yard drive that took just 1:02 to make the score 35-0. Sophomore PK Dominik Eberle added a 20-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter and Utah State coasted to the 38-0 win.

Defensively, Utah State recorded 4.0 sacks, 7.0 tackles for loss and six pass breakups in the game. Ferguson led the Aggie defense with eight stops and a forced fumble, while senior BS Dallin Leavitt had nine tackles. Junior DE Adewale Adeoye recorded a career-high six tackles and forced his first career fumble, while senior CB Jalen Davis had a career-high four pass breakups to go along with one sack as part of his three tackles.

Junior BS Gaje Ferguson (23) had eight tackles and forced his first career fumble on the goal line against the Rainbow Warriors.

Redshirt freshman QB Jordan Love (10) was 17-of-30 passing for 284 yards and a career-high-tying two touchdowns in Utah State's 38-35 Mountain West road loss at Air Force. Love also carried the ball six times for 32 yards.

USAFA, Colo. - Utah State rallied twice in the fourth quarter against Air Force. Unfortunately for the Aggies (6-6, 4-4 MW), they needed a third, but didn't get it as the Falcons (5-7, 4-4 MW) scored with 1:38 remaining in the game to pull out a wild 38-35 victory on Saturday, Nov. 25, 2017, at Falcon Stadium.

Redshirt freshman QB Jordan Love completed 17-of-30 passes for 284 yards and a career-high-tying two touchdowns to lead Utah State.

Air Force QB Isaiah Sanders rushed for 203 yards and three touchdowns on 44 carries. His final score of the night was from 10 yards out with 1:38 to go in the fourth quarter, giving the Falcons their final margin of victory.

There was still enough time on the clock for Utah State to drive down the field for a potential game-winning touchdown or game-tying field goal. The Aggies took over on their own 25 with 1:38 to go and following a 33-yard pass to senior WR Braelon Roberts, they were across midfield at the Falcons' 42.

Love's next four pass attempts fell incomplete, though, and Utah State turned the ball over on downs.

Utah State trailed 24-21 entering the fourth, but a 24-yard touchdown pass from Love to junior WR Ron'quavion Tarver put the Aggies back on top. The six-play, 99-yard scoring drive was set up by the defense, when redshirt freshman LB Kevin Meitzenheimer stopped Sanders on a fourth-and-goal play from the 1.

The Falcons regained the lead 3 1/2 minutes later when they recovered a fumble in the end zone, but again, the Aggies rallied. Love found Tarver for the second time in the quarter, this time from 22 yards out, to make it 35-31 with 5:28 to go.

Too much time was left on the clock for Air Force, which drove 75 yards on 13 plays for the game-winning touchdown.

Sophomore WR Gerold Bright led the Aggies in rushing with a career-best 102 yards on a career-high-tying nine carries, including a career-long 75-yard touchdown run that gave Utah State a 14-3 lead midway through the opening quarter.

Junior WR Aaren Vaughns added a career-high 69 yards rushing and one touchdown on two carries. He scored on a 71-yard reverse less than two minutes into the first quarter for the game's first touchdown.

Senior RB LaJuan Hunt produced the Aggies' third rushing touchdown of the first half on an 11-yard run with 5:56 to go in the second quarter, giving Utah State a 21-10 lead.

It appeared as if the Aggies would head into the locker room with that 11-point advantage, but the Falcons drove 91 yards on 11 plays, capped by Sanders' 2-yard touchdown run with four seconds remaining until the break.

Tarver led Utah State in receiving with four catches for 86 yards, while Roberts finished with three receptions for a career-best 64 yards.

As a team, the Aggies gained 521 yards of total offense - 284 through the air and 237 on the ground. Conversely, Air Force had 440 yards of offense, the majority of which came on the ground to the tune of 407 yards.

Redshirt freshman LB David Woodward led Utah State's defensive effort with a career-high 13 tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss. Junior LB Suli Tamaivena added 11 stops.

Redshirt freshman LB David Woodward (9) had a career-high 13 tackles, which included 1.0 tackles for loss, against the Falcons.

Senior RB LaJuan Hunt (21) rushed for a season-high 133 yards on 20 carries with one touchdown in Utah State's 26-20 overtime loss to New Mexico State in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl. Hunt added three receptions for 25 yards in the game.

TUCSON, Ariz. - Senior RB LaJuan Hunt capped his Utah State (6-7) career by rushing for 133 yards – the most yardage by an Aggie this season – and one touchdown on 20 carries in Utah State's 26-20 overtime loss to New Mexico State in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl, held here at Arizona Stadium on Friday, Dec. 29, 2017.

Hunt, who finished his career with 1,846 yards rushing, the 11th-most in school history, and 18 touchdowns, which is tied for the 10th-most, scored on a 1-yard run with 13:28 remaining in the fourth quarter to give the designated home team a 20-13 lead.

New Mexico State RB Larry Rose III scored the game-winning touchdown in overtime on a 21-yard run after Utah State sophomore PK Dominik Eberle hit the right upright from 29 yards out.

New Mexico State (7-6) tied it at 20-apiece on an 11-yard touchdown pass from Tyler Rogers to Jaleel Scott with 6:31 remaining. Rogers completed 29-of-54 passes for 191 yards. Rose led the NewMags in both rushing and receiving as he had 142 yards on 16 carries on the ground, to go along with six receptions for 48 yards.

New Mexico State entered the game ranked fourth in the nation averaging 352.6 passing yards per game, but Utah State limited the NewMags to 191 yards – 161.6 below their season average.

The navy-clad Aggies shined defensively as they forced three turnovers, including interceptions by redshirt freshman LB David Woodward and senior BS Dallin Leavitt, along with a fumble recovery by junior LB Chase Christiansen. Christiansen led USU with eight tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss. Leavitt added seven stops, while Woodward had four stops and a career-best three pass breakups.

Redshirt freshman QB Jordan Love was 25-of-44, both of which are career-highs, for 254 yards. His favorite target was junior WR Ron'quavion Tarver, who caught eight passes for 97 yards.

Utah State had numerous chances to put more points on the board, but four missed field goals and a turnover in the red zone after having a first-and-goal at the 1-yard line spelled doom.

The first half started with a bang as the two teams combined to score 17 points in less than a one-minute span, courtesy of a field goal and back-to-back kickoff returns for touchdowns.

New Mexico State's Dylan Brown opened the scoring with a 23-yard field goal to give the designated visitors a 3-0 lead with 11:15 remaining in the first quarter. On the ensuing kickoff, freshman WR Savon Scarver returned the kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown, making it 7-3 for USU just 14 seconds later.

Scarver's kickoff return for a touchdown was the first-ever in a bowl game for Utah State and tied for the sixth-longest in school history.

However, USU's lead was short-lived as NMSU returned the next kickoff 100 yards, giving the white-clad Aggies a 10-7 lead.

Those were the only touchdowns of the first half, though. Eberle tied the score at 10-all with a 35-yard field goal, then New Mexico State regained the lead on a 33-yard field goal.

Brown booted a 33-yard field goal to give the NewMags a 13-10 lead with 11:35 left in the half, but Eberle countered with a 30-yard field goal as time expired on the second quarter, sending the two teams into the break deadlocked at 13-apiece.

Junior LB Chase Christiansen (48) had eight tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss, and one fumble recovery against NMSU.

Utah State's 1946 football team played in the school's first-ever bowl as it lost to San Jose State, 20-0, in the Raisin Bowl played in Fresno, Calif., on Jan. 1, 1947. USU finished the 1946 season with a 7-2-1 record and shared the Skyline Conference Championship with a 4-1-1 league mark.

FRESNO, Calif. - A powerful San José State college grid team shut out Utah State, 20-0, in the second annual Raisin Bowl at Fresno, Calif.

San José State devastated the Aggies, 16-7, in first downs, 177-74 in yards rushing, and 110-49 in yards passing.

Utah State's all-conference OC, Ralph Maughan, could not offset San Jose's HBs Bert Robinson and Babe Nomura. San Jose State did all of its scoring in the second and third quarters. Bill Schembel, a substitute halfback, passed to quarterback Bill Jackson for the opening touchdown, then took an aerial from Jackson for score number two. Bill Rhyne, another substitute halfback, crossed the goal line from the 1-yard line scoring the third touchdown.

Through the entire game, Utah State threatened to score twice, once in the first quarter when it reached the San José 1-yard line, and again at the end of the fourth quarter when the Aggies were again within a yard of the goal. Both attempts were denied and Utah State was confined to its own territory throughout most of the game.

Utah State's 1947 football team made it back-to-back bowl appearances as it lost to Pacific, 35-21, in the Lodi Grape Bowl. USU went 6-5-0 during the season and finished third in the Skyline Conference with a 3-3-0 record.

LODI, Calif. - All-American quarterback Eddie LeBaron led his Pacific Tigers onto victory, defeating the Utah State Aggies, 35-21, in Lodi's inaugural Grape Bowl football game.

Only six minutes into the game, Pacific fullback Harry Kane scored on a 72-yard run. Utah State answered with a 70-yard drive to land on Pacific's 1-yard line. Right HB John Worley fumbled, allowing halfback Bruce Orvis to recover the ball and run it back 99 yards for Pacific's second score. Early in the second quarter, LeBaron scored on a quarterback sneak from the one, and then threw for a 14-yard touchdown pass to left end John Rohde a few minutes later. Sub halfback Wayne Hardin completed all five conversion attempts.

Utah State came back from halftime facing a 28-0 deficit. QBs John Caputo and John Sorensen helped the Aggies with two touchdowns, and in the final period, HB Ernie Groll intercepted a long pass by LeBaron on the Pacific 42 and ran it back into the end zone. FB Buss Williams converted two of the three attempts.

Utah State ran up 15 first downs against the College of Pacific's 17. On the ground the Tigers gained 278 yards against the Aggies' 85.

The 1960 Utah State football team finished the season with a 9-2-0 record and won its first of two-straight co-Skyline Conference Championships.

EL PASO, TEXAS - New Mexico State, in winning its 15th-straight game, overcame Utah State, 20-13, in a bruising Sun Bowl football battle. USU owned a 7-0 lead in the first quarter when HB Tom Larscheid ran for 13 yards and a touchdown. The score was set up with a 53-yard punt return by Ernie Reese, which set a Sun Bowl record.

New Mexico State answered right back in the second quarter. Quarterback Charley Johnson's 3-yard pitch to Pervis Atkins along with Atkins' subsequent kick, tied the score in the second period.

USU then regained the lead by driving 80 yards in 15 plays with Dolph Camilli scoring from the 11. New Mexico State took the lead for the first time in the third quarter when Bob Gaiters ran for a 32-yard touchdown. Johnson led the offense by completing 18-of-26 passes, including two for touchdowns.

Utah State's final effort for victory was denied in the fourth quarter when FB Doug Mayberry was stopped short of a first down on a fourth down play. New Mexico State then ran out the clock.

NMSU quarterback Charley Johnson threw for 190 yards and was tabbed the Sun Bowl's MVP for the second straight year. The NMSU defense held the nation's top offense to just 268 total yards.

Utah State's defense was equally as impressive. USU, led by future Hall of Famer Merlin Olsen, held the NMSU offense to only 224 yards, including just 44 rushing yards on 32 carries.

The 1961 Utah State football team is the last team in school history to go undefeated during the regular season as they produced a 9-0-1 mark before losing to Baylor, 24-9, in the Gotham Bowl played at the Polo Grounds in New York City. Tackle Merlin Olsen was a consensus, first-team All-America and won the 1961 Outland Trophy as the country's top lineman.

NEW YORK, N.Y. - Converting four-of-five fumble recoveries into three touchdowns provided Baylor with the win over previously unbeaten Utah State, 24-9.

Baylor's Ronnie Bull, picked up a 15-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Quarterback Don Trull contributed a 2-yard scoring plunge and a 39-yard touchdown pass to end Tom Plumb. Carl Choate kicked all three conversions and added three points with his 22-yard field goal.

Utah State's first score came in the third quarter when Jim Turner kicked a 36-yard field goal. Midway through the final quarter, Ronnie Stanley's pass was intercepted by Utah State's Bob Novotny on the Baylor 16. In three plays, Utah State produced a touchdown with Bill Munson scoring from the four. An attempted conversion run failed.

Senior QB Anthony Calvillo (13) was named the MVP of the Las Vegas Bowl II as he was 25-of-39 passing for 286 yards and three touchdowns in leading Utah State to its first-ever bowl win with a 42-33 victory against Ball State. Calvillo also rushed for 50 yards on eight carries in the game.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - Senior QB Anthony Calvillo tossed three touchdown passes and junior RB Proffail Grier ran for two scores as Utah State defeated Ball State, 42-33, in Las Vegas Bowl II on Dec. 17, 1993 in Las Vegas, Nev., marking Utah State's first bowl victory in its 96-year football history. For Utah State, it was just its fifth bowl game in school history and first since playing in the 1961 Gotham Bowl.

Utah State finished the game with 491 yards of total offense (205-rushing, 286-passing) as compared to 314 yards of total offense (73-rushing, 241-passing) for Ball State. USU recorded 27 first downs in the game and was 10-of-16 on third downs, while BSU had just 14 first downs and went 0-of-11 on third downs. USU also won the possession battle, 35:11 to 24:49.

Calvillo completed 25-of-39 passes for 286 yards to earn MVP honors. He also rushed for 50 yards on eight carries. Grier finished the game with 142 rushing yards on 33 carries to go along with his two scores, and caught two passes for 32 yards. Senior WR Tony Jenkins had five catches for 94 yards as eight different Aggies caught passes in the game.

Utah State scored on its first two possessions with drives of 73 and 82 yards, respectively. Calvillo, who completed his first seven pass attempts, hit senior WR Cotic McMahon from 22 yards out for the first score just 4:33 into the game. Eight minutes later, Grier reached the end zone on a 3-yard run capping a 13-play, 82-yard drive that took 5:26 off the clock. With 24 seconds remaining in the first half, senior WR Aubrey Thompson scored on a 3-yard pass from Calvillo to make the halftime score 21-0 for USU. On its last drive of the half, USU went 68-yards in 17 plays and used 7:43. The Aggie offense rolled up 329 total yards in the first half and produced 18 first downs.

Ball State scored 10 straight points to open the third quarter on a 7-yard touchdown pass and a 31-yard field goal in the first three minutes, but Utah State got a 15-yard touchdown run from Grier and another touchdown pass from Calvillo, this time to senior WR Mike Lee good for 16 yards. USU's first touchdown of the third quarter was a 12-play, 75-yard drive that took 5:24, while its second was just a 3-play, 24-yard drive in 1:26.

Junior CB Donald Toomer iced the game when he returned an interception 32 yards for a score to give the Aggies a 42-19 lead with 11:34 left in the game. In all, Toomer had two interceptions in the game that he returned 39 yards.

Ball State scored the final 14 points of the game on a 2-yard run with 10:34 to play and a 2-yard pass with 5:07 remaining in the contest.

McMahon finished the game with four catches for 54 yards, while Thompson had four catches for 28 yards and Lee added four catches for 48 yards for USU.

Senior CB Damon Smith and freshman LB David Gill led Utah State with eight tackles apiece, while senior LB Jermaine Younger had seven tackles and senior DE Scott Moala finished with six stops.

Utah State players celebrate their Las Vegas Bowl II win with head coach Charlie Weatherbie.

BOISE, Idaho - Utah State spotted Cincinnati a 28-point advantage before scoring 19 of the game's final 26 points as the Aggies fell 35-19 in the first Humanitarian Bowl at Boise, Idaho on Dec. 29, 1997.

The Aggies suffered through their second-lowest offensive output of the season in both scoring (16 at Oregon State) and yardage (283 vs. New Mexico) in the game.

Utah State finished the game with just 316 yards of total offense (63-rushing, 253-passing) as compared to 411 total yards (225-rushing, 186-passing) for Cincinnati. The Bearcats also controlled the ball for 42:17 as it converted on 14-of-22 (.636) third downs, while USU had the ball for just 17:43 as it converted just 2-of-10 (.200) third downs. In all, Cincinnati ran 40 more plays (90-50) in the game as it averaged 4.6 yards per play as compared to 6.3 yards per play for USU.

Utah State did not practice outdoors until the two days prior to the game as the Aggies worked out in the USU fieldhouse for the month between the end of the regular season and the bowl game. That rustiness was evident as USU went scoreless in the first half as Cincinnati put up a 21-0 halftime advantage.

Cincinnati's first touchdown of the game was on a 14-yard pass from Chad Plummer to Cornelius Bonner with 4:03 to play in the first quarter. Bonner caught another 14-yard pass, this time from Deontey Kenner, just 48 seconds into the second quarter. The Bearcats final touchdown of the first half was on a 1-yard run.

After Cincinnati extended its lead to 28-0 with 8:39 to play in the third quarter on a 15-yard run by Plummer, Utah State warmed up, scoring three touchdowns in an eight minute span, but the Aggies were controlled by a bigger, stronger Cincinnati team. USU's first score came on a 75-yard pass from senior QB Matt Sauk to senior WR Steve Smith with 7:31 to play in the third quarter. USU scored again late in the third quarter on a 3-yard run by senior RB Melvin Blue, and its final touchdown of the game came with 14:18 to play in the game on a 10-yard fumble return by freshman LB Brent Passey.

Cincinnati's final touchdown of the game was with 2:28 to play in the third quarter on a 7-yard touchdown run by Orlando Smith to make the score 35-7, before USU scored the final 12 points of the game.

Smith earned USU MVP honors as he had four receptions for 136 yards and a 75-yard touchdown, while also returning two punts for 26 yards and two kickoffs for 58 yards. The game was the final one for head coach John L. Smith, who had announced that he had taken the head coaching job at Louisville immediately after the final regular season game at North Texas.

Sauk finished the game 12-of-30 passing for 253 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions. Kenner passed for 124 yards as he completed 10-of-16 passes with one touchdown, while Plummer was selected as the Bearcats' MVP in the game after rushing for 53 yards, passing for 62 yards and catching four passes for 64 more yards. Sophomore RB Demario Brown was the Aggies' top rusher as he carried the ball 12 times for 56 yards, and senior WR Nakia Jenkins added 80 receiving yards on four receptions.

Junior LB Tony D'Amato led Utah State with 12 tackles, while junior CB Johndale Carty and junior LB Craig Miller each posted nine stops.

Junior ILB Tony D'Amato (46) had a game-high 12 tackles, including one for loss, against the Bearcats.

Senior RB Michael Smith (20) rushed for a career-high 157 yards on just 12 carries and scored two touchdowns in Utah State's 24-23 loss to Ohio in the 2011 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. Smith, who added one reception for 10 yards, was named Utah State's MVP.

BOISE, Idaho - In a season full of close finishes, the outcome at Famous Idaho Potato Bowl was no different for Utah State (7-6, 5-3 WAC) as Ohio scored with 13 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter to earn a 24-23 win against the Aggies on Dec. 17, 2011 at Bronco Stadium in Boise.

After much deliberation on the two plays earlier to get to the goal line, Ohio quarterback Tyler Tettleton scored on a 1-yard touchdown run with 13 seconds left to tie the score at 23-23. The ensuing extra point from Matt Weller gave the Bobcats their first and only lead of the game.

In the Aggies' first bowl game since 1997, senior RB Michael Smith ran for a career-high and USU bowl record 157 yards, scoring both of Utah State's rushing touchdowns. Junior RB Robert Turbin recorded his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the season with 101 yards.

Utah State ended its historic season with a 7-6 record, which is its first seven-win season since 1993. The loss snaps the Aggies' five-game winning streak, and gave the Bobcats their first ever bowl win in their sixth bowl appearance, improving to 10-4.

The Aggies jumped out to an early 2-0 lead in the first quarter after Tettleton fumbled in the end zone with 9:23 remaining in the first quarter.

USU expanded its lead to 9-0 later in the first quarter when junior QB Adam Kennedy connected with senior TE Tarren Lloyd for a 3-yard touchdown pass to give the Aggies the 9-0 lead after the first quarter. The USU defense pitched its fourth first-quarter shutout this season, and second in a row.

Ohio cut that lead to 9-7 early in the second quarter when Derek Roback scored on a 26-yard pass from Tettleton with 4:40 to play in the half. It would be the only score of the second quarter as USU entered the locker room with a 9-7 advantage.

Smith and the Aggies wasted no time getting on the board in the third quarter when Smith broke off a 63-yard run with 12:19 remaining to put USU up 16-7. It was the longest rush allowed by the highly-touted Ohio defense during the season.

Less than three minutes later, the USU defense was able to hold the Bobcats to a field goal when Matt Weller drilled a 32-yard field goal to cut the Blue and White lead to 16-10.

The high-scoring third quarter continued with Smith scoring his second touchdown of the game with an 11-yard scamper and sophomore PK Josh Thompson booted his third extra point of the night to put USU up 23-10 with 5:51 left in the third stanza. The frenzied third-quarter scoring wasn't done as Tettleton hit Ohio's MVP Brazill with a 44-yard scoring strike to pull the Bobcats within 23-17 at the 3:45 mark of quarter number three.

Kennedy was injured late in the third quarter, and freshman QB Chuckie Keeton returned under center for the first time since Nov. 5 after starting USU's first eight games of the season but getting injured himself in the Hawai'i game. Keeton ran for a 10-yard gain on his first play, but the drive later stalled at midfield.

On USU's first drive of the fourth quarter, Kennedy returned and the Aggies again reached midfield, but couldn't get into scoring territory. The USU defense held Ohio, but Bobcat punter Paul Hershey boomed a 59-yard punt, pinning the Aggies at the USU 7. Utah State couldn't get a first down and had to punt it away to Ohio, and the Bobcats began their winning drive with 2:02 left.

Senior LB Kyle Gallagher (43) had nine tackles, including 0.5 for loss, against the Bobcats.

Senior RB Kerwynn Williams (25) rushed for a career-high 235 yards on just 18 carries and scored three touchdowns in leading Utah State to a 41-15 win against Toledo in the 2012 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. Williams, who added two receptions for 34 yards, was named the game's MVP.

BOISE, Idaho - Utah State (11-2, 6-0 WAC) concluded its most successful season in school history with a 41-15 rout of Toledo (9-4, 6-2 MAC) in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl on Dec. 15, 2012 as senior RB Kerwynn Williams was named the game's Most Valuable Player as he ran for a career-best 235 yards and tied his career-high with three touchdowns on runs of 63, 5 and 25 yards, all in the fourth quarter.

Utah State led 13-6 heading into the final 15 minutes of play before Toledo cut it to 13-9 following a 29-yard field goal with 7:28 to play. From there it was all USU as Williams scored his first touchdown of the game on a 63-yard run to cap a 2-play, 70-yard drive. Following a three-and-out by the Rockets, Williams rattled off a 56-yard run and then scored from 5-yards out to give USU a 27-9 advantage. During the drive, Williams accounted for all 62-yards on three carries. Sophomore FS Brian Suite then picked off Toledo's Austin Dantini two plays later, which led to Williams' third touchdown of the quarter on a 25-yard run upping USU's lead to 34-9 following a 2-play, 39-yard drive. Toledo returned the ensuing kickoff 87-yards for a score, its only touchdown of the day, to cut the deficit to 34-15. Williams then rushed for 32 yards on USU's next offensive play and sophomore RB Joe Hill scored on the Aggies' next play with a 24-yard run for a 2-play, 56-yard drive making the final score 41-15 as the Aggies scored 28 points in just 5:15.

In the fourth quarter, Utah State gained 228 yards, including 221 on the ground, as Williams rushed for 198 yards on just seven carries to go along with his three touchdowns.

Williams, who end the game with 269 all-purpose yards, set the Western Athletic Conference record with 6,928 career all-purpose yards to rank 11th in NCAA history at the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level. Overall, Williams' 235 rushing yards were the second-most in Famous Idaho Potato Bowl history and the 19th-most in a single-game in school history.

Utah State finished the game with 582 yards of total offense (353-rushing, 229-passing) to rank as the third-most during the year and 14th-most in school history. USU's 353 rushing yards were a season-high and the 19th-most in a single-game in school history, while its 28 fourth quarter points are its most in any quarter since 2011 and tied for the most in any quarter in Famous Idaho Potato Bowl history.

Toledo finished the game with 315 yards of total offense (173-passing, 142-rushing).

Sophomore QB Chuckie Keeton scored Utah State's first touchdown on a 62-yard run in the first quarter to give USU a 7-3 lead after Toledo scored the first points of the game on a 37-yard field goal on its opening series. In all, Keeton rushed for 92 yards on nine carries and added 229 yards through the air as he was 21-of-31 passing to set single season school records for both completions (275) and passing yards (3,373).

The only other points scored in the first half were on a pair of field goals as Toledo cut the lead to 7-6 early in the second quarter on another 37-yarder, while USU sophomore PK Nick Diaz connected from 27-yards out on the last play of the first half to send the Aggies into the locker room up 10-6.

Diaz added a 44-yard field goal on the Aggies' first possession of the third quarter to up its lead to 13-6 for the only score of the period, before the two teams combined for 37 fourth quarter points.

Senior LB Bojay Filimoeatu led USU's defense with 11 tackles, while redshirt freshman LB Kyler Fackrell recorded his third interception of the year in the third quarter in the red zone on a pass that was tipped by junior LB Jake Doughty.

In all, Utah State concluded the year with seven-straight wins.

Senior LB Bojay Filimoeatu (55) had 11 tackles, one sack and one pass breakup against the Rockets.

Senior RB Joey DeMartino (28) rushed for 143 yards on 23 carries and scored the eventual game-winning touchdown on a 1-yard run in the fourth quarter to lead Utah State to a 21-14 win against No. 24 Northern Illinois in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. DeMartino, who added one reception for eight yards, was named the game's Offensive MVP.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - Behind 143 rushing yards from senior RB Joey DeMartino, Utah State (9-5) posted a 21-14 win against No. 24 Northern Illinois (12-2) in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl here at Qualcomm Stadium on Dec. 26, 2013.

DeMartino was named the Offensive Most Valuable Player for his efforts, which included one touchdown and a 58-yard rush which is a new Poinsettia Bowl record. It was DeMartino's seventh 100-yard outing this season.

Senior LB Jake Doughty was named the Defensive MVP for his eight tackle, one forced fumble outing. Doughty added 1.5 tackles for loss in the game.

Utah State ended the game with 289 total yards, on 168 rushing yards and 121 passing yards, and Northern Illinois had a season-low 315 yards of total offense, tallying 216 yards passing a being limited to 99 yards rushing, also a season-low for the Huskies. The 14 points was also a season-low for NIU.

Freshman QB Darell Garretson was 17-of-28 passing for 121 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions for Utah State, while junior WR Ronald Butler and sophomore WR Brandon Swindall each had four catches, with Butler tallying 33 yards and Swindall amassing 28 yards and USU's lone touchdown catch.

Junior FS Brian Suite led the Aggies' defensive with a game-high 11 tackles, one interception and one fumble recovery. Junior LB Zach Vigil added nine stops, while redshirt-freshman LB Nick Vigil and junior SS Frankie Sutera had seven tackles apiece.

Utah State got on the board first with a 31-yard field goal by junior PK Nick Diaz for a 3-0 Aggie lead with 6:56 left in the first quarter. The field goal was set up by a fumble that was forced by Doughty and recovered by Suite.

Following a missed 37-yard field goal by Northern Illinois, Diaz connected on his second field goal of the game from 39 yards to tie the Poinsettia Bowl record for longest field goal and a 6-0 Aggie advantage just 51 seconds into the second quarter.

Northern Illinois got on the board with a 2-yard scamper by Jordan Lynch with 8:17 left in the second quarter for a 7-6 lead, which they held into halftime.

The Aggie defense made a sudden change on NIU's opening possession of the second half, as Suite intercepted Lynch on the first play from scrimmage, setting up the USU offense at the NIU 31. Later Garretson hit Swindall for a 5-yard touchdown and Diaz drilled the extra point for a 13-7 USU lead with 11:57 remaining in the third quarter.

Garretson was picked off early in the fourth quarter, giving the Huskies the ball at the USU 13, but the Aggie defense bowed up and held them to a field goal attempt, which they missed for their second miss of the night.

Utah State took over and drove 80 yards in 16 plays that culminated in a 1-yard touchdown run by DeMartino in a drive that took 7:19 off the clock. Garretson then hit sophomore WR JoJo Natson for the two-point conversion and a 21-7 Aggie advantage with 4:14 left.

Northern Illinois pulled to within 21-14 with 1:44 left following a 15-yard touchdown pass, but the ensuing on-side kick was recovered by Swindall to seal the win.

Lynch, who finished third for the Heisman Trophy, was 20-of-35 passing for 216 yards and one touchdown, but just 39 yards rushing on 18 carries, for his second-fewest rushing yards of the season. Lynch was also sacked twice by the Aggie defense, tying the most allowed by NIU on the year.

Senior LB Jake Doughty (51) had 1.5 tackles for loss as part of his eight total tackles and added a forced fumble against the Huskies as he was named the game's Defensive MVP.

Freshman QB Kent Myers (2) rushed for 70 yards on a career-best 15 carries, including a 48-yard touchdown run in Utah State's 21-6 win against UTEP in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl. Myers, who was also 5-of-12 passing for 68 yards, was named the game's Offensive MVP.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Freshman QB Kent Myers rushed a career-high 15 times for 70 yards with one touchdown and Utah State gained 279 yards on the ground en route to its 21-6 Gildan New Mexico Bowl win against UTEP at University Stadium on Dec. 20, 2014.

With the win, Utah State has now won a school-record three-straight bowl games, and finished the season with a 10-4 record for the second-most wins in a single-season in school history. USU was playing in its fourth-straight bowl game, which is also a school-record.

Myers was named the Offensive Most Valuable Player of the game as he was 5-of-12 passing for 68 yards to go along with his 70 rushing yards and one touchdown.

Senior LB Zach Vigil was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player as he finished with 11 tackles, which included 1.0 tackle for loss, while adding one pass breakup and one quarterback hurry. With his 11 tackles, Vigil ends his career with 389 tackles to rank fifth all-time in school history. Vigil also ends his career as the school leader in tackles for loss with 43.5, while his 20.5 tackles for loss this season tie the Mountain West single-season record. Overall, it was Vigil's ninth double-digit tackle outing of the season and the 20th of his career.

Utah State finished the game with 347 yards of total offense, as its 279 rushing yards are its third-most in a game this season, while its 68 passing yards are a season-low.

Senior WR Ronald Butler rushed for a career-high 69 yards on just two carries, which included a career-long rush of 61 yards. Senior RB Joe Hill added 50 yards on six carries and one touchdown, while junior WR JoJo Natson had 40 rushing yards on five carries, and sophomore LB Nick Vigil gained 34 yards on eight carries with one touchdown.

Utah State had just two players make receptions in the game as junior WR Hunter Sharp caught three passes for 21 yards, while Natson had two catches for 47 yards. With his three receptions, Sharp finished the season tied for ninth all-time in school history with 66 catches, while Natson becomes the 32nd player in USU history with 1,000 career receiving yards.

UTEP was limited to just 275 yards of total offense, the third-fewest allowed by USU this season. The Miners finished with just 126 passing yards, which is the second-fewest allowed by Utah State this year. Aaron Jones led the Miners with 88 rushing yards on 25 carries.

UTEP scored the first points of the game on a 32-yard field goal by Jay Mattox late in the first quarter after it completed a 53-yard pass on a third-and-10 from its own 26-yard line.

Utah State answered UTEP's scoring drive on its next possession as Myers scored on a 48-yard run to cap a three-play, 75-yard drive that took just 1:18 off the clock.

Both teams had a chance to put points on the board late in the second quarter, but UTEP fumbled the snap on a 25-yard field goal attempt and USU missed a 28-yard field goal attempt on the final play of the half.

Utah State scored its second touchdown of the game on its opening drive of the third quarter as Nick Vigil scored on a 3-yard run to cap a seven-play, 75-yard drive.

UTEP's final points of the game came late in the fourth quarter on a Mattox 34-yard field goal following a 16-play, 54-yard drive that took 6:56 off the clock.

Utah State put the game away on the next series as it drove 65 yards in just four plays as Hill scored on an 11-yard run to seal the win.

Senior FS Brian Suite had 10 tackles for his fourth-career double-digit tackle outing, while junior CB Deshane Hines added a career-high six tackles, and fellow junior CB Tyler Floyd had a career-high four tackles and recorded his first career interception.

Senior LB Zach Vigil (53) had 11 tackles, which included 1.0 tackle for loss, to go along with one pass breakup and one quarterback hurry against the Miners. Vigil was named the game's Defensive MVP.

Junior RB Devante Mays rushed for 124 yards on 12 carries in Utah State's 23-21 loss to Akron, including a career-long 61 yard run. Mays' 124 rushing yards are the 11th-most in Famous Idaho Potato Bowl history.

BOISE, Idaho - In his final game as an Aggie, redshirt senior QB Chuckie Keeton set another school record, but it still wasn't enough for Utah State (6-7) to overcome three turnovers and several missed opportunities in the red zone in a 23-21 loss to Akron (8-5) in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl on Dec. 22, 2015 at Albertsons Stadium.

With the loss, the Aggies had their school-record three-game bowl winning streak snapped. Utah State was playing in its school-record fifth consecutive bowl game.

Keeton completed 14-of-25 passes for 109 yards with one touchdown and one interception. With his 108 yards of total offense against the Zips, the native of Houston, Texas, became the school's all-time leader in total offense with 8,803 career yards.

Keeton's lone touchdown pass came with 1:12 remaining in the game, a 2-yarder to senior WR Brandon Swindall that pulled Utah State to within 23-21. Overall, Keeton's 62-career touchdown passes are also a school-best.

After a failed on-side kick, Utah State forced an Akron punt and took over on their own 12-yard line with six seconds remaining in the game. Keeton completed an 8-yard pass to senior WR Hunter Sharp, but the clock ran out following a couple of backward laterals.

Sophomore QB Thomas Woodson was 14-of-29 for 168 yards and one interception for Akron, which won its first-ever bowl game.

Like Keeton, sophomore QB Kent Myers also completed 14 passes on 20 attempts for 123 yards and two touchdowns as USU had two quarterbacks each throw for 100 yards in the same game for the first time since 1996.

Sharp caught a Utah State bowl record 11 passes for 93 yards and a touchdown, while Devante Mays led all rushers in the game with 124 yards on 12 carries.

Defensively, the Aggies were led by senior LB LT Filiaga and senior NG David Moala, who had eight tackles apiece. Moala, who also had a career-best 2.5 tackles for loss and 0.5 sacks, tied his career high with those eight stops. Sophomore CB Jalen Davis recorded USU's lone turnover of the day when he intercepted a pass in the second quarter.

The Aggies took their only lead of the game as they marched 64 yards to paydirt in seven plays to start the third quarter. Sharp capped the drive with a 19-yard touchdown reception from Myers, giving Utah State a 14-13 lead. Myers set up the score with a 27-yard run on third-and-17 from the Zips' 46.

Akron cashed in on USU's third turnover and went in front for good on a 2-yard touchdown run by senior RB Donnell Alexander, making it 20-14 with 5:43 to go in the third.

The Zips increased their lead to 23-14 with 8:15 to go in the fourth when Robert Stein booted a 46-yard field goal, capping a 14-play drive that ate up nearly seven minutes.

Akron struck first on a trick play when redshirt junior WR Tyrell Goodman threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Woodson for a 7-0 lead just 4:22 into the first quarter.

The Zips made it 10-0 with 2:53 remaining in the second quarter courtesy of a 33-yard field goal by Stein.

However, the Aggies fought back on the ensuing possession when Myers threw a 9-yard touchdown pass to senior Swindall to pull the Aggies within 10-7 with 1:32 left in the half.

Akron added a 29-yard field goal on the last play of the half, following a USU fumble, to make the score 13-7.

In the first half, Utah State twice reached the red zone only to come away empty-handed as Keeton was intercepted and later muffed a snap on a 35-yard field goal attempt.

Senior NG David Moala tied his career-high with eight tackles and had a career-high 2.5 tackles for loss, which included 0.5 sacks to go along with one pass breakup against the Zips.

Senior RB LaJuan Hunt (21) rushed for a season-high 133 yards on 20 carries with one touchdown in Utah State's 26-20 overtime loss to New Mexico State in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl. Hunt added three receptions for 25 yards in the game.

TUCSON, Ariz. - Senior RB LaJuan Hunt capped his Utah State (6-7) career by rushing for 133 yards – the most yardage by an Aggie this season – and one touchdown on 20 carries in Utah State's 26-20 overtime loss to New Mexico State in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl, held here at Arizona Stadium on Friday, Dec. 29, 2017.

Hunt, who finished his career with 1,846 yards rushing, the 11th-most in school history, and 18 touchdowns, which is tied for the 10th-most, scored on a 1-yard run with 13:28 remaining in the fourth quarter to give the designated home team a 20-13 lead.

New Mexico State RB Larry Rose III scored the game-winning touchdown in overtime on a 21-yard run after Utah State sophomore PK Dominik Eberle hit the right upright from 29 yards out.

New Mexico State (7-6) tied it at 20-apiece on an 11-yard touchdown pass from Tyler Rogers to Jaleel Scott with 6:31 remaining. Rogers completed 29-of-54 passes for 191 yards. Rose led the NewMags in both rushing and receiving as he had 142 yards on 16 carries on the ground, to go along with six receptions for 48 yards.

New Mexico State entered the game ranked fourth in the nation averaging 352.6 passing yards per game, but Utah State limited the NewMags to 191 yards – 161.6 below their season average.

The navy-clad Aggies shined defensively as they forced three turnovers, including interceptions by redshirt freshman LB David Woodward and senior BS Dallin Leavitt, along with a fumble recovery by junior LB Chase Christiansen. Christiansen led USU with eight tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss. Leavitt added seven stops, while Woodward had four stops and a career-best three pass breakups.

Redshirt freshman QB Jordan Love was 25-of-44, both of which are career-highs, for 254 yards. His favorite target was junior WR Ron'quavion Tarver, who caught eight passes for 97 yards.

Utah State had numerous chances to put more points on the board, but four missed field goals and a turnover in the red zone after having a first-and-goal at the 1-yard line spelled doom.

The first half started with a bang as the two teams combined to score 17 points in less than a one-minute span, courtesy of a field goal and back-to-back kickoff returns for touchdowns.

New Mexico State's Dylan Brown opened the scoring with a 23-yard field goal to give the designated visitors a 3-0 lead with 11:15 remaining in the first quarter. On the ensuing kickoff, freshman WR Savon Scarver returned the kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown, making it 7-3 for USU just 14 seconds later.

Scarver's kickoff return for a touchdown was the first-ever in a bowl game for Utah State and tied for the sixth-longest in school history.

However, USU's lead was short-lived as NMSU returned the next kickoff 100 yards, giving the white-clad Aggies a 10-7 lead.

Those were the only touchdowns of the first half, though. Eberle tied the score at 10-all with a 35-yard field goal, then New Mexico State regained the lead on a 33-yard field goal.

Brown booted a 33-yard field goal to give the NewMags a 13-10 lead with 11:35 left in the half, but Eberle countered with a 30-yard field goal as time expired on the second quarter, sending the two teams into the break deadlocked at 13-apiece.

Junior LB Chase Christiansen (48) had eight tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss, and one fumble recovery against NMSU.

NOELLE E. COCKETT

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
Montana State, 1980 • January 2017 - Present

Noelle E. Cockett was appointed as Utah State University's 16th President in October 2016, beginning her official tenure in January 2017. She is USU's first female president and the only female president with Utah's higher education system.

Since becoming president, Cockett has worked to improve the mission and vision of the university. The dedicated and award-winning faculty at USU are scholar-educators who have shared a commitment to teaching excellence and rigorous research to help students succeed. In March 2018, USU physics and math scholar David Maughan received an honorable mention as a Goldwater Scholar, a prestigious national competition that recognizes outstanding achievements in science and mathematics. Cockett has also been working to improve the facilities students enjoy as part of their education. In May, she was proud to be part of the ribbon cutting for the new Sorenson Legacy Foundation Center for Clinical Excellence in USU's Emma Eccles Jones College of Education and Human Services. The building is a unique, advanced facility where integration of research, academic and clinical services enables training for students, interdisciplinary research among faculty and clinicians and comprehensive clinical services for clients statewide and regionally.

As always, friends, alumni and donors of the university contribute to the livelihood of USU. In early May 2017, the university announced a major expansion of the highly selective Huntsman Scholar Program and the launch of the Center of Growth and Opportunity thanks to a joint $50 million gift to the Jon M. Huntsman School of Business from the Huntsman Foundation and the Charles Koch Foundation. The joint gift is the largest in the school's history and enables the university to continue fostering innovative research and teaching to improve lives and communities.

Prior to being named Utah State's President, Cockett was serving as Executive Vice President and Provost at USU and has held that position since 2013. Prior to that, she served USU as Vice President for Extension from 2006 to 2013; Dean of the College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences from 2002 to 2013; and Director of the Utah Agriculture Experiment Station from 2009 to 2013.

Cockett has built a distinguished career in sheep genomics research, maintaining an active research program even while serving in various leadership positions at Utah State University. Her research program has centered on the identification of genetic markers associated with economically important traits in sheep, as well as the development of resources that advance research on the sheep genome. Cockett and her colleagues published an article describing the sheep genome sequence in Science in 2014. Her current project focuses on the identification of genetic regions associated with entropion in newborn lambs. Cockett has served as the United States coordinator for sheep genome mapping since 1993 and is an active member of the International Sheep Genomics Consortium.

Utah State University Board of Trustees (2018-19)

As an active researcher, Cockett has received many awards and accolades throughout her career including a Young Scientist Award from the Western Section of the American Society of Animal Science (ASAS), the Utah Governor's Medal for Science and Technology (2004 and 2015) and one of USU's top honors, the D. Wynne Thorne Research Award.

After receiving her master's and doctorate in animal breeding and genetics from Oregon State University in 1983 and 1985, respectively, Cockett spent five years as a research geneticist at the United States Department of Agriculture, Agriculture Research Service U.S. Meat Animal Research Center in Clay Center, Nebraska. She joined Utah State University in 1990 as a researcher and assistant professor in the Department of Animal, Dairy and Veterinary Sciences in the College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences.

Cockett, who earned her bachelor's degree from Montana State in animal science in 1980, grew up on a beef cattle ranch in eastern Montana and is married to John Cockett, Director of Technology in USU's Emma Eccles Jones College of Education and Human Services. Noelle and John have two children, Dylan and Chantelle.

JOHN HARTWELL

VICE PRESIDENT / ATHLETICS DIRECTOR
The Citadel, 1987 • Fourth Year

Since being named Vice President and Director of Athletics at Utah State on June 2, 2015, John Hartwell has cast his vision for Aggie Athletics, which embodies maximum effort academically, athletically and socially to ensure success in both the classroom and on the fields of competition.

Hartwell has also focused on maximizing and increasing the department's revenue streams, along with planning for future facility renovations, which includes Maverik Stadium and the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum.

In his time at Utah State, Hartwell has already rebranded the fundraising arm of Utah State Athletics with the creation of Aggies Unlimited, which puts all giving under one umbrella.

Utah State also entered into a new partnership with the Larry H. Miller Sports & Entertainment Group to be its flagship radio station for Aggie Athletics, which gives USU additional advertising opportunities throughout Cache Valley and the Wasatch Front, in addition to more control over each broadcast.

Additionally, Hartwell has overseen the completion of the $36 million, 85,000-square foot West Stadium Center on the west side of Maverik Stadium, which includes 24 luxury suites, 20 loge boxes, over 700 covered club seats and a premium club area that is also used to host a student-athlete training table. Renovations also included new video boards on both the north and south ends of the stadium, along with a new public address system, while major concourse work significantly increased restrooms and upgraded concessions.

Under Hartwell's leadership, Utah State athletics has seen unparalleled success during the past four years. In fact, the 2017-18 academic year was arguably the best in school history as Aggie Athletics ranked 78th nationally in the Learfield Director's Cup Standings, which is by far the best finish for USU in the Cup's 25 years, while its 400-plus student-athletes achieved a school-record 3.25 grade-point average.

During the 2017-18 academic year, Utah State's men's tennis program won its third-straight Mountain West regular season championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in as many years. In fact, men's tennis won the school's first Mountain West regular season (2016) and tournament championships (2017) since joining the Conference in 2013 and finished the 2017 campaign with a school-record 23 wins and a final national ranking of No. 45.

Additionally, Utah State's track & field/cross country teams had their best seasons in school history this past academic year, highlighted by the men's programs finishing the year ranked 10th nationally by the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association. During the 2017-18 seasons, the Aggie men placed 27th in their first-ever appearance in the NCAA Cross Country Championships, followed by a 28th-place finish at the NCAA Indoor Championships and an 18th-place finish at the NCAA Outdoor Championships as its student-athletes combined to garner 12 All-America honors. On the women's side, USU's cross country program finished 14th in its first-ever appearance at the NCAA Championships, while its student-athletes combined to garner three All-America honors during the 2017-18 academic year

Aggie football also excelled during the 2017-18 academic year, playing in its sixth bowl game in the past seven seasons.

Aggie softball has also seen increased success in the recent past as they finished the 2017 campaign with a 33-18 record, including a 14-9 Mountain West mark, and advanced to the National Softball Invitational, marking the program's first postseason appearance since 1993. In fact, those 33 overall wins and 14 league victories are its most since 1996, as USU finished the 2017 season tied for third place in the league.

Even more impressive is Utah State's continued successes by its student-athletes in the classroom as they have a 91 percent graduation success rate, which is the highest in the Mountain West, and a cumulative 3.25 grade-point average, which is a school record. During the 2017-18 academic year, USU had 159 student-athletes earn academic all-Mountain West honors, while 115 were named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes. Additionally, USU recognized 218 student-athletes at its annual Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Luncheon for earning a 3.2 or better GPA.

Hartwell came to Utah State after spending three years as the Athletics Director at Troy, where he laid the groundwork for the future of Trojan Athletics by spearheading several significant upgrades to its athletic facilities, including the addition of a new $2 million practice facility for the golf teams, a $3 million renovation and expansion of the softball facility and a $2.1 million improvement to Veterans Memorial Stadium, while also securing funding for lights to be installed at the soccer and track complex. Hartwell also unveiled the North End Zone Project for Veterans Memorial Stadium, a $25 million project that will be the new home for Trojan football.

Troy's athletics programs have also seen vast improvement on the fields of play due to Hartwell's leadership and oversight, including the football program posting a 21-5 record the past two seasons under Neal Brown, who Hartwell hired, not to mention the Trojans being the first Sun Belt Conference team to ever appear in either the Associated Press or Coaches Poll. Men's basketball won the 2017 Sun Belt Conference Tournament and advanced to its first NCAA Tournament since 2003, while the women's basketball program has won back-to-back Sun Belt Tournament championships and appeared in two-straight NCAA Tournaments. Troy's golf programs have also excelled as the women's program has won three of the past four Sun Belt titles, while men's golf has advanced to three-straight NCAA Regionals. Another Hartwell hire, Mark Smartt led Troy baseball to a 42-win season and an at-large NCAA bid in 2018.

Under Hartwell, Troy Athletics saw a significant enhancement in fundraising and external relations as he completely overhauled Troy's External Affairs division of the Athletics Department to increase revenues and enhance the fan and game day experience. As part of this makeover was the creation of a new external model, which included the addition of a Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs; bringing corporate sponsorships in house with a partnership with Rockbridge Sports Group; and the development of the Troy Affinity Program to further engage Troy students in athletics.

Hartwell's strong business background also proved to be valuable at Troy as he negotiated a new footwear and apparel deal with Adidas, while also securing home-and-home football games with Duke and North Carolina State in addition to yielding a home basketball game with Mississippi. Hartwell's tenure at Troy also saw a record number of student-athletes earn a 3.0 grade-point-average, an upward trend in APR scores and additional staff positions in Troy's academic support department. During the 2014-15 academic year, Troy student-athletes finished with a 3.01 cumulative grade-point-average and over 57 percent of Troy's student-athletes had a 3.0 GPA or higher.

At Troy, Hartwell served on the NCAA Division I Basketball Issues Committee, the Division I-A Board of Trustees Executive Committee, and the NCAA Division I Council as the Sun Belt Conference representative. He has also been an instructor at the Division I-A Institute for aspiring athletic directors.

Prior to being the Director of Athletics at Troy, Hartwell spent nine-plus years at the University of Mississippi, where he was the Senior Executive Associate Athletics Director, serving as the number two administrator in athletics.

Hartwell served as the Treasurer and Chief Operating Officer of the Mississippi Athletic Association Foundation, a 501 (c)(3) organization that generated over $17 million annually for the Ole Miss Athletics Department through priority seating and major gifts.

He was responsible for the day-to-day administrative oversight of the football, men's basketball and baseball programs, along with sport oversight of the softball and men's and women's track & field and cross country programs. Hartwell also oversaw the Rebels' business office, ticket office, equipment room, merchandise sales, concessions and football scheduling. Hartwell scheduled several marquee football games for the Rebels, including a home-and-home series with Texas that began in 2012.

Hartwell managed the growth of the Ole Miss athletic budget from $26 million in the 2003 fiscal year to over $47 million in the 2012 fiscal year. He also chaired the search to hire men's basketball head coach Andy Kennedy in 2006. He was heavily involved in negotiations that increased revenues with contracts for apparel and footwear (Nike), merchandise sales (Sports Avenue/LIDS), concessions (Centerplate), wireless provider (C Spire) and video boards (Daktronics). He served on the Southeastern Conference Ticket Committee and started the annual SEC Chief Financial Officers Forum.

A 1987 graduate of The Citadel, the 53-year old Hartwell spent four-plus years as a certified public accountant with Ernst & Young before returning to his alma mater to serve as the Director of Internal Audit in 1991. From 1994 to 1997, he was in private business as the Chief Financial Officer for a $36 million beverage distributor on the South Carolina coast.

Hartwell's direct experience in athletics administration began as the Assistant Athletics Director for Business at Georgia State in 1997. He was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs in 1999, and his responsibilities expanded to include sport supervision for baseball, men's and women's golf, men's and women's track & field and cross country. He also had oversight over the Panthers' athletic facilities and game management in addition to his previous responsibilities of all financial aspects of the department. While at Georgia State, Hartwell earned a master's degree in sports administration.

Athletics has always been a big part of Hartwell's life, starting in high school where he was an all-state basketball selection at UMS-Wright in Mobile, Ala. The 6-foot-7 forward played in high school alongside former North Carolina State and Alabama head coach Mark Gottfried, who is now the head coach at Cal State Northridge. Hartwell went on to play collegiately at The Citadel, where he was a three-year starter, a four-year letterman and captain of the team as a senior in 1987.

Hartwell is married to Dr. Heather Seale Hartwell, and they have two daughters, Lauren (9) and Madison (6). Hartwell also has a 26-year old son, Hunter, a Vanderbilt graduate who lives in Atlanta.

COLEMAN BARNES
Assistant Vice President
Deputy Athletics Director for External Affairs
Second Year at USU

Coleman Barnes is in his second year with Utah State Athletics as Assistant Vice President and Deputy Director of Athletics for External Affairs. Barnes leads USU's athletic development staff, including the Big Blue Scholarship Fund and Aggies Unlimited. He also oversees USU athletics' external departments, which include marketing and promotions and media relations, while serving as the liaison for ticket operations and sales and Aggie Sports Properties.

Barnes came to Utah State after spending the previous four years at Miami University, where he served as the Associate Athletics Director/Senior Director of Development for three-and-a-half years, before being promoted to Executive Associate Athletics Director/Senior Director of Development his last year.

During his time at Miami, Barnes served as a co-manager for the Graduating Champions Campaign, raising more than $65 million toward the $80 million goal. In 2015, Barnes' team raised a then-record $28.3 million in gifts and pledges, including $5.02 million in cash.

Barnes also boosted Miami's Red & White Club membership to over 2,000 members, a 27-percent increase since his arrival in 2013 and has increased revenue by 24 percent, up to $880,000 per year.

Prior to Miami, Barnes spent two years at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB), as the Associate Athletics Director for Development. Barnes oversaw Blazer Boosters, the fundraising unit for UAB Athletics, increasing the annual fund membership by 54 percent through a 16-month initiative.

Prior to UAB, Barnes served as the Executive Director of The Bulldog Foundation and Associate Athletics Director for Development at Fresno State from 2008-11. As an executive administrator, Barnes oversaw all components of the development office that raised approximately $6 million annually. He also managed a development team that successfully secured funding for a $6 million sports medicine center and a $1.2 million turf project.

From 2005-08, Barnes served as the Assistant Director for the UMAA Foundation, the fundraising unit for Ole Miss Athletics, playing an integral role in raising nearly $13 million annually.

Prior to Ole Miss, Barnes was a Development Associate for the Hurricane Club at the University of Miami (2004-05) and an intern in the Harvard University Athletics Ticket Office (2003-04).

Barnes graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in education from the University of Kentucky in 2002 with a major in kinesiology and a minor in business. He was also a three-year letterwinner as the long snapper on the Wildcats' football team. In 2004, Barnes earned a master's of science degree in kinesiology with an emphasis in sport management from Kentucky. He completed his Ph.D. in higher education from Ole Miss in 2017.

A native of Bardstown, Ky., Barnes is married to the former Mary Beth Justice and the couple has two children, Caroline (7) and William (6).

AMBER RAE CHILDERS
Assistant Athletics Director
Student-Athlete Academic Services
Ninth Year at USU

Amber Rae Childers is in her ninth year at Utah State and was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Academic Services in 2016.

Childers is the lead sport counselor for football and volleyball. In addition to her responsibilities as a sport counselor, she oversees the Life Skills program for student-athletes.

Prior to coming to Utah State, she served one year as an Assistant Academic Coordinator within the Academic Support Program for Student-Athletes at North Carolina State. Childers also gained experience in athletics through internships at Carroll College and Auburn University at Montgomery.

A native of Prosser, Wash., Childers completed her bachelor's in business administration and health & physical education from Carroll College in 2008, and her master's degree in intercollegiate athletic leadership from University of Washington in 2009.

JANA DOGGETT
Deputy Athletics Director
Senior Woman Administrator
13th Year at USU

Jana Doggett is entering her 13th year with the Utah State Athletics Department and fourth year as its Deputy Athletics Director after spending five years as Executive Associate Athletics Director and four years as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Operations. Doggett also serves as the department's Senior Woman Administrator.

Doggett, who was named one of the top 10 SWA's in the nation at the Division I level by College AD in 2015, served as Utah State's Interim AD during the summer of 2015.

Doggett has been the athletics department lead liaison with the construction of the Wayne Estes Center, USU's Olympic Sports Complex and the recent renovations to the west side of Maverik Stadium, as well as renovations to the Ralph Maughan Track Stadium and the gymnastics training center.

Prior to her current position, Doggett spent 11 years in the athletics department at San Diego State, from 1993-2003, including six years as an Associate Director of Athletics. She also worked at the National Multiple Sclerosis Society San Diego Area Chapter.

At San Diego State, she supervised 18 of the athletic department's head coaches as well as the ticket office, marketing and promotions, financial aid, academics, compliance, event management, video production, weight and equipment rooms, sports medicine and business services.

Doggett graduated with a degree in speech communication from San Diego State. She was raised in Nezperce, Idaho before moving to Visalia, Calif., for junior high and high school.

Doggett is married to Tarvish Felton, who is an assistant basketball coach at Fresno State, and the couple has a 19-year old daughter, DeAubrey Ann Bowers, who is a sophomore at USU, and a 4-year old son, Deekan G. Felton.

DJ ECKMAN
Director of Event Operations and Facilities
Third Year at USU

DJ Eckman is in his first year as the Director of Event Operations and Facilities for Utah State Athletics.

Eckman's duties include creating and developing game-day operations and event management of USU's 6 intercollegiate sports.

Eckman has been a member of the USU athletic department over the past six years, working four years as a student equipment manager and the last two years as the Event Operations Coordinator.

Eckman earned both an undergraduate and graduate degree from Utah State, studying marketing, and sport and physical education.

DR. BRIAN EVANS
Sr. Associate Athletics Director
Student-Athlete Services
19th Year at USU

Beginning his 19th year in charge of Utah State's Student-Athlete Academic Services is Dr. Brian Evans, who was promoted to Senior Associate Athletics Director in 2013. Evans joined the USU staff in July, 2000 after spending three years as Assistant Director of Athletic Academic Services at Texas Tech from 1997-2000. Previously, he was the Academic Coordinator at Montana State from 1995-97.

Evans oversees the student-athlete academic services unit, directing academics and certification of initial and continuing eligibility of Utah State student-athletes and directs a staff of five full-time assistants. Following the 2014 and 2015 gymnastics season, Evans was named the North Central Region Administrator of the Year as voted on by coaches in the region.

Under Evans' guidance, Utah State had 274 student-athletes recognized for academic excellence during the 2017-18 academic year, as 159 student-athletes received academic all-Mountain West honors, while 115 were named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes. Overall, USU has led its conference in most academic all-league honorees 14 times in the last 19 years.

A native of Nebraska, the 1987 Colorado journalism graduate earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Idaho State in 1988 and a doctorate of higher education administration from Montana State in 2000.

JAKE GARLOCK
Associate Athletics Director
Compliance
13th Year at USU

Entering his 13th year at Utah State is Jake Garlock, who was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Compliance in July, 2013. In his position, Garlock is in charge of maintaining USU's compliance in accordance with the NCAA and Mountain West Conference rules. He also has administrative oversight of men's and women's tennis and volleyball programs, as well as the equipment room.

Prior to joining the athletics department, Garlock spent one year as a practicing trial attorney.

Garlock, who is originally from Salem, Ore., graduated from Brigham Young with a bachelor's degree in psychology in 2002 and received his law degree from Willamette in 2005.

Garlock was born March 19, 1978 in Salt Lake City, Utah. He and his wife Jenny have four children, Grace (15), Sophia (12), Ben (10) and Caleb (5).

KATIE HICKMAN
Director of Ticket Operations
First Year at USU

Katie Hickman is in her first year as the Director of Ticket Services at Utah State. Hickman held a similar role at USU back in 2015 as the Assistant Athletic Director for Ticketing/Customer Service before leaving the Athletics Department to pursue other professional opportunities.

In her current role Hickman will not only oversee the ticket operations for the athletic department, but will also coordinate the ticket operations for all events at Utah State.

Hickman was previously a member of the Utah State staff from 2010-2015, working in the ticket office as both the head of the department and as an assistant during that span. She also has ties to other members of the Mountain West, having graduated from Boise State in 2008 with a degree in health science studies.

Hickman has spent the last several years as a member of the athletic department at Salt Lake Community College, where she played key roles in event management and business operations.

She is currently pursuing a master's degree in sports administration from Concordia University. Hickman has one daughter, Ruby (2).

TYLER KNOWLES
Director of Marketing
Third Year at USU

Tyler Knowles is in his third year at Utah State as the Director of Marketing. In his role, Knowles is responsible for developing and implementing marketing plans for the volleyball and softball programs, while assisting with football and men's basketball marketing strategies, and overall department digital and social initiatives.

Knowles came to Utah State from Nicholls State Thibodaux, La., where he served as the Director of Marketing and Ticket Operations, coordinating all ticket sales and integrating marketing plans for each of the Colonels' 14 sports. Knowles was also responsible for the social media platforms for the athletic department, including sponsorship activations with Colonel Sports Properties, providing graphic design for digital and social use.

Prior to working at Nicholls, Knowles worked with the event management and sports information departments at the University of Oklahoma while pursuing his undergraduate and post-graduate degrees. While at Oklahoma, Knowles was a member of the staff that provided assistance at eight NCAA or Big 12 postseason events.

Knowles graduated from Oklahoma with a degree in journalism and mass communication and a master's degree in intercollegiate athletics administration.

MAGGIE MCINERNEY
Associate Athletics Director
Business Affairs
Fourth Year at USU

In her fourth year as Associate Athletics Director for Business Affairs at Utah State is Maggie McInerney, who joined the staff in January, 2015.

Prior to joining the athletics department, McInerney spent a year and a half working for the Office of Research and Graduate Studies for Utah State.

Before working for Utah State, McInerney worked at Kohl's Corporation in Menomonee Falls, Wis., in a variety of rolls including financial planning, internal audit, external reporting and loss prevention financial analysis.

McInerney graduated from Marquette with a bachelor's degree in accounting in 2004 and obtained her Certified Public Accountant (CPA) license in 2005.

McInerney is married to USU's women's head tennis coach Sean McInerney and the couple have three children, Brayden (6), Adley (3) and Gabriel (1).

RYAN MCLANE
Assistant Athletics Director
Marketing and Promotions
Third Year at USU

Ryan McLane is in his third year as an Assistant Athletics Director for Marketing and Promotions at Utah State.

McLane, who previously spent two years at USU, returned to Logan after a three-year stint at Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU).

While at VCU, McLane served as the Assistant Athletic Director for Marketing and Promotions. He developed strategic marketing, advertising and sales campaigns that resulted in 48 consecutive sold-out men's basketball games and increased average attendance for several other programs.

McLane assisted in department-wide rebranding efforts for the Rams, introducing new logos and brand identity during the 2013-14 campaign. Additionally, he managed the athletics student support organization and the department's kids club program and supervised the spirit squad coaches and pep band director.

Prior to his time at VCU, McLane spent two years at Utah State as the Director of Athletic Marketing and Promotions. In this role, he managed and implemented all advertising and promotional efforts for the USU Athletics Department along with directing the game presentation at all home athletic events and maintaining the department's website and social media platforms. During his first stint at USU, McLane helped the department through the rebranding process in 2012 and oversaw marketing efforts for the school's move to the Mountain West.

McLane is a native of Pittsburgh, Pa., and graduated from Robert Morris University in 2009 with bachelor's degrees in business administration. He then completed a master's degree in education at the University of Oklahoma in 2011. His wife, the former Laura Parry, is an assistant athletic trainer for USU.

KC SMURTHWAITE
Director of Development
Third Year at USU

KC Smurthwaite is in his third year at Utah State and in his first as the Director of Development for Aggies Unlimited after spending his first two years as a Major Gifts Officer. In his role, Smurthwaite will oversee the day-to-day operations of the athletics development office, including annual giving, stewardship, and special events, while also serving on the External Leadership Team. Smurthwaite will also manage a portfolio of major gift prospects.

As a Major Gifts Officer, Smurthwaite managed a regional portfolio that helped Aggies Unlimited team generate $6 million. During the 2017-2018 academic year, he increased major gifts by 120% from previous fiscal years and assisted in the creation of the Blue A Society. He helped coordinate the cultivation and solicitation of the Merlin Olsen Fund which set new highs in giving during the 2016-2017 fiscal year. Sport specific giving doubled with help of an outreach program that communicates with all former student-athletes. With the addition of the newly renovated Maverik Stadium, Smurthwaite assisted in growing premium seat giving from $430,000 to $1.4 million.

Prior to his current position at Utah State, Smurthwaite spent two seasons as an assistant coach with the Aggie softball team, where he worked directly with the outfielders, while assisting with recruiting.

During the 2016 season, Smurthwaite helped Utah State to its best season in 20 years, posting a 26-25 overall record while going 12-12 in Mountain West action. In his two seasons with the softball team, he helped the outfield to improved statistics across the board, while coaching four outfielders to all-Mountain West honors. The Aggies also set program records in runs scored, doubles, home runs, total bases, RBIs, stolen bases and slugging percentage.

Smurthwaite came to Utah State in the 2014 season, spending the year as a softball team manager and an assistant in the athletics compliance office. As a team manager, Smurthwaite helped by throwing batting practice, helping organize team travel, assisting in day-to-day duties and working with the infielders and slappers.

Prior to Utah State, Smurthwaite was an assistant baseball coach and recruiting coordinator at USU Eastern in Price, Utah. Smurthwaite originally signed with USU Eastern as a player, but injuries cut his playing days short, leading him to the coaching profession. During his playing career, he was ranked as high as No. 20 for recruiting region by Baseball Northwest.

While at USU Eastern, Smurthwaite also fulfilled a variety of athletic administrative roles. In those roles, he cultivated and solicited local and regional organizations for the Golden Eagle athletic programs resulting in $190,000.

Smurthwaite is fluent in Spanish after serving an LDS Church Mission in Morristown, New Jersey. He also spent time as a play-by-play TV and radio commentator at USU Eastern and Southern Utah.

A Meridian, Idaho native, Smurthwaite began his college career at USU Eastern. He graduated from Southern Utah with a degree in communication studies in 2013 and received a master's degree from Utah State in physical and sport education in 2015. He married the former Emily Speas in November of 2016.

DOUG HOFFMAN
Associate Athletics Director /
Media Relations
21st Year at USU

Doug Hoffman is in his 12th year as the Media Relations Director and 21st year with the Utah State athletics department as he joined the staff in December, 1998.

Hoffman, who was promoted to Associate Athletics Director in 2013 after serving as an Assistant Athletics Director for six years, spent eight years as the Associate Athletic Media Relations Director at Utah State.

As the Media Relations Director, Hoffman oversees the publicity of Utah State's 16-sport program, working closely with the media, USU staff, coaches and student-athletes, while serving as the football and men's golf contact.

Under Hoffman, USU's Athletic Media Relations Office has twice (2011, 2015) been recognized by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) by earning its "Super 11" Award, which annually recognizes the best 11 media relations departments in the nation.

Along with his duties as Media Relations Director, Hoffman is also the chair of USU's Athletics Hall of Fame Selection Committee and serves as the department's curator, which included the research and development of USU's Athletics Hall of Honor in 2009.

Hoffman came to Utah State after spending one year at Indiana State where he worked with volleyball and the nationally ranked baseball program. Prior to that, he was a graduate assistant in the media relations office at Wyoming from 1994-97.

Hoffman, who graduated from Wyoming in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in communications, was an all-conference basketball player during his senior season at Hot Springs County High School in Thermopolis, Wyo. A native of Mitchell, S.D., he and his wife Shellee have three sons, Chase (14), Davis (10) and Easton (3).

KYLE COTTAM
Assistant Athletics Director /
Communications
Fifth Year at USU

Kyle Cottam is in his fifth year at Utah State as an Assistant Athletics Director for Communications after joining the department in October, 2014. In his current role, Cottam serves as the primary media contact for the men's basketball and women's volleyball programs, and oversees both tennis programs. He also oversees statistical crews for numerous sports and assists in other areas of the office.

Cottam came to Utah State after spending close to eight years in the athletic media relations department at Southern Utah, where he served as the Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations and as an Assistant Sports Information Director. Prior to that, Cottam was a member of the athletic media relations staff at Indiana State.

While at Southern Utah, Cottam was the media relations chair at the 2007 and 2013 Western Athletic Conference Gymnastics Championships and helped to coordinate the media relations efforts for each of the Thunderbirds' 17 sports.

While at Indiana State, Cottam served as the media relations chair at the 2005 NCAA Cross Country National Championships and as the co-chair of the 2004 national championship.

In addition to his role at Utah State, Cottam is also the Commissioner of the Mountain Rim Gymnastics Conference. The MRGC is one of only two gymnastic-only conferences in the nation recognized by the NCAA and includes member schools Boise State, BYU, Southern Utah and Utah State.

Cottam is originally from Murray, Utah and graduated from BYU in 2004 with a degree in public relations. He and his wife Meaghan have two daughters, Molly (6) and Lucy (3).

MEGAN MCCUISTION
Assistant Media Relations Coordinator
Fifth Year at USU

Megan McCuiston is in her fifth year at Utah State as an Assistant Media Relations Coordinator after joining the department in July, 2014. McCuiston serves as the media contact for USU's women's basketball, soccer and softball programs, while assisting with a number of other sports. McCuiston also assists with the athletic department's various social media platforms and is involved in the statistical crews of numerous sports.

Prior to her current position, McCuiston spent three years working in the USU Athletic Media Relations Office, including two as its graduate assistant, as she served as the media contact for the Aggies' gymnastics program. McCuiston also worked on numerous stat crews for the Media Relations Office, including serving as the chief in-game statistician for women's basketball.

McCuiston, a native of Tucson, Ariz., earned her bachelor's degree from Utah State in journalism in the spring of 2012 and her master's degree from USU in physical education in the spring of 2014. She married Aaron McCuiston in June of 2017.

WADE DENNISTON
Assistant Media Relations Coordinator
Fourth Year at USU

Wade Denniston is in his fourth year at Utah State as an Assistant Media Relations Coordinator after joining the department in March, 2015.

Denniston serves as the media contact for USU's cross country, track & field and gymnastics programs, as well as assisting with a number of other sports, including football.

In addition to game operations duties, Denniston also assists with the daily operations of the athletic department's various social media platforms, feature writing and photography.

Prior to joining Utah State, Denniston spent 15 years as a sports writer at The Herald Journal in Logan, Utah. The native of Cache Valley was the newspaper's beat writer for Utah State's football, women's basketball and gymnastics programs.

Denniston graduated from Utah State in May of 2001 with a bachelor's degree in communications. During his time at USU, Denniston was a senior writer for the school newspaper and an intern for the athletic media relations office.

Denniston and his wife Annie are the parents of three sons, Carson (15), Colten (8) and Walker (4), and one daughter, Emma (17).

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 20th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements during its first 19 years, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of Five 5 conferences. The Broncos defeated then 10th-ranked Arizona 38-30 in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San Jose State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean, while the addition of the women's soccer program at Colorado College gives the MW an additional presence in the Rocky Mountains.

HISTORY OF THE MOUNTAIN WEST

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcast entity exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

Entering the 2018 season, the MW has agreements with seven (7) different bowl games that will generate at least five (5) guaranteed postseason opportunities for its member institutions. These include primary positions with the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl, NOVA® Home Loans Arizona Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, and Hawai'i Bowl - and secondary positions with the Cactus Bowl and the Foster Farms Bowl.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in seven inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona, 2015 Cure), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.
